GREEDY JIM. [Being a story of a little boy who swallowed a whole butter-pat, not knowing that it contained a fairy.] Greedy Jim is always rude. Pokes his hand in every dish:

In his hurry to intrude,
Swallows bonce instead of fish:
Swallows bad instead of good;
Snatches meat but swallows fat-

'Goodness: Jim, don't look so wild!'
'Gracious! Jim, don't seream so shrii!''
'What's the matter with the child!'
'Goodness, gracious! are you ill?'
'Goodness, gracious! are you ill?'
Father's getting rather riled.
Mother hardly draws her breath.
'Goodness! Jim, don't look so wild!'
Sure you frighten us to death!'

"Timbling down and leaping up.
Twisting limbs in ev'ry shape:
Rolling, grov'lling like a pup.
Mowing, mopping like an aper
Tasting neither bit nor sup.
Yelling like an imp in pain;
Tumbling down and leaping up—
Certainly the boy's insane.

'Little have his parents guess'd Whence the mighty mischief springs: Men and women, much depress'd. Hecommend a hudred things. But it's hard, if truth's confess'd. To find care or artidote; For—a fairy in your chest, Trying to ascend your throat!"

Canfield Herald. -John Robertson, Postmaster at New Lisbon, Columbiana county, who was arrestnd a few days since, was held for trial at Cleveland, on Saturday, by United States Commissioner White, in the sum of $300. The charges against him were: 1st. Embezzling funds belonging to the United States. 2d. Presenting for allowance a fraudulent claim against the United States. 3d. Stealing money from letters passing through New Lisbon Postoffice. The defandant is about sixty years of age, and has hitherto borne an irreproachable character.
The case was conducted on behalf of the United States by Capt. Bunts. Assistant
District Attorney, and for the defence by Messrs. Powers & Clark, of New Lisbon.

-On Tuesday morning of last week, as we learn from the Canfield Herald, while Mr. Reuben Alexander was engaged at work in the flax and tow mills owned by Messrs. Case & Patterson, his hand came in contact with some of the machinery, and before it could be withdrawn was badly mangled. The fingers of his left hand vere torn off near the first joint, so Iturbide he is still residing with his mams at Washington. He is only seven years of age and consequently is neither fighting for the Pope nor plotting in Cuba.
