Dr. J. W. Syrkes—Dear Sir—In October, 1804, I consulted you for severe Asthma and Irronchitis, which I had from childhood. The Philhsic was so severe at times that I could/only get my breath at night by sitting up, haying windows and doors opened. I was also much troubled with Dyspepsia. Three months before consulting you, I was so much reduced that my family physician said I could not live six months. As I am of a consumptive family, and was so much reduced you did not speak very confidently of my Tecovery, but thought I might be need you did not speak very confidently ny recovery, but thought I might be myself nader your care and improved rap-lity till my health was entirely restored, and I have since remained entirely well of my old aliments, and in good health every way. Yours, respectfully, MART. McCANDERS. Persons wishing to consult me by letter may address. De. J. W. Syras.
