The Pittsburgh Gazette

IRISH LOVE MAKING.

A FRAGMENT BY RANCHE LOVER.

Och hone! don't provoke me to do it;
For there's girls by the score
That loves me—and more;
And you'd look very quare if some morning
you'd meet
My wedding all marching in pride down the street;
Troth you'd open your eyes,
And your die with surprise,
To think 'I wasn't you was come to it!
And faith Katty Nails,
And her cow, I go bail,
Would jump at I'd say,
Kitty Neile' name the day!'
And though you're fair and fresh as a morning in May,
While she's short and dark like a cold Winter's day;
Yet if you don't repent
Before Easter, when Lent
Is over I'll marry for spite—
Och hone! weirasthru!
And what'll die for you,
My ghost will haunt you every night.
