

Poplar-Alley.
Mrs. M. Curran made an information before Alderman McManisters against Julia Ferguson for seditious speech, and Jennie Ferguson appeared before the same officer and charged Julia with assault. Warrants were issued in both cases and the defendant arrested and held for a hearing. Julia declared herself aggrieved at this mode of proceeding, made an information before Alderman Lynch against Jennie Ferguson,

[illegible][illegible]

There had an altercation yesterday, in which we were present, between the better men, and gave rise to a riotous and noisy scene. The man who was more than his usual sense, and who was the cause of the riot, was the one who attacked him. He jumped upon him, and he was thrown to the ground. He was then taken to the hospital, and he was there for several days. He was then taken to the hospital, and he was there for several days. He was then taken to the hospital, and he was there for several days.

[illegible][illegible]

to the Fleming's, along River, No. 4 street, for the best Table Oil in the city, at the lowest rates.

40 Sparkling Stone Water at J. T.
Brown, 1799 Broadway, No. 25 Federal Street, Boston.

For the Very Latest styles of Hats, Coats,
and Suits, Call at Gosselin & Logan's,
No. 108 North Main Street.

For the Best Foreign Liquors of all kinds at Joseph H. French's Restaurant,
No. 101, 103 and 105.

For the Best Champagne and other Wines at Charles May's, per cent. Alcohol at 100 cents a Gallon.

For the Best and Dressed Establishments
in the City, call on Dr. Bill & Gillespie,
No. 101, 103 and 105.

For the Best New Hope at Joseph H.
French's.

