OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, April 8, 1868. Gold was firmer to-day without any ma erial advance, although the outstanding short interest is very large, but, so long as t costs from 8 to I2 per cent. per annum o carry gold, speculators are not disposed o cover in the face of large payments of he treasury. For the present, there is more money to be made in stocks and bonds and speculators are more disposed to leave gold take its own course. Government bonds were scarcely as high s last night; the reaction was too sudden, though expected. The Treasury has not been buying Seven Thirties during the last few days lor reasons unexplained, tne Internal revenue receipts being very large and enable the department to dis-burse the daily receipts, but it seems somebody has an axe to grind. Stocks are firmer, with a strong tendency upward, however weak holders should be careful; the market is in a critical condition. In our city stocks a better disposition prevails, and bonds and stocks find purchasers that would not be looked at last week. Most of our banks will declare dividends in May, and on that account, are a desirable purchase

Money, though easier, is still held high, and only first-class borrowers can be ac commodated at reasonable rates. Closing quotations as received by Ph. R
