A WOBTHY CANDIDATE: The loyal voters of the Commonwealth satebo algher tribute to the worth and characier of Judge Williams than the following neat coupliment paid him by the only daily Democratic paper of Western Pennsylvania the day following his vomination if said: The nomination of the Hon. Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the figureme Court is a good one. Ho was the best man named before the Re-publian Convention, and possensesieral and moral qualifications for the respon-sible position to which he has been nom-inated. Both parties have now present-ed their candinates. An important dury has been faithfully discharged by the respective conventions. The campairn may now be conducted without personal approxima, and desided upon the princi-ples of the two great parties.
