The Pittsburgh Gazette THE CITY ELECTION.

At the charter election held in this city terday, Rippell, the Republican car cidate, was badly beaten by BLACKHORE, the candidate of the Workingmen. BLACKHORE received very nearly the entire democratic support, and the votes of multitudes of republicans in addition.

On motive of Prof. L. H. Eaton, Rev. J. B. Clark, Mr. Jonathan Gallagher, Es-j., and Pr. Hayler convertion of committee to arrange a coursofol feetures for this League, exhibiting the different phases of the Temporate work.

Rev. Wm. Young, of Pittaburgh, then addressed the meeting. He speke of the great need of carnest labors in the Temporative case, and present in the Temporative case, and present mility individual responsibility, closed by presenting strong encouragement to persevere in the good work.

Rev. E. E. Swift followed: He compared strong atrik to the liquid fires that rushes down the sides of Monat Vesuvius, and showed that the former was far more destructive. Hesated that the inmates of our jalls, and pentientiaries and the miserable weeks of humanity that we see daily around us are the strongest temperance arguments that could be adduced.

Dr. M. B. Trestor then made some In-
