A gentlemen, rather remarkable for his obsetty, was asked where he obtained his meals, as the bill of fare must be exceedingly good, slace he appeared to be growing larger and larger every day. The prompt reply was, "At the Continental Salom, next door to the Postoffice, on Fifth the property was, but the prince of eprince of the property was the property when the prince of eprince of the property when it is not to the property when the prince of eprince of the property when it is not to the property when the property when the property when the property was the property when the property was the property when the property was the propert on, next door to the rostomer, or the rostomer, which is kept by that prince of eprures—Holzhelmer." The answer was perfures—Holzhelmer." The answer was perfure to the Continental the cures—Holzheimer." The answer was pur-and to the point, for at the Continental the best meals to be obtained in the city are daily served up at the most reasonable of prices. Game—the rarest, steaks, sish, and everything to tempt the palate, areaswred up in a better style than could Professor Biot indicate, and if you cat one meal gottes up by Holzheimer at a few minutes notice-you will forever bestow your patronge on The old established medical owners as the E. VOLUME LXXXII.--NO. .16. FIRST EDITION. SECOND EDITION. Beautifal Mpecimens of Art.

The clear atmosphere which we have had during the past fow days, has anded Mr. It. R. Bubbs. 30 St. Clair street, in bringing out a number of elegant and drat-class photographs, which are now temporarily on exhibition at his rooms and in his beautiful windows. This is the proper season to obtain clear and distinct pictures, and all who havo delayed should no one go to this well-known 'Gillery' to have a negative taken. We can eafely say that no where cles in the country can photogrands, plain or colored buy of art then at Mr. Dabbs'. Being himself thoroughly acquainted with all the departments of the art, and employing none but the innort tatented and skilful artists as assistants, his peoplarity has been legitumaterly garned, and it is no wonder that all Pittering his produced at the fallows galleries in the Netrorollian retigs. All the latest with those produced at the fallows galleries in the Netrorollian retigs. All the latest styles of pretures they fixed at the most reasonable rates, and we invite our readers to call in and lock through the specimens or photographybrite found at Mr. Dabbs' rooms and galley fees.
