IRON AND NAILS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE FRIDAY, March 20, 1868. There is quite an active demand for Nails, some of our manufacturers having more orders than they can fill, and there seems to be an increased inquiry each succeeding day. For manufactured Iron, there is also an increasing demand, and that, too, in the face of the recent advance, and it looks now as if the hopes of our manufacturers in regard to a good spring, would be fully realized. Stocks, both here and all over the country, are very much reduced, and our mills are all in full blast, and everything connected with the iron trade of Pittsburgh presents a more cheerful appearance. The following are the card rates:

PITTSBURGH DRUG MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, } FRIDAY, March 20, 1868. There is a steady demand for goods, and at fair prices. Since our last review, we report a further advance in Citric Acid, Iodine of Potassium, Cardamon Seed, and Castile Soap, but have no other changes of importance to note. The manufacturers of Castor Oil in St. Ine manufacturers of Castor Oil in St.

Louis and other western markets have recently adopted the plan of selling by the pound instead of by the gallon, and we note the same rule coming into use in New York. Like all other innnovations, this custom will have its disadvantages as well
as its merits.

It may be more convenient for those who sell by the original package, but the small jobbor will continue in all probability to measure a gallon in preference to weighing eight pounds. We clip the following from the Now York drug market has been active, and the sales of the past week have been on a more liberal scale. In Gum Arabic a better feeling prevails, cable dispatches from London, Friday last, report an advance; our advices from Alexandria, an advance; our advices from Alexandria, an advance; our advices from Alexandria, Egypt, state a great reduction in stock on hand, and that higher rates have been paid for immediate delivery. In Opium, the New York market rules foverish, two of the principal important have been so for the principal importers have been so far successful as to concentrate the bulk of Opium in this country, into their own hands, and have bought up the odd lots offered here and in Boston, are now holding their stock for an advance. Messrs. Lenman & Kemp have issued another of their Opium Circulars, and this time we ere glad to see that they have actually given real stock of Opium in London is about 334 ch. against 282 chests as compared with the corresponding period of 1867, showing an increase of 52 chests in favor of this year.

New York Dry Goods Market. llly Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.] New York, March 20.-Dry goods were NEW YORK, March 20.—Dry goods were without much change.
