OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 30, 1868.

Gold was firmer and higher to-day, 138 being the opening quotation, and 138¾, strong, as the closing rate. The advance is due to large short interest made during the beginning of last week standing uncovered. It was a movement of the bull clique in stocks to move simultaneously in gold, in order to be enabled to advance stocks to a high price in currency, but it seems that importers and speculators in gold have more confidence in lower rates, and thus keep from buying at present. It is not likely that large purchases of gold would be made now on presumption of an early rise, since the May payments are too near at hand, and generally a large number of speculators are disposed to sell short; that might keep the market down until the Treasury would come to their assistance.

In government bonds a better feeling manifested itself early in the day, but towards noon the market fell off about ¼ per cent. on all new gold bonds and seven-thirties.

The stock market is higher and excited, and all kinds of rumors are scattered to effect securities; it is true stocks are low, and even an advance of 4 to 5 per cent. would leave the price below the quotations of January, or even at the beginning of the present month.

In local money matters we have to report an unusual stringency, with no prospect of any immediate relief; even the banks are not in a condition to discount more freely, after the quarterly statement, if they are carrying out the spirit of the law, to which they owe their existence.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R Mertz:

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 30, 1868.

CRUDE—The crude market was only moderately active to-day, the reported sales in the aggregate reaching about six thousand barrels, and with apparently more offers to sell, and a less urgent demand, the general feeling seemed to be a little weak, and spot oil, compared with Saturday, is off fully a quarter of a cent. We can report 500 and 1800 bbls, for immediate delivery, at 8½c; 2000 to be delivered on first water, at 8¾c; and 2000 for April and May, seller's option, at 9c. We heard of offers to buy at 9⅛c for each month from now until December; and offers to sell all the year, buyer's option, at 12c. The most noticeable feature was that there were more offers to sell than there were on Saturday, which is usually regarded as an indication of a declining market; though, after all, holders did not seem disposed to yield much in order to effect sales.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was quiet and apparently a little weak today, though there are still more offers to buy than there are to sell. So far as we could learn, there was not a single sale effected to-day, which was owing entirely to the fact that our refiners refuse to accept the figures now prevailing. We are cognizant of offers to buy at 26c for May, and a half cent advance until December; also, 28½ for the last three months of the year. We are also cognizant of an offer to sell April to July at 25½c and a half advance, without finding a buyer, and all the year, buyer's option, at 31c. Spot oil was quoted at 24¾; April at 25c; May at 25¼c; and June at 26c.

ARRIVALS—The following are the reported arrivals of oil to-day:

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 30, 1868.

The fine weather, with which we have been favored for some days past, has imparted more tone to the general markets, and were it not for the stringency in money matters, we could doubtless report a pretty full volume of business. As it is, however, there is a fair business, in the aggregate, and with a pretty good local demand for most of the leading articles, prices are well maintained.

APPLES—We can report a regular demand, and while the market is steady, prices are unchanged, ranging from $4 to $6 per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—In steady demand but unchanged; regular sales in store at $3,25 to $3,50 per barrel for Peach Blows and Buckeyes.

SEEDS—Quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote at $8 for Clover; $2,75 for Timothy. Flaxseed is in active demand but unchanged at $2,50.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is scarce and firm at $2,53 to $2,55 for Red, and $2,60 to $2,65 for White. Oats firm and higher; we have a sale of 1000 bushels at 75c, and same figure offered for two or three thousand bushels more. Corn is steady but unchanged; sales of prime Ear, on wharf, at 98c to $1. Barley is scarce, and prime Spring may be quoted at $2,25 to $2,30. Rye is still quoted at $1,80.

BUTTER—The demand is less urgent, but, as yet, prices are unchanged, ranging from 60 to 55c for prime to choice Roll.

EGGS—Under the influence of increased arrivals are dull and lower, and we quote at 20 to 22c; some dealers refuse to accept these figures, averring that they can do better by shipping.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote at 7 to 8c for Apples, and 10½ to 11½c for Peaches, as to quality.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm but unchanged; 11¾@12c for Shoulders; 13¾ to 14c for Ribbed, and 15c for Clear Sides; 17½ to 17¾c for Plain Sugar Cured Hams, and 18½c for Canvassed do. Lard, 16½c, in tierces, and 17c, in kegs and pails. Mess Pork, $25 to $25,50.

SWEET POTATOES—Prime Jersey Sweets are quoted at $8 per bbl.

ONIONS—Scarce and firm but unchanged at $4,50 per bushel. Onion Setts quoted at $6 to $6,50.

HAY—Loose Hay is scarce and firm but unchanged at $20 to $28, and in some cases, for choice Timothy, $30 is obtained.

FLOUR—There is a fair local demand, and while the market is steady, prices are unchanged; good Spring Wheat, $10,50 to $10,75; choice do, $11 to $11,25; good Winter Wheat, $11,75 to $12,25, and fancy brands, $13 to $16. Rye Flour is held firmly at the advance, $9—in store.

LARD OIL—Is still quoted at $1,10 for No. 2, and $1,35 for No. 1.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 30, 1868.

CATTLE.

With a larger number of Cattle on sale than there has been for several weeks past, and but very foreign buyers, the market was a little tame to-day, though, in reality, so far as we could see, there is no change in prices. As will be seen, prime to extra cattle sold at from 8½ to 9¼c, which is fully as high as last week; there were more good cattle on sale than there has been for several weeks past, and our butchers experienced no difficulty in making selections, though, it is true, they had to pay pretty well for the privilege. There is a continued good demand for stock cattle, and we can report sales of common to prime western stock steers at from 5½ to 6½c, and even 7c. How long the present exorbitant prices will be maintained it is difficult at this writing to conjecture; there is usually a break down in the market when grass cattle commence to come in, and we can see no reason why this spring should be an exception, unless it hinges on scarcity. We quote the following sales:

Carr & Vance sold 18 head of fair to prime Ohio steers at 8 to 8¾.

SHEEP.

There was an exceedingly light supply of Sheep on sale to-day, and the few that were here were of an inferior quality. We had no sales reported above 7¼c, and from that down to 5¼. An extra lot of fat Sheep would doubtless have brought 8 cents, or possibly 8¼c, but there were none of this kind in market.

George Garvin reports having sold 58 head, averaging 90 lbs, at an average of 6¼.

J. C. Weller sold 48 head of common to prime Lawrence county Sheep at 5¼ to 7¼.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. wholesaled a car load at the Central Yards this morning at 7,15.

Wolfe sold 14 head at 7.

HOGS.

The retail market continues dull, as butchers take hold sparingly, at present prices, 9c to 11c, gross, for fair to prime heavy averages.

Rothchilds & Byers report having retailed 40 head at 10c to 10¾c.

Emerick & Co. report having retailed 100 head at 10c to 11c.

Holmes, Lafferty & Glass wholesaled one car load of light Hogs at the Central Yards this morning at 8,40.
