The Vittsburgh Gazette. THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1867.

A MEETING of the Board of Trade will be held on Friday (to-morrow) afternoon to hear the report of the Committee on Consolidation, and take such further action as may be necessary. HIGH RENTS.

on changing residence. Why so many consent to this infliction is an unfaithomable mystery. They perform the job every year or two, with surprising regularity, and mainly without any solid reason. A momentary fancy that a different neighborhood would be more agreeable or convenient often decides them. In multiplied cases rent is advanced, and they shift, incurring double the expense in help, time, and breakage the expense in help, time, and breakage duy on the heads of landlords.

Is there any reason why a man who owns a tenement should not sell of lease it for the highest sum the market will give him? Yery few persons disport the right of a man to sell houses and lands for the best price he can get; and those who do obtain no credit for common sense. The value of property in fee simple must and will determine its annual value on lease. The law of supply and demand is just as potent here as six per cent. from par to half of one per law feet and throse who do abtain no credit for common sense. The value of property is and thirty-one million were offered than were wasted. One million were offered than were offered Just now thousands of families are experiencing the discomforts consequen

The Legislature of 1866, granted a charter for a railroad to run from Pottstylle to Pililadelphia on the opposite bank of the Every seem of the Schuylkii river from the Reading Railroad. Indications at the time warranded the belief that this legistalities was procured in retallation for an arrangement entered into between the Reading Railroad Company, the Atlantic and Grart Western Railroad Company, and a number of other companies, whereby and warmed line from the west was to be established, with arms reaching one to Philadelphia and the other to New York. Soon after the passage of the bill the strongest assurances were given that the work would be commenced inmediately and prosecuted to completion with the utmost possible celerity. The failure of firm the work would be commenced inmediately and prosecuted to completion with the utmost possible celerity. The failure of firm Morrow Perro, and the shanking house of which he was the recovered heady the project for a second railroad through the valley of the Schuylkiii. The Coal Exchange of Philadelphia spreads against a new road, no body seems disposed to invest the millions which would be needed if the enterprise should go on. But the coal operators of Schuylkiii county are of a different opinion. They want the millions which would be needed if the enterprise should go on. Tr is now apparent that Congress had good reasons for adjourning to July instead of December. Inspired by the President, his Southern friends are air rectly taking measures to bring the Millitary Government Ag before the Supreme Court. Their purpose was to apply directly to the full bench for an injunction at Commanders from executing the law, but they have found this cannot be done because the Supreme Court has not original jurisdiction, and can hear a cause only yone superist from a District Court. How far the President and his adherents may succeed in hindering the present construction movement is not easy to predict july, whatever delia may can be construction movementa is not easy to predict july, whatever delick may occur beyond the short period meessary under the existing law, he and they will be answerable for.
