The Pittsburgh Gazette

ON A SPITEFUL LETTER.

BY ALFRED TENNYSON, D. C. L.

Here, it is here—the close of the year,
And with it a spiteful letter;
My fame in your fan-fare him much wrong,
For himself has done much better.

O, foolish bard, is your lot so hard,
If men neglect your pages!
I think not much of yours or of mine;
I hear the roll of ages.

This fallen leaf, isn't fame as brief?
My rhymes may have been the stronger,
Yet hate me not, but abide your lot;
I last but a moment longer.

O, faded leaf, isn't fame as brief?
What room is here for a hater?
Yet the yellow leaf hates the greener leaf,
For it hangs one moment later.

Greater than I—isn't that your cry?
And I shall live to see it.
Well, it is so, so it is, you know;
And if it be so—so be it!

O, summer leaf, isn't life as brief?
But this is the time of bollies;
And my heart, my heart is as evergreen,
I hate the spites and the follies.

MACAULAY'S ENIGMA.

Out of my head, and singular I am;
Out of my tail and plural I appear;
Out of both head and tail, and, strange to say,
My middle part remains, tho' nought is there.

What is my head cut off—a sounding sea;
What is my tail cut off—a roaring river,
Within whose eddying depths 2 ceaseless play,
The parents of soft sounds, tho' mute forever
Answer—God.

GLEANINGS.

—Tom Thumb and suite are in Cincinnati.

—$80 steamboats arrived at St. Louis last year.

—The Alleghenians are concertising in St. Louis.

—A Cincinnatian has invented a fire proof ash barrel.

—An iron foundry is to be established in Shelbyville, Tenn.

—The two Troy co-operative foundries are succeeding.

—There is but one white female in the Kentucky penitentiary.

—Rubenstein, the pianist, can not be induced to come to America.

—Houston, Texas is alarmed at the number of fires there recently.

—A Paper Pantalette Company has gone into operation in Maine.

—The Natchez city authorities retrenched nearly $17,000 last year.

—It is said that Salt Lake City has no rats; we suppose it is too far inland.

—Whisky is $3,00 per barrel in Santa Fe, and is said to be very good.

—During the last week hydrants all over the country have been on a bust.

—It is said that Franz Joseph and Napoleon intend to resuscitate Poland.

—Count Adalbert Bandissing is said to be the most popular novelist in Germany.

—New York and Philadelphia are behind the age. They have no Skating Rinks.

—St. Louis people show their sense in pretering to go to the Rink to any other place of amusement.

—An enterprising Cincinnati paper informed its readers on Monday that there is a famine in Sweden.

—Titusville has gotten up a company of Old Folks, which has been performing acceptably in Erie.

—A Philadelphian, named Veale, has been appointed Assistant General for Montana by Gov. Smith.

—The new city hall of Portland, Me., is a magnificent brown stone building, which has cost $320,000.

—Weston walked a mile in 7.55 min., and a mile backwards in 17 minutes, at the Cleveland Skating Rink.

—Only 23 persons in St. Thomas and St. Johns voted against transferring themselves to the United States.

—Baltimore people were just as lively as any others in their endeavors to get tickets for Mr. Dickens' readings.

—An American belle in Paris named Miss Pannisan is to be married to M. Romera, the Spanish Ambassador.

—An old and once much respected and prominent citizen of Cincinnati died there on Saturday a drunken vagrant.

—The Louisville Courier complains that that city has not had a genuine sensation since the beginning of the year.

—The pleasantest place in town for seeing the fashionable world, for having a flirtation glance, or for good skating, is at the Rink.

—The remnant of the Cherokees in South Carolina, some 1,000 in number, are getting ready to move to the Indian territory.

—Work has been resumed in the Mott Iron Works, Morrisania, New York; one hundred and eighty-five men are employed.

—All the music performed at the funeral of the late William B. Bradbury were selected from the compositions of the deceased.

—The library of John C. Calhoun is soon to be sold at auction in South Carolina, its late owner, Andrew P. Calhoun, being now dead.

—The Savannah (Ga.) National Bank declared a dividend, on the 8th inst., of thirty-seven and a half per cent. An excellent six months work.

—A grocer in Vicksburgh says he gets rid of his rotten eggs by tearing them in a barrel, in front of his shop all night; somebody always steals them.

—Matthew Arnold thinks that such an ignoble spectacle as that of poor Mrs. Lincoln is enough to vulgarize a whole nation, and that therefore aristocracies are a good thing.

—Washington City has one of the grandest Chicagoisms now on hand in the shape of a veritable, old-fashioned haunted house, where the windows fall in and uncanny noises are heard.

—The puddlers of Philadelphia had a meeting on Saturday for the purpose of preventing any further reduction in wages. Speeches were made but nothing very definite was decided upon.

—All the brass ornamentation on the locomotives of the New York Central Railroad are to be removed as superfluous, and because they make a great deal of polishing and extra work necessary.

—The Cincinnati Rink has proved a decided success. One of the papers thinks that a remarkable increase in the number of applications for marriage licenses is observable since the Rink became popular.

—A Mrs. Fredericks, residing in Baltimore, dropped a lighted coal-oil lamp on the floor on Saturday night, thus setting fire to herself and burning herself to a crisp. She leaves a husband and four small children.

—As the body of a gentleman in Kansas was recently being lowered into the grave the coffin, which was of cotton wood, fell to pieces, and the corpse sprawled into the grave amid the shrieks of the horrified relatives.

—Philadelphia went en masse into extacies and the Academy of Music—which it is said was never so full—on the occasion of the appearance of Mme. Gazaniga in La Traviata. Pancani, the tenor, is said by the Evening Bulletin to be the best they have had, especially not excepting Brignoli.

—A philosopher thinks the best way for water drinkers to make their beverage popular is to get up an impression that it is dutch to drink it. An immense amount of pleasure would thus be given to a large class of people who only drink whisky, rum, gin, etc., now because it is not proper to do so.

—As far as personal comfort goes Pike's Opera House is not a success. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says: "What any person, much given to legs, does with them in the narrow, shallow seats which you are permitted to sit in for the sum of two dollars per night, the wildest imagination cannot conceive."

—We are pleased to learn that at the great Industrial Fair at New Orleans, two Pittsburgh firms carried off all the prizes in the wagon line, Messrs. Phelps, Parke & Co. receiving a medal for an elaborately ornate silver mounted dray, and Messrs. Harper & Gutman receiving several medals for various sorts of heavy wagon work.

DR. J. SARGENT'S
FAMILY MEDICINES.

DR. JOHN SARGENT'S
Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills,
A CERTAIN CURE FOR
Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Bilious Attacks, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Colds, Costiveness, &c.

THE EXTRAORDINARY AND increasing demand for MY ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS, has induced me to make them more public, in order that my purchasers may be more exclusive, and would earnestly advise all those who have used other Medicines and not experienced the relief they anticipated, to try MY ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS. There is no other PILL extensively advertised, that have given such universal satisfaction, and as a family medicine they are the best of the household as do not injure the

I cannot, of course, enumerate the diseases for which these Pills are beneficial, but where a cathartic is necessary, they will effect a speedy and permanent cure. They have received the highest of all certificates, namely, that of the public, which are as follows: Again or more stress upon pressure below the stomach or breast bone, soon; move attended with a overstraining (water rises or heartburning) a opposition to vomit. Stools of b. at succeeding from the stomach, in a frothy colour, or the bowels, sometimes alternate constipation, a variable, uncertain appetite, great extension of spirits, the lining of melancholy; weariness and great antipathy to exercise.

It is seldom that all these symptoms are found in the same patient at one time; any of them, therefore, is a sufficient inducement to use the Pills, and a careful read of this medicine.

DR. SARGENT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS, never fail in curing the diseases, when taken according to the directions.

I attach a few of the many certificates I could give, as such a form as I hope will be satisfactory, but all the certificates I could put in would not inspire half the confidence that one trial will give.

FR M DR. JOHN BUTLER.

LOWELLVILLE, TRUMBULL Co., O.—DR. J. SARGENT—Dear Sir: I, prof. your want of satisfaction in recommending my Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills; they sell as fast in my store since I have been using them as any article also, with the best consequences. I find them in most of my little customers. I cannot do without them. Send me frequently as soon as you have a supply of the Pills. Enclosed find a quantity of pills given to you to send to Mr. Butler's last; you to send to Mr. Butler's last; you to send to Mr. Butler's last;
