The Pittsburgh Gazette

A TRAGIC STORY.

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN OF A. CHAMISSO, BY W. M. THACKERAY.

There lived a sage in days of yore
And he a handsome pigtail wore;
But wondered much and sorrowed more,
Because it hung behind him.

He mus'd upon this curious case,
And swore he'd change the pigtail's place,
And have it hanging at his face,
Not dangling there behind him.

Says he, "The mystery I've found;
I'll turn me round." He turned him round,
But still it hung behind him.

Then round and round, and out and in,
All day the puzzled sage did spin;
In vain—it mattered not a pin—
The pigtail hung behind him.

And right and left, and round about,
And up and down, and in and out,
He turned; but still the pigtail stout
Hung heavily behind him.

And though his efforts never slack;
And though he twist and twirl, and tack;
Alas! still faithful to his back
The pigtail hangs behind him.

PERSONAL.

—Frederick Seward was in New York on Monday.

—Mrs. H. B. Stowe is stirring up the colored people in Richmond, Va.

—One hundred dollars a verse or five pounds per line is Tennyson's pay.

—Alexander H. Stephens is residing in Boston. Queer place for him to go to we think.

—E. L. Davenport is going to act in England; he is going by way of California and Australia.

—The greatest mathematician in Europe is said to be the Italian Prime Minister Gen. Menabrea.

—Philadelphia physicianesses are well paid. One returns an income, derived from her practice of $10,000.

—Rev. Morley Punshon is going to move to America from England in order to be able to marry his deceased wife's sister.

—Gen. Samuel D. Lucas, one of the pioneers of Missouri, died at his residence at Independence, on Sunday, aged sixty-nine years.

—Senator Hendricks, of Indiana, requests his friends not to present his name as a candidate for the Presidency. The Senator probably likes to waste his breath.

—Edwin Booth, having long been troubled by importunities to go abroad to play, seems at least to have succumbed. He will begin by playing next month in New Jersey.

—Washington is very gay with amusements. Ole Bull is there, La Grange and Brignoli are there, and so is Blind Tom, Belle Boyd too, and all of the politico-Congressional notables.

—The King of the Belgians has sent a handsome gold watch to the burgomaster of Zele, because he is hale and hearty in the possession of all his faculties and one hundred and two years old.

—Mrs. Senator Sprague thinks Andy is an ill-used man, and tells her father, the Chief Justice, and her husband, the Senator, that he has only stuck up for his rights and that they should aid him.

—Plon-Plon wants his cousin to go to war. Nothing but a good sound successful war will restore the popularity of the Napoleonic dynasty, says this disagreeably plain spoken cousin of the Emperor's.

—Carlotta is not as crazy as she was; not half. She wrote a letter to ask the Pope to pray for the soul of the ex-Emperor, and her note paper had as deep a black border to it as any note paper could have.

—Charles Dickens, whose greatest merit undoubtedly is the fact that Thackeray praised him, is getting bags ready in which to carry back to England his 30,000 pounds sterling in gold, which Americans have paid for looking at him.

—E. C. Markley, of the well known Philadelphia printing house of Crissy & Markley, died a week ago in Florida, where he had gone in search of health. Not a year ago died Mr. Crissy of the same firm, and the oldest printer in Philadelphia.

—Mr. Gladstone has abandoned the doctrines of Free Trade, and a popular movement is going on in England against it. It is stated that 15,000 tailors alone have been reduced to penury by the want of sufficient protection. If this is so in England what may we not anticipate from it here?

SOUTHERN DOINGS.

—A religious revival has been going on in the Presbyterian Church in Columbus, Ky.

—Bowling Green is to have water works and advertises for contractors to construct them.

—A Richmond paper thinks that the grape and wine production is soon to become a leading Virginia interest.

—Arkansas justice is swift and strong. Three men were recently followed, overtaken at Gaines' Landing, shot and killed for stealing corn.

—Montgomery City (Mo.) had a severe rain and hail storm on the 1st inst. This is the first rain that has fallen on that place since the 4th of July, 1867.

—Carroll county, Kentucky, has a fox hound which wears the champion silver collar, and its owner has challenged all other hounds to contest its right to do so.

—The Black Crook at Atlanta cost the people of Richmond county (Ga.) $10,000. The Augusta Constitutionalist calls it the "great immoral exhibition."

—An Alabama newspaper publishes the names of ten white men, said to be all who voted in Perry county at the late election. Of these it accuses eight of being candidates.

—Four hundred and sixty acres of good timbered land in Mississippi within three miles of the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad were sold at sheriff's sale recently for ninety-one dollars.

—One hundred Germans have settled in South Carolina, twenty miles from Columbia. They are working so very quietly and energetically that the people in the neighborhood think of driving them away.

—The Kentucky farmers are hopeful again. They say that the wheat, rye and barley, although injured, are not completely killed off, and a pretty good crop may still be looked for.

—Justice though tardy is sure, and strikes men even in the third and fourth generations. The family of the great originator of our national troubles, John C. Calhoun, is reduced to penury. He is dead but he suffers in his children.

—Two men, named Hunt and Evans, indulged in a little difficulty in Franklin, Tenn., on Saturday. Evans shot Hunt in the mouth, depriving him of his teeth, his palate and of the lower part of the back of his head. It is thought that he must die of his wound.

—A lot of little boys in Lebanon, Ky., started to roll a large log down hill, for the fun of the thing. One of the children, named Mattingly, got in front of the log just as it got started and he was rolled out flat and injured so badly that he died a couple of days afterwards.

—A Mr. Bradshawe who lives in the southern part of Missouri, set fire to the prairie grass to burn it from about his stables in order to protect them from prairie fires. After having, as he supposed, secured his property he went shooting. On his return he found his stables, barns and houses all destroyed by the fire which he himself had kindled.

—The Kuklux Klan move about pretty much as they please in Tennessee. On Saturday night a party of about one hundred, masked and fantastically dressed, dashed through Nashville and rode South. What their mission was has not yet been ascertained, but horrid tales of blood and outrage, plunder and terror follow their every appearance as surely as the thunder follows the lightning. A regular counteracting secret society whose oath will bind its members to pursue and punish every Kuklux in the State when discovered, is the only thing that seems capable now of overthrowing and exterminating these maggots which are infesting the dead body of the rebellion.

MEDICAL.

A GREAT CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what it was to be free from the disease. I had to sit up in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt life a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 11th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband, Joseph Meyers, but I must confess, with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. Dr. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am today in vigorous health, and TOTALLY FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in awhile, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.
Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The cure of Mrs. Myers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks, their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been near ly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, in as much as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, SIMON P. FISHER, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated.

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of person who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health, and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that signed, as advertisement of the case of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of George Ford, carpenter, of No. 18 Lampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there a called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

STATEMENT OF JOHN G. WIGHAM, OF TURTLE CREEK, ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1866, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough and fell away in strength and flesh and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood and, afterwards, to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DOCTOR KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases, like mine had been highly spoken of and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under Dr. Keyser's medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved and my chest, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment and medicines.

JOHN G. WIGHAM, Turtle Creek.
