The Pittsburgh Gazette

KISSES.

Cupid, if stor'ying legends tell aright,
Once fram'd a rich Elixir of Delight.
A chalice o'er love-kindled flames he fixed,
And in it nectar and ambrosia mix'd:
With these the magic dews which evening
Brushes from the Idalian star by faery
wings;
Each tear pledge of sacred faith he joined,
Each gentle pleasure of th' unspoiled
mind—
Day-dreams, whose tints with sportive
brightness glow,
And Hope, the blameless parasite of Woe.
The joyless Casmir heard the process rise,
The steamy Gallics bubbled up in sighs,
Sweet sounds transpir'd, as when the spam-
ord dove
Pours its soft murmuring of response to love.
The finished work might Envy vainly blame,
And 'Kisses' was the precious compound's name.
With half the God his Cyprian mother blest,
And breath'd on Sara's lovelier lips the rest.

FROM THE SOUTH.

—Memphis is trying a little Nicolson pavement.

—Pneumonia and scarlet fever are troubling Missouri.

—Kentucky papers are troubled about the dullness of the mule trade.

—The Richmond Enquirer delights in calling Hunnicutt "a collapsed demagogue."

—Bishop Carroll, of Covington, Ky., is so ill that but little hopes are entertained of his recovery.

—The Georgia Convention has left the question of eligibility of negroes to office to the State Legislature.

—Bishop Martin is hard at work raising funds to proceed with the building of the cathedral at Natchitoches, La.

—Maj. Gen. McDowell McCook is the commander of the sub-district of Texas. His headquarters are at Brownsville.

—Mrs. James Prewitt, of Mercer, Ky., has run off with Mr. D. A. Davis. Mr. Prewitt is not going of to find either of them.

—Peas and potatoes are being planted in Georgia, a fact which must be especially pleasant to the lovers of those vegetables.

—Bears are very plenty in Texas. A party of hunters started out from Brenham and in two days killed six bears in Brazoria county.

—New Orleans is about to start a line of steamers between that city, Havana and points south. It is to be called the Gulf Stream Marine.

—The Democracy—so called—of the various counties of Missouri have held, or are going to hold mass meeting to organize the campaign.

—The St. Louis Republican says that the Rev. Jas. W. Kellegg, of Dearborn, eloped last week with the wife of William Moorehouse of the same place.

—Last summer the Missouri river at Glasgow measured 1,078 feet across; a few days since, at the same place, it measured but 900 feet. Water fall was there.

—The wild ducks and geese are so numerous as to be a pest, in the lower portion of Jackson county, Missouri. Whole fields of corn have been destroyed by them.

—There was a meeting in Yazoo City, on the 7th inst., to devise means to successfully resist the payment of taxes. Whether they will succeed in their devises remains to be seen.

—The widow of John C. Calhoun was forced recently to sell his library at auction, and it brought only $250; whole shelves of books were knocked off at five to six dollars per shelf.

—The North Carolina Convention recently adjourned, on motion of Mr. Hood, a presbyterian minister, until the circus had passed the capitol; after which their duties were resumed.

—The people of Lexington and Paris, in the State of Kentucky, had an exciting match for the championship recently. One of the finest cock fights on record took place, and Paris was victorious.

—On Monday Edwin Forrest began an engagement in Louisville as Virginius. The Courier of that city, having probably been Rip Van Winkleizing for some time, calls him the greatest of living actors.

—During the last month the heavy cotton transactions in Nashville have used so much money that currency is very scarce thereabouts. From $40,000 to $50,000 per day have been sent into the country to planters.

—A young man, who was waltzing at a ball in New Market, Tenn., a few days since, fell to the floor. His partner endeavored to raise him, and it was not until then that her screams acquainted the shocked merry-makers that he was a corpse.

—The stories of destitution in Alabama are heart rending, a Southern Exchange says that women of refinement, well bred and tenderly nurtured are begging for a little corn for themselves and children, and there is none for them.

—After reading the following in a St. Louis paper, we concluded that the colored man referred to is dead: "A drunken negro stepped into the dock at Richmond, Va., Thursday night, and was fished out Friday in an expired condition."

—Farmers in the neighborhood of Memphis are beginning to appreciate the situation and are hard at work clearing the ground for plowing, having found out that only by the sweat of their own brows can bread in sufficient quantities be procured.

—A Mrs. Farley and her son attempted to cross the river at Kansas City on the evening of the 15th inst., but took the wrong track, and fell through a hole in the ice. Mrs. Farley was rescued alive, but the body of her little son has not yet been recovered.

—Texas was never so thronged with lawless characters as it is just now. Murders are almost as plentiful as they are in Memphis. Highway robberies are very frequent, and mail coaches are stopped and eased of their valuables in true Jonathan Wild style.

—The Alumni of Georgetown College in Kentucky, are to have a festival during commencement week, in June next, and all graduates have been requested, through the newspapers, to let the authorities know of their whereabouts, in order that invitations may be forwarded to them.

—Rather an exciting scene took place on the 18th inst. in the Vicksburg Herald office. A gentleman came in with a tin cup full of Petroleum and undertook to show off its non-explosive qualities by touching a lighted match to it. Instantly the room was in a blaze and the occupants, covered with flames, rushed from it. By the efforts of outsiders they were extinguished, but the editor and one or two other gentlemen were very badly burned.

—In New Orleans a man was found on the 18th inst., cut in the breast and lying on the pavement. He said that a one-legged man came out from behind a corner, called him a coal heaver and cut him. After repeating this statement several time he died. A man named Maddox was shortly afterwards arrested because he was washing a bloody knife, which he attempted to conceal when he saw the policeman. Maddox has but one leg, so that circumstances are not in his favor.

—The Lebanon, Ky., Clarion gravely announces that "a negro child, of the male persuasion, was born at Mr. Lloyd Adams', in that county, between four and five weeks ago, that has well developed breasts, and gives milk. All the means usually resorted to, for the purpose of checking the flow of milk in females, have been tried in this case without success, the milk continuing to accumulate. The case is a very curious one, and is attracting a good deal of attention from medical men. If this lacteal flow continues, what a fine wet nurse the boy will make after a while." This is a sort of rival to the woman turned man story.
