SKATING.

Of all the joys vouchsafed to man
In life's sempiternous whirl,
There's naught approaches heaven so near
As skating with a girl—
A rosy, laughing, buxom girl;
A frank, good natured, honest girl;
A dashing, flirting, dashing, darling,
Smiling, smacking, jolly, joking,
Jaunty, jovial, jocer-poking,
Jim-like darling with a red hat and white feather, who snuggles right up against your waistcoat to shield you from the weather;
Who laughs at you with a mouth of pearl—
A dear little dunk of a girl.

Pile up your wealth as mountains high,
You sneering, scoffing churl,
I'll laugh as I go dashing past
With my flinging skates and girl—
The brightest, dearest, sweetest girl;
The tantrumest, tarest, neatest girl;
The fauntiest, flushest, frankest, fairest,
Rosiest, ripest, roguishest, rarest,
Spankiest, spiciest, equinest, squarest,
Best of girls, with drooping lashes,
Half concealing amorous flashes—
Just the girl for a chap like me
To court, and love, and marry, you see—
With rosy cheeks and clustering curls
The sweetest and the best of girls.

A. J. AND U. S. G.

There was an old fellow named Andrew,
Drew a low sock as he'er before man drew,
Said he, "Lie for me, Grant!"
Said Ulysses, "I can!"
Did this second U. W. to Andrew. [Lodip.

THE SOUTH.

—A cotton factory is to be erected at Delhi, in Franklin Parish, Louisiana.

—Hannibal, Missouri, has but one steam fire engine, and that is broken down.

—General Leslie Coombs is trying hard to become United States Marshal in Kentucky.

—The Richmond Branch Railroad will soon be in running order to Lancaster, Kentucky.

—Rev. J. W. Beckwith has formally accepted the Bishopric of Georgia, and will be consecrated on the second day of April next.

—Tac New Orleans Normal School is doing remarkably well. There are at present one hundred and twenty-five pupils in attendance.

—An immense number of negro voters are leaving Mississippi for Alabama and Tennessee. Some four hundred have gone from Monroe.

—The North Carolina Convention has voted down a resolution making negroes and persons unable to read or write ineligible for the office of Governor.

—A Texas correspondent says that that State is full of idle men waiting for something to turn up, and says all this is the effect of training youth to live without labor.

—California, a town in Montean county, Missouri, has a new weekly called the Pickwickian, which is a comic illustrated and rather a foreign looking animal for the back woods of Missouri.

—Two brothers-in-law named Smith and Cotton quarreled a few days since at Franklin, Tennessee, and shot each other. Cotton received a slight wound, but Smith was shot in the abdomen and cannot recover.

—In some parts of Alabama snow fell during the last week of January to the depth of six inches, an occurrence so rare that some of the oldest inhabitants have found it remarkable.

—Large land holders in Greene County (Ala.) are offering to give the use of their plantations for the year to any persons who will pay the taxes on them; hoping thus to escape the necessity of selling.

—The Franklin (Ky.) Sentinel says that the farmers in that region complain that the severe of sudden freezings and thaws this winter have killed off all of the wheat and materially injured the barley.

—Thirty-five thousand more white votes than colored ones were cast in North Carolina at the recent election, and the majority for a convention was almost equal to the whole number of colored voters.

—The Fort Smith Herald says that Arkansas is situated in the midst of one of the richest and most extensive coal fields in the country, requiring only labor and capital, and not very much of either to make it pay.

—The editor of the Batesville (Ark.) Times informs his readers that he got a whole hog from one of his subscribers for a single year's subscription to his paper, and he wishes all the others would go the whole hog too.

—The returns from Alabama still leave the ratification of the new Constitution of that State in doubt. The Montgomery Mail contains what it calls a black list, being the name of all whites who voted for the ratification.

—The Receiver of the First National Bank of New Orleans announces that he finds it difficult to collect debts due the bank, but that if he succeeds he will be able to pay the stockholders a dividend of fifty-six cents on the dollar.

—Some sash, bold burglars broke into the State prison at Baton Rouge and stole the clothes of the convicts. The New York Commercial Advertiser says they are a disgrace to the profession, and we think that it ought to know.

—Last Monday the scaffolding on the new school building in Gethsemane (Ky.) fell. Two men were on it at the time, one of whom was severely and the other fatally injured. The latter lived but a few moments after the accident.

—On the last day of January all the gutters were frozen over in New Orleans, and there was some skating on shallow ponds. The Picayune says that for the first time in years people found solid ice in their pitchers in the morning.

—A negro girl at a Methodist Church, in Nashville, Tenn., became so excited and nervous, under the injudicious appeals which were being made, that she swooned and fell onto a red hot stove, burning herself so badly that she cannot recover.

—Before the war Jacob Thompson was worth more than a million of dollars, he being the richest man in Mississippi. He is now an exile, living in Europe, where he recently received $80,000, being the entire proceeds of the sale of all his property.

—Castor beans, broom corn and sorghum have been planted in place of cotton in De Witt county, Texas. Seven thousand acres of castor beans alone have been planted, and a letter from there says that an oil press could do a fine business there in the coming fall.

—On Monday, February third, an extensive and destructive fire occurred in Galveston, Texas, resulting in the loss of property valued at some fifty or sixty thousand dollars worth of property. There was some seventy thousand dollars of insurance on the property, principally in Northern companies.

—The news from Louisiana is more encouraging. The precautions taken by the military and civic authorities have removed the apprehensions of attack from the bands of white and black marauders, and the peaceable portion of the population is at work, so that the fears of a lack of food are also disappearing.

—During the last two weeks some eighty Germans passed through Lexington (Ky.) en route for Woodford county, where they have engaged to work for the farmers. If this valuable element of our population were engrafted into all the counties of all the Southern States, reconstruction would lose many of its difficulties.

—Thomas Dula has recently been found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged in Raleigh, N. C. He was engaged to Miss Laura Foster, but his affections were weaned off by a young and pretty widow, named Anna Melton. These two plotted together the death of Miss Foster, who, one day rode out on horse back, and was found afterwards murdered, in the woods. Suspicion fell on the guilty couple, with the above result. Mrs. Melton is in jail awaiting her trial. The prominence, respectability and wealth of the parties have caused the affair to be of the profoundest interest in Raleigh.
