SOLDIERS' MONUMENT. Meeting of the Association-Site Selected and Design Adopted. A meeting of the Soldiers' Monument

Association was held at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday, for the purpose of selecting a site on which to erect the monument, adopt a design, and award the premiums authorized by a resolution of the Association to the artist furnishing the design adopted by them, $200, and to the one furnishing the second best design $100. At the request of Mrs. McKee, who is President of the Association, the meeting was called to order by Mr.James Park who acted as chairman. Mr. Park stated theobject of the meeting, and the first thing in order, he said, was to adopt a design for the construction of the monument.

Mrs. McKee moved that design No. 3, furnished by Mr. E. Morganoth, be adopted. Accompanying this design was a partial description and an estimate of the cost of constructing the monument. The design represents a monument seventy feet in height, surmounted by a collossal statue of height, surmounted by a conossal statue of the Goddess of Liberty, with a spiral stair case at the base, ascending to a gallery twenty-nine feet from the base. The cost as estimated by Mr. Morganroth would be $e^{2\pi}$ and \$35.000. Mr. Chislett stated that Mr. M. had informed him that the monument could be constructed after that design, out of the material proposed by the Committee, for \$26,000.

A vote was taken, but as there were but two or three persons voted, the result was unsatisfactory. A motion was then made to reconsider, which carried. street regulations Mr. Jennings moved that the voting for the adoption of a design, and also for the one which was to receive the second premium, be by ballot. Adopted. The balloting for the design to be adop ted was commenced, but before the votes, had been counted. Mr. Park stated that some of the Committee thought they een of the property holders signed the pe-tition. On motion of Mr. Cutler, it was referred o the Committee on Streets. The Gas Companies.

It was proposed in the City Councils at their late meeting to ask the Legislature to define the domain of the old and new gas light companies of this city, and within their respective domains or districts to grant to each company the exclusive right of laying pipe, &c. This, it seems to us, would by very unwise. At present no exclusive right is held by either. Why should it be granted? There is on the statute book a general law regulating gas and water compan erai law regulating gas and water compan-ies, under which any incorporated company may erect gas or water works in any local-ity within the Commonwealth, and may occupy streets and lanes for that purpose. The legislation proposed in the City Coun-cils would secure to the companies now ex-existing a mononly of privileges, and enable existing a monoply of privileges, and enable them, except as the rates may be limited Way, by law, to charge what they please for their by law, to enarge what they please for their supplies, and, if the gas or water furnished be deficient in quantity, or quality, or in regularity of supply, there would be no remedy. It is much better that the law remain as it is: whenever it should be for the interest of the people, or of private par-ties, to establish competing companies, it should be lawful to do so, and whenever any company now formed can supply any portion of the city cheaper than another, it should not be restricted in its right to lay its pipes in the same streets with the others always, of course, subject to wholeson

The Purity of the Ballot Box.

At the recent Borough election held in East Birmingham it was contended by the Democrats that the successful candidates for Council were elected through fraud, or at least that the tally lists did not correspond with the ballots cast. The election was contested and the Court appointed Messrs. August Ammon and John P. Heisel, Justices of the Peace, to act as Commis sioners to investigate the election. They, yesterday, concluded their labors and awarded a decision, which surprised the contestants, throwing out all the Democrat-ic School Directors recently declared elected. The following is the correct vote: For Council: John F. Walters, R, 467*; James Beck, R, 415*; John Foell, R, 457*; G. Fox, D, 339; H. Estep, D, 345; George Trimbor, D, 342. School Directors—C. J. Shultz, R, 457*; P. W. Reed, R, 442*; Alex. McKee, R, 410*; William Extrusc. D, 292; Saml Ham

457*; P. W. Reed, R, 442*; Alex. McKee, R, 410*; William Fortune, D, 327; Saml. Ham-ilton, D, 344; William Beck, Sr., D, 360. We congratulate our Republican friends in that Borough on their unexpected luck in obtaining the full board of School Direc-tors, and, at the same time, cannot but ad-mire the auxiety of the Democrats to secure the purity of the ballot box. It is rather grafifying to know that the mistake was all bin their own side; at this popular place of amuse

Wednesday evening about eight o'clock an old man named Wheeler, driver of an express wagon, while passing along an alley between Pein and Laberty street, a short distance above Canal, was seized by three or four men who sprang suddenly out from Spring alley, and while one held him the others robbed him of all the money he had, thirty-five dollars. They then field, as the old man had began to yell furiously. Offi-cer Bell soon came to the spot, but the scamps were out of view, and there is but little likelihood of their being appro-

Extensive Robbery.—On Wednesday night, Mr. Perkins, the General Superin-tendent of the Pittsburgh Car Works, Manchester, quit his office and left behind him his safe keys. The night watchman, Casper Horner, who was on duty, seized the opportunity to open the safe and ab-stracted therefrom the sum of six hundred dollars, with which he made his disappear-ance. There were checks calling for sever-al thousand dollars also in the safe but the thief showed good judgment in permitting them to remain there as he could not have street.
