THE MATRIMONIAL

The Dipstick holds to indicate and maintain a distinction without a difference. It denies having put Mr. Glass forward as a candidate for Mayor, and affirms it only intended to give its "cast of view" of the relative strength of the candidates.

It may be true the Dipstick did more to nominate and elect Mr. McCarty than any of its friends, which is an expression of some sympathy. But that is a reason why Mr. McCarty's victory is due to the Dipstick.

As we said a year or two ago, it is together with the Republican candidate for Mayor, the question of Matrimonial Convention ought first to be disposed of.

It is a fact that many people of refinement and education, who are not in the habit of reading the Dipstick, are not only not in the habit of reading the Dipstick, but are not in the habit of reading the Dipstick.
