

The Pittsburgh Gazette

SPECIAL NOTICES.

IN THIS GOOD TIME.
In thy good time, dear Lord, in thy good time,
I have found rest, and I have found a home
in thy good time.
All the best of the day,
With the sun at his zenith, and silver streaks
down with him.
After the heat and burden of life's way,
The pain grows less, and the load less heavy,
Rest for the weary, and a load off the head.
After the storm comes the calm, and the waves
have their sweet downy sleep.
After the wind comes the calm, and the gales steal down like breathing sighs.
After the storm upon the hills deep
The blessed peace of the quiet of holy joy.
In patience, Lord, I wait for the good time,
To take to them with come.
MY DEAR HOME.—
D. J. PAXTON.
