

THE TARIFF BILL

It is before the House for final consideration. Differences exist between the Senate and House as to the number of its details. It is of the utmost importance that these differences be accommodated, and the bill passed, though some points have to be relinquished to the Senate.

THE PORTHOLE CONGRESS

Heretofore the law has required the assembling of the new Congress at the beginning of December following the expiration of the term of service of the old one. Some bills have been passed, and the new Congress directed to meet on the fourth of the next following month.

A BREATHING SPOT

We submit the report of the Allegheny Council Committee, to which we referred several days ago in our article upon the subject of the population of the Allegheny region.

IT IS PROBABLY THAT IF ANY CHANGES will be made in the officers of the two Houses. Indeed, the Senate has already related changes, never changing its Secretary or other servants except by reason of death, the infirmity of age or other real incapacity.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT

There is one sentiment in which the people of America of all sections, and shades of opinion, are more fully united than in any other, it is in that, that Congress ought to talk less and do more.

CONGRESS HAS BEEN IN SESSION

THE PEOPLE ARE DISMAYED

and with abundant cause. Congress is bound to act with certain limits of discretion in individual opinions and preferences in right and proper. But when that discretion is so unbridled, and all just proportion that it stands in the way of agreement upon practical and pressing questions, it is highly censurable.

THESE ARE NOT THE FIRST TIMES

that the representatives of the States and the People in the Congress have failed to do their duty. We trust the fact may conform to the prophecy. If it shall really do so, the chief obstacle in the way of a healthy and speedy reconstruction of the Union will be taken out of the way, and Congress be left with even an excuse for its inactivity.

THE COUNTRY NEEDS REPOSE

The North needs it as well as the South. In order to obtain genuine repose, such as it should be, the foundations of concord and property, it is essential the Union should be reconstructed, and the solid and enduring basis of the Constitution be re-established.

THE COMMITTEE ADOPTED THE TEN YEAR PLAN of the bill. It is a plan which will pay the whole amount of the debt in ten years. It is a plan which will pay the whole amount of the debt in ten years. It is a plan which will pay the whole amount of the debt in ten years.
