Our readers will pardon us for making public this statement of private affairs.

All are aware of the unceasing labors of the city editor of the Pupatch to create false impressions regarding the GAZETTE in the public mind, and we must occasionally award him some attention.

The Reading Dupatch makes the following remarks on the approaching nomination for Supreme Judge:

We tree of the opinion that Judge Williams, of Allegheur, will be the choice of the convention, as the Western counties have in many instances instructed their delegates to support him to the last, while there are many inducence to be brought to bear in his favor on accounties been complaining most bitterly for two or three years that they have done so much towards helping to elect. The Western proportion of the offices which they have done so much towards helping to elect. The Western proport of him and sume even go so far as to demand the office for that section of the State. We believe their demand is but just and proper. If there is any disposition on the part of the section of the State. We believe their demand is but just and proper.
