The Nittsburgh Gazette. FINANCE AND TRADE

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 26, 1868. The gold market is unusually quiet, with but 1/4 per cent. of fluctuations; opening at 138%, and varying between that and 13814. Government bonds were dull and lower early in the day, but at noon quotations had slightly improved, with a very light demand. Opinions are very much divided on the course of the Government securities; the general impression is that the market will be lower on account of the scarcity of money, but if business remains dull and unprofitable, government securities will be bought up, even at higher rates. The stock market had somewhat improved in quotations, but the amount of business is very light, and unless the Govrnment adopts such regulations, preventing the Assistant Treasurers from locking up money, little reliance can be placed on an early advance in the market.

Money is scarce, and still commands from 10 to 12 per cent. on first-class paper; long paper is not wanted at any price. Closing quotations as received by Ph. R.

Fortunately, no emergency of that kind is now anticipated, though it may be well to look ahead and be prepared for coming events. -The prospective repeal of the manufacturing tax is just now exerting a favorable influence upon the market for wool, cotton, hemp, metals, leather, hides, and other raw materials, stimulating consumers to lay in stocks, and causing them more readily to pay the market prices. But, on the other hand, buyers of manufactured products are operating more cautiously and sparingly, in the hope that the lifting of this burthen of taxation, which is borne chiefly by the consumer, will enable them by-and-by, to supply themselves at a reduced cost. -Money is active in Boston at 6 per cent. —Money is active in Boston at 6 per cent. for call loans upon Governments, and 6½ to 7½ for discounts of short paper. The supply of good business paper is in excess of the demand, and money upon call is not overabundant at the rate named. The bank loans are very high—perhaps fully as high as can be safely carried over the coming return day. New York funds are scarce, but do not command any premium this week. Small bills are in demand and pay rolls with difficulty supplied with the requisite small notes. small notes.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET, OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 26, 1868.

CATTLE. There was next to nothing done at these yards during the past week, the sales being very insignificant—hardly worth reporting. During the fall and in the early part of the winter, it was nothing unusual to have sales of from two to four thousand head of Cattle per week-now the sales do not reach that many hundreds; and, what is worse still, there is but little prospect at CHARTERED IN 1862.

The yards present a very dull appearance, nearly all the pens being empty, and while there are but very few buyers, it is equally true that Cattle are almost as scarce as purchasers, and this, probably, tends very much towards keeping buyers away, as they do not care about coming here from Philadelphia, New York, and other points when the chances are that they will find nothing to buy when they get here.
