

21
The Pittsburgh Gazette

PUBLISHED BY
HANNAN, REED & CO.,
AT GAZETTE BUILDING,
NO. 26 SPRUCE STREET.

J. F. FERNAN, Managing Editor.
JAMES E. HANNAN,
Business Manager.

Three copies, per year, by mail, $1.00
Two or more copies, to be addressed and paid for in advance.

TERMS FOR DAILY:
Single copy, per day, 10 cents.
Quarterly, 12 " " "
Annual, 15 " " "
Linenette reduction to 5 cents and above.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1863.

In a recent circular that Miles will present at the Chicago Convention, his nomination to the Vice Presidency, the name of Mr. Hamlin; New York State of Ohio; Ohio and Pennsylvania that of Mr. Dixie; and the South West and the name of Mr. Colfax. A very excellent list from which to make a selection. If the National Convention were to be held in those states, the party would have been in a position to nominate a great general, and the country saved four years of fruitless agitation.

It is now, as stated yesterday by cable telegraph, that the man who stormed Mattoon tower, near Cork, and sacked a garrison town, city, was taken from the French and put in prison. What a blow to France! He has written a significant commentary on the recent public meetings here demanding the Washington government full protection to all the slaves.

The General Assembly of N.Y. expresses great dissatisfaction at the work of Reconstruction does not progress with greater rapidity, by far the larger portion of their time at the South is spent in the consideration of legislation. What these people want, therefore, is not so much Reconstruction, as a particular type thereof—Reconstruction with a vengeance.

When a grand old soldier shall call all his best political offices; but that ought not to be until the right of all men to be free is secured. And such an arrangement cannot be had, no matter how long it may be waited for.

When a grand old soldier shall call all his best political offices; but that ought not to be until the right of all men to be free is secured. And such an arrangement cannot be had, no matter how long it may be waited for.

Independently of the unqualified approbation of the President, we are told that the three first points above mentioned, and all the other members of the Cabinet, are in favor of his plan.

They are also in favor of his plan.