Pittsburgh Swindler.

The Philadelphia Ledger of Thursday says; Several of our storekeepers have been recently victimized by a well dressed man, representing himself to be from Pittsburgh, and to be engaged in the business of exchanging dry goods, groceries, &c., for cash purchases in the country around the iron City. He would purchase a bill of goods and give a check for the amount, it invariably being drawn for a larger sum than the bill called for, as he would expect to receive the difference in cash. In one or two instances he was successful; in others the storekeepers were too cautious, and preferred to make further inquiry before parting with the money. It is by no means true that he came to our knowledge before the goods delivered. One of the parties who had received a check on the Second National Bank of Pittsburg telegraphed to the cashier of that institution to ascertain if a person of the name of the drawer of it kept an account there, and received an answer that he did not. This method of swindling is not new in Philadelphia. Within the past five or eight years it has been tried by a number of individuals, but rarely with any great success.

The North American describes the individual as an Irishman, nearly six feet in height, strong built, and the same as David Rankin, Co. City. He talked largely of money and stated to have seventy-five wagons running from Pittsburgh on in the country, trading in goods purchased for country produce.

Accidental Drowning.

Michael Dancey, of Henry City Township, Fayette county, was accidentally drowned in the Youghiogheny river, on the 26th ult., by his horse falling with him. An inquest was held before J. W. Lancaster, Justice of the Peace, and the jury returned the verdict that his deceased came to his death by accidental drowning in the Youghiogheny river. The witnesses testified that he, among many others, went down to the river to water their horses in the dusk of the evening, when Stanley's horse reared and threw him backwards into the water, when he was drowned. Diligent search was made, but his body was not found until next morning. The deceased bore a high character as an honest, upright and industrious citizen.

Broke Jail.

On Friday last, says the Bedford Inquirer, two of the prisoners confined in the county prison attempted to escape, but were unsuccessful in altogether accomplishing their designs. They thrust the person locked the door. Securing the key, they made their way out through the iron grate, but once they were overhauled by a party of citizens, who were passing by, and locked up in their old quarters. On Saturday morning one of the attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself to the bed post, but was foiled in this by the timely interference of the Sheriff.

District Deputy.—Mr. Hugh D. McGaw, of this city, has been appointed District Deputy of the Independent Order of Good Templars for the District comprised of that portion of Allegheny county lying between and South of the Rivers, and has also been appointed public lecturer for the Order in the western part of the State.

Daily Newspapers are now published at: Reading, Harrisburg, Lancaster, Erie, Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton, Williamsport and Scranton. A few years ago the only daily editions in the State of Pennsylvania were published at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

United States Court.

Before Hon. Wilson McCandless.

This Court met Friday at ten o'clock.

THE DISTILLERY CASE.

In the case of the United States vs. twenty barrels of whisky, &c., the property of Daniel Carson, the jury found, they (before reported,) the jury found, that they did not believe there was any technicality complied with, but that the Government had failed to prove any fraud on the part of the defendant, and therefore, they find and consider the libel sustained.

In two other criminal proceedings against the same defendant, for alleged violation of the internal revenue laws, District Attorney Carnahan declined to press a conviction, owing to the result in the previous case, and the jury under the instructions of the Court returned a verdict of not guilty.

ANOTHER CASE.

The next case taken up was that of the United States vs. Michael Seibert, of Armstrong county — proceeding to seize, for the forfeiture of property for violation of the act of Congress relative to distillers, in not giving bond, providing a bonded warehouse, a store keeper, or cistern required, payment of special tax, &c. Messrs. Gordon, Golden and J. B. Neale, Esqs., of Kittanning, and Thomas Williams, Esq., of this city, appeared for the defense.

District Attorney Carnahan opened the case to the jury that it was simply their province to pass upon facts, and not to apply the law. To do so would be to transcend their powers.

After the evidence had been heard on both sides, and the District Attorney had indicated the particular allegations in the libel upon which he relied, or would ask the jury to say had been established, the question at issues was narrowed down to the simple inquiry, whether the defendant had "neglected or refused" to comply with the law, the terms for not being called upon to ascertain whether there was an intent to defraud the Government.

Mr. Golden, however, raised a point which put an end to the case, after it had occupied considerable attention of the Court during most of the day. The act of Congress requires that parties subject to forfeiture must be commanded within twenty days after seizure. In this case more than twenty days had elapsed from the time of the seizure until the filing of the libel. The Court could see no choice but well sustain the claim, and with the assistance of Miss E. A. Gilliland, (who may be seen at his residence, corner of East Lane and Liberty st., Allegheny,) will give lessons in riding on either ladies or gentlemen horses, by permission, to the following gentlemen: Messrs. F. Faliard, J. Smith, Wm. D. Bissell, John Kilner, M.D., D. S. Evans. jy24:1m*
