MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1867.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.

MASSILON, O., March 9, 1867.

The session of the Conference was opened this morning with religious services conducted by Rev. Robt. Boyd. This venerable and beloved man of God was one of the first members of the conference, at its organization in 1825. He entered the ministry in the old Baltimore Conference, in 1813. During three years he has sustained a local relation, for seven years he has been on the superannuated list, and for upwards of fifty years has rendered effective service. His presence is a benediction at any Conference. When he is removed from it to his reward, his brethren will mourn him as children would do a beloved father.

But to return to business. Though the Conference is not set for the dispatch with which it transacts business, yet Bishop Thomson has not only "met up" with the Conference, but has seriously troubled the Conference to keep up with him. Never has so much business been transacted in the same time in the history of the Conference. Though but three morning sessions have been held, yet nearly all the regular business has been transacted, and the appointments fixed. The real work of the Conference can not all be finished to-morrow, and the appointments announced on Monday morning as the fair heat.

Among the business matters transacted this morning were the granting to Revs. S. Rossiter and John S. Wakefield of a supernumerary relation, and to Dr. Samuel Wakefield and Rev. Robert Hopkins a superannuated relation. Both the last named are aged and able ministers, and have long been identified with the Conference. Serious gatherings on many a face as these venerable men retire from the effective ranks.

Reports were presented on the following subjects and adopted as the Bible cause, Centenary fund, Temperance, Tract Cause, State of the Country, Bethel Cause, Missionary, Education, Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, Sunday schools and Missions.

The reports, Missionary, give very encouraging accounts of all institutions of learning under the control of the Conference, especially the Pittsburgh Female Seminary, Allegheny College, and the College at Mount Union, Ohio. Each institution received more or less of the contributions made during the past year for the Centenary Endowments of the Church. One of the resolutions adopted expresses the hope that in connection with the liberality of the Church, and its friends, the Pittsburgh Female College, already occupying a front rank, may be elevated to the foremost school of its kind in the land.

W. Butts was transferred to the Missouri Conference. Dr. C. A. Holmes, for twenty years a member of the Conference, goes from the body to the Iowa Conference, with the President of the Iowa Wesleyan University, at Mount Pleasant, Iowa. Highly complimentary resolutions, eulogistic of his character of the ministerial man, and services rendered and accepted by a sister Conference, were passed. The Doctor's heart was touched by this marked expression of good will, and he made a brief but feeling response.

A delightful interesting Sunday School Anniversary was held this afternoon, and the speeches were made by D. Robinson Scott, delegate from Ireland to the Methodist Conferences in this country; Dr. T. H. L. Leaird, of the Presbyterian Church, and Albert L. Long, Washington Territory. At seven o'clock the Centennial Missionary Sermon will be preached by Dr. William Cox, formerly of your city.

Everything is moving on pleasantly and harmoniously.

OLIN.

Discharge of Snyder.

The Easton Free Press says: Snyder, the man who has been arrested for the murder of Mrs. Kays, at Stewartsville, was discharged yesterday, after the examination of the witnesses brought from Vineland by officer Keller, of Easton. The evidence of the two gentlemen was direct, and there is now no doubt of Snyder's innocence. We are told that Snyder was obliged to pay all the expenses incurred by the arrest, and would bill at the hotel at which he was confined. This we have from the best authority, and we pronounce it an outrage to require an innocent man, after being acquitted, and discharged, to pay the expenses of his prosecution. The citizens of Stewartsville, after the inquest, collected funds enough to pay the board bill, but the fare of the jailer, and other items, will cost him in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars. In connection with the above we think it our duty to mention the conduct of constable Keiter, during the examination of Snyder. At which he heard Snyder's statement of his innocence, and how he had been taken from home without a knowledge of the charge against him and wholly without money, at once stepped forward and offered to go in search of the witnesses named, and this, too without any remuneration, which we think too highly in praise of such conduct.

Engine Exploded.

The Steubenville Herald has the following in relation to the locomotive explosion already mentioned by us: Yesterday afternoon Engine No. 14, attached to a western bound freight train on the P. C. & C. R. R., exploded on a side track at Skelly's Station some fifteen miles from this city, killing her engineer, David Hall, and severely scalding the fireman, who is known, among railroad men, under the cognomen of "Egyptian." The train had switched off to avoid a passenger train, and this engine was under the command of Hall. The switch had not been working satisfactorily at the time of the explosion. He was so badly bruised and scalded that he died in a few hours. The fireman was thrown a few yards from the engine and escaped, almost miraculously. He was badly, though severe, are not considered dangerous. Mr. Carr was a young man, and had been married but a short time. His body was taken to Port Washington, his former residence, for interment. The engine was a total wreck. Many large and heavy pieces of iron were thrown in every direction from the scene of the catastrophe.

A Military Post in the Coal Regions.

The Tamaqua Journal suggests that in consequence of the innumerable outrages that are almost daily committed by the lawless characters known to infest the Anthracite coal regions, whether it would not be advisable to establish a military post in those regions, instead of the one now at Carlisle. There can be no question but that the entire property would be more secure in those regions, but the evil does not lie in a military force to control the conduct of the transfer of the military rendezvous from Carlisle to the coal regions would not subject the Government to any additional expense or inconvenience, so think the matter of sufficient importance for due consideration.

Kicked Out.

The possessor of the manifold mysteries which were hopelessly buried when the Allegheny Times went under—Joseph E. Robinson, Esq., has emulated the example set by Messrs. Aild. McMasters. On Saturday he made information before that magistrate in which he charges George R. Cochrane, Esq., of the law firm of Moffat & Cochran, with assault and battery. A warrant for the arrest of the accused was issued and placed in the hands of officer Seth Wilmot. According to the statement of the complainant, it would appear that Mr. Moffat went to the county seat on Saturday, leaving the office in charge of Robinson. Shortly afterwards the accused entered and abused and kicked him out, beating and abusing him. We may look for further interesting particulars in a day or two.

Hand Street.—This street, from the bridge to Liberty street, is a great thoroughfare and ought to be kept in good condition. We beg leave to call the attention of the proper authorities to the bad condition of the sidewalks in many places, and on both sides. In several places they have broken up, and in most places are rough and uneven, rendering it difficult and unsafe to walk along in the dark. That section of comparatively single frame buildings on the east side is said has been frustrated about long enough.

Re-elected.—We are pleased to announce that our esteemed business fellow citizen, Mr. R. A. Schnabel, has unanimously been re-elected Superintendent of the Pittsburgh National Coal and Coke Co. of the Pittsburgh National Coal and Coke Company. Mr. Schnabel has managed the affairs of the Company with marked ability, and under his administration the corporation has grown very popular with the community.

Oil City as in County Seat.—The Oil City folks are going into the work in active earnest to secure the removal of the county seat to Venango over four thousand names of voters are now in Harrisburg, and a large number of prominent citizens are in the lobby working very energetically. The Franklinites must look to their laurels.

Badly Burned.—On Tuesday evening the shermah well No. 3, Lockwood lease, commenced throwing oil, water and gas. Mr. Mecune, went on to the derrick with a torch to examine it, when the gas took fire and exploded. Mr. Mecune was thrown to the ground, and was seriously burned. His recovery is doubtful.

Will Report.—The liquor bill investigating Committee of the Legislature, appointed to examine into the charges of bribery made against the Allegheny county members, last session, will report next week. The charges will not be sustained.

Railroad Rolling Stock.—The North Pennsylvania Railroad, at present, has twenty-three locomotive running, which represent a value of $450,000. The Lehigh Valley Railroad has ninety engines, valued at $1,800,000.

From Gildenfamy.—We have received from W. A. Gildenfamy, No. 45 Fifth street, the current number of the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Dollar Monthly. Both are for sale at his counter.

Tidionte.—The Tidionte Journal expresses fears that they will soon be overrun with thieves and bullies of the worst stamp. A vigilance committee has been formed.

The Good Work.—A division of the Sons of Temperance was organized at Manch Chunk on Friday last. Nearly fifty names were added to the pledge.

Nearly Everybody in Allegheny is pleased with the project to beautify the Common Grounds.

Birmingham Nominations.

The Republicans of the borough of Birmingham, at a called meeting, on Friday evening last, nominated for borough officers, the following candidates, to be voted for on Friday next:

Burgess—Andrew Burtt.
Justice of the Peace—M. B. Hartzell.
Assessor—John Bishop.
Assistant Assessors—H. Grantz, William Gibbons.
Council—Conrad Yezley, H. Meisterseld, (first precinct); L. Duncan, John Adam, F. Findley, (one year, second precinct.
School Directors—W. C. Anghinbaugh, Thomas Parkes.
Constable—Fred Kauffhelt.
Judge of Elections—James McDonald, 1st precinct; Wm. Graham, 2d precinct.
Inspectors—David Jenkins, 1st precinct; David Jones, 2d precinct.
Return Inspectors—Hamilton Burnett, 1st precinct; Thomas Bishop, 2d precinct.

The Democrats have not yet made any nominations.

A Disorderly Case.

On Saturday night Daniel Gregan, a notorious character in the Eighth ward, became drunk, and while in the New Era Saloon, on the corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and Pride street, was attacked, as he says, by Barry Bowman, with whom he had a fight.

He was captured by officers Kidd and Day and with considerable difficulty taken to the lock-up. When put in the cell he manifested symptoms of ferocity such as are not often seen even in that place, yelling, howling and tearing about more like a wild beast than a human being. Yesterday morning, in default of three dollars with which to pay his fine he was sent to jail for five days.

Overstocked.—It is said that the Southern markets are overstocked with coal, and that there is no money in shipping it from this part just at this time.

Crude Petroleum is at a very low figure just now, from over-production, and speculators are diving in for chances to operate.

The Bankers charge money with being tight, and it is difficult to obtain discounts except upon first-class paper.

Real Estate still commands very high prices here, much out of proportion in comparison with other cities.
