RIVER NEWS.

The Allegheny river seemed to be at a stand last evening with a little over twentytwo feet in the channel by the Suspension Bridge marks. At Oil City, however, it was reported at three p. m. with seventeen and a half feet in the channel, and twenty feet at Brady's Bend. The Monongahela was reported rising slowly with twenty-one and a half feet by the pier mark. The weather was cloudy and pleasant, though towards evening, it seemed to be clearing up, and getting somewhat colder.

The Bellevernon, from St. Louis, Wild Duck and barges, from New Orleans, and the St. Charles, from Cincinnati would arthe st. Charles, from Chicaman would arrive early last evening. The Wauanita, Captain Thomas Shuman, is filling up steadily for the Missouri river, as is also the Lorena, Captain Sam. Shuman, for St. Louis. These are both good boats and there are few better steamboatmen than the Shuman brothers.

The Leni Leoti, Captain Hamilton, is loading for St. Louis and the Upper Missouri river. She goes clean up to Fort Benton. The Leni will be followed by the new steamer Andrew Ackley, Captain Bolia

The R. C. Gray, Captain Wm. B. Anderson, is announced for Evansville, Cairo and Memphis. The America, Captain Adam Poe, is up for Nashville.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Monday says:
Captain George Baker, late of the Sherman, es to Pittsburgh to attend the public sale of the steamer Importer, advertised to take place on Wednesday.

We clip the following from the Cincin We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette, of Monday; A crazed woman appeared at the staging of the Argosy, on Saturday, well dressed and apparently intelligent, asking a situation as channermaid. At first Captain. Vandergrift informed her that no such situation could be had on his boat; but, observing a gentleman who accompanied her make the research. man who accompanied her making signs to indicate that she was demented, he con-cluded to humor her whim, and informed her that a situation would be open next her that a situation would have it. She then equested a card of the boat, which the Caprequested a card of the boat, which the Cap-tain was unable to furnish, as he had not learned the necessity of such; but the gen-tleman who accompanied her, and who proved afterwards to be hor husband, earn-estly requested that the card of some stanboat should be given her in order to give her mind rest for the time. An old give her mind rest for the time. An old card of the Telegraph was hunted up there-fore and no doubt the officers of that boat will be astonished, next trip, to find that will be astonished, next trip, to find that they have engaged a new chambermaid.

Sickness in the family of Capt. Charles Beers, prevented him from leaving the city, and Richard Henderson went out as pilot of the Armadillo in his place.

The Evansville papers say, that Mr. C.
D. Millar, river editor of the Commercial, who left here a few days ago, on a trip to New Orleans, turns back from that point, n consequence of domestic affliction. Mr. John Ballard, an old resident of Oldham county, Ky., recently took passage on the steamer Falls City, for Bowling Green, and as nothing has been heard of him, he is supposed to have fullen overboard. The officers of the Pine Grove, which ar

The belief is that he was: murdered for money he was supposed to have in his possession, from the collection of freight bills of the boat. Nearly all the money collected by him, however, it seems he had taken care to safely deposit. On board the steamer Mollie Hambleton bound from Memphis for the St. Francis River, last Tuesday, a Mr. Diamond and J. C. Berry, both planters, had a violent quarrel, but were separated. Soon afterward, Mr. Diamond, while standing in the cabin, was shot in the breast, the wound being probably fatal. No one saw the shot fired, nor did subsequent investigation throw an more light on the affair than that involve in the suspicion directed toward Mr. Berry The latter, however, was not in the cabin a the time, and if guilty, must have fired
