The friends of the Bankrupt bill were wise in securing its reconsideration by the Sanato. To-day, after a charp discussion, in which the question of ill-treatment of Bouthern Unionists was debated, the bill passed by a word of 22 ayes to 20 mays. In the debate, Senator Obunes, of California was particularly severe on Mr. Sumner, accusing him of attempting to play the dictator to the rest of the Senato.
