

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE
OF THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH.

GLEANINGS.

The Pittsburg Gazette.

Hannibal has been born.

Ashley has not abandoned Imperial men.

Francis Joseph declines visiting William in Berlin.

Charles S. C., has one hundred and fifty passengers.

Boston is to have a week in Boston,

as well as a week in Philadelphia.

A white physician is dead.

Cigars are cheaper in Jamaica, selling at twenty-five dollars apiece.

The Boston Post has discovered that the color who drew him had a hand in it.

North Hampton, Mass., is to have a hundred houses built in a single month.

Our Post is said to have traps weighing twenty-five pounds each.

French frogs are larger.

Artemus Ward, the actor, cut by a bullet in London.

The Post Gov. Andrew was wounded in the office of Secretary of War after the battle of Fredericksburg.

The New England demand the ballot and have it.

The women demand the

ballot and have it.

A French doctor says that the ferment of the revolution is a national convulsion.

It has been tried in a single country.

A Boston firm is charged with swindling

the government in an scheme

on the early stages of the war.

A foolish man, in Galveston, invested in a lottery ticket, and because it didn't draw, drew a razor across his chest.

Jeanie Jean is after Mr. Lincoln with a sharp stick. After all, what harm was it for Miss L. to offer her old dolls for sale?

Mr. Murchison is in the air, and the fever is still on.

The Dry Tortugas. He lost not a single

John Williams, of the Iron Age, claims being the father of the national banking system. Father & Doublet honor.

It costs nearly three times as much to send a letter from the Netherlands to the United States as from the country of which it comes.

The sentence of the Manchester Penian prisoners will be commuted with the exception of those who murdered the police.

The President's message will be a formidable document. Pending its preparation, visitors are excluded from the White House.

An idiot wrapped in swaddling clothes is said to have been left on the door step of Crosby's house (not Open).

A true legal veteran can for office in Brooklyn against a fellow who burdened his child with the names of a son of General Grant.

The State will be able to take part in the next Congress. He will in-introduce a bill providing for universal suffrage in all the States.

However, he is about to say his goodbying time. The New York Tribune is the only journal which pays his bills to his competitors.

The New York Independent is to hold a mass meeting of citizens on the last

mass meeting of citizens on the last