DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

To-day Pittsburgh will be honored with the presence of the Governor and members of both branches of the Legislator. They have been invited here to inspect the public institutions of the country; such of them at least as depending in the Commonwealth, in whole or in part, for maintenance and chargement. They will arrive at noon. We regret that at the meeting of the Councils on Monday night-no, arrangements were made to receive and welcome these visitors. Perhaps it is not too late to remain the meeting of the Councils on Monday night-no, arrangements were made to receive and welcome these visitors. Perhaps it is not too late to remain the meeting of the Councils of Committee of Reception if the other matter will yet receive attention. Certainly the Board of Trade can appoint at Committee of Reception if the other measure is now imparticable. When the whom the power of the State has been delegated.
