democracy would be enough. It was no this corporation. The writer of this was present at the meeting referred to, and unhealtatingly denounces the story as a mean and contemptible misrepresentation of the truth. Mr. Ferd said fine such thing, but he did declare him real unequivecally in favor of Free Rall road Laws and no such a platform he will be elected to-day to the Legislature by the honest, patriotic and thinking masses.

WE TAKE TRIS LART OFFORTURITY to urge upon the citizens of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the adjoining borougha, without distinction of party, to vet in flavor of Consolidation. It is now practicable to bring this saintary movement the giving the saintary movement the saintance of the truth of the logislature by the war, the delivery of loyal men of the South, white and black, up to the tender mercles of vindictive traition of these, traitors in our national councils. Let the loyal millions come up once more, and, "speak as the term."
