

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Church Dedication at Youngstown. The new and beautiful church edifice which has just been completed by the United Presbyterians of Youngstown, Ohio, was formally dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, on Sabbath, the 5th inst.

Each side was taken up at the close of each service for the purpose of defraying a small debt incurred in the erection of the building. Both the members of the congregation and the citizens generally contributed liberally on the occasion, and it is expected that as much was realized as will cancel the whole.

An Amicable Arrangement. Thursday evening Fanny Showers, a young Miss between thirteen and fourteen years of age, made information before Mayor Drum charging Clement Snyder with seduction under promise of marriage.

A Reliable Insurance Company. In selecting insurance companies worthy of confidence and conducted in such a manner as to afford ample guarantee to the public that they are eminently safe and reliable, we trust our readers will not fail to award the proper attention to the Ben Franklin Insurance Company of Allegheny City.

Sudden Death—Coroner's Inquest. Mr. Launcelot Appleby, proprietor of the Cottage saloon, adjoining the Pittsburgh Theatre on Fifth street, died suddenly yesterday morning, of epileptical convulsions. He had been ill some days previous to his death.

City Mortality. Dr. A. G. Manderson, Physician of the Board of Health, reports the following interments in this city from March 22d to April 5th, 1888:

Consumption, 12; Old Age, 1; Compression of Brain, 2; Dropsy of Chest, 1; Marasmus, 4; Apoplexy, 1; Cholera, 1; Fracture of Hip, 1; Delirium Tremens, 1; Poisoning, 2; Convulsions, 1; Enteritis, 1; Burned, 1; Disease of Brain, 2; Disease of Heart, 1; Syphilis, 1; Meningitis, 1; Small Pox, 1.

Officer Barber arrested an insane man yesterday on Penn street, who, it appears, had been wandering about in the locality of St. Clair street; the greater part of the day, bare-headed, and carrying a large carpet bag filled with a quantity of cast-off clothing and other useless articles.

Found and Returned to the Owner. Officer Shaffer of the Allegheny police force, found a pocket watch, belonging to J. J. Dickson, of Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago passenger depot, Allegheny, yesterday, for which he also found an owner in a short time afterwards.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless. On motion of Geo. Shiras, Jr., W. W. Lathrop, Esq., of Luzerne county, was qualified and duly admitted to practice in this Court.

In bankruptcy branch, yesterday final discharges were granted to the following: Isaac L. Fox, of Luzerne county, and Charles A. Boucher, of Pittsburgh. Petitions for final discharge were filed by Wm. P. Graham, Owen Byrne, Wm. B. Hegarty and Wm. P. Fuller, of Pittsburgh.

District Court—Judge Hampton. In the case of August Hartje vs. D. Reinhart and J. A. Harton, reported yesterday, the jury found for the defendants.

Frederick Braun vs. Dallas G. Irish et al. This was an action to recover damages sustained by a lot of drugs stored in plaintiff's cellar, on St. Clair street. Defendants are owners of a building adjoining that formerly occupied by plaintiff.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon. In the case of Jacob and Louis Seiferth, who were indicted for committing an assault and battery upon their father, Jacob Seiferth, Jr., the jury found a verdict of not guilty, and directed the prosecutor to pay the costs.

John McClaren was indicted for nuisance, the charge being preferred by John D. Scully, President of the Monongahela Turnpike Company. It was alleged that the defendant objected to paying toll for his teams passing through the toll-gate, and that the toll keeper refused to allow him to go through.

Amusements. OPERA HOUSE.—Last evening Mrs. Bates, the most popular and pleasing actress of Mr. Canning's company, took a benefit.

FRANKLIN HALL.—The most attractive place in the city at present is Burrell's Museum, at Franklin Hall. A splendid collection of the finest works of art in connection with a countless number of natural history curiosities are comprised in the exhibition.

Assaulted an Officer. Officer Geo. V. Caden, of the Mayor's police, made information before the Mayor yesterday charging Barney McKenna with assault and battery on Officer McKenna, who was acting in a disorderly manner at a ball in Ashland Hall, on Thursday night, and when that officer attempted to arrest him, resisted and struck him with his fist.

Sheep.—William Harrison was arrested yesterday evening by officer Drexler of the Diamond market, charged with stealing a leg of mutton from his brother, John Harrison, a butcher who has a stand in the market. He was taken to the lock-up, where he remains awaiting a hearing.

The Coal Miners' Riot.—The Bill Charging Hart With the Murder of Belger, one of the Rioters, Ignored by the Grand Jury.

Thursday morning, March 31, we published an account of the coal miners' riot at O'Neill's coal works, on the Monongahela river, in which Francis Belger, one of the rioters, was shot by William Hart, night watchman at Mr. O'Neill's works. The following day we also published the testimony adduced at the coroner's inquest by doctor Lawson, in which we stated that William Hart had been arrested and held to answer the charge of murder.

Hand Sewing. It is not thought of in these progressive days; it is a toil too tedious for any person. Weed Sewing Machine is admitted by all to be the best. Therefore, if you have ever offered to the public. The number sold is still another strong evidence. One took to the river and left open through carelessness on the part of the defendant, and that the water from the sewer overflowed his cellar, and damaged his goods stored therein.

Committed for Trial.—Jane Hanlin was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Alderman Robinson, charging her with larceny. She was committed to the Allegheny City Jail, in the Fourth ward, Allegheny, and it appears she has been engaged in quarreling for some time, having committed a breach of the peace. The accused was arrested and held to bail for her appearance at Court, in default of which she will be committed to jail.

Col. J. D. Egan, the enterprising and popular news dealer and book vendor, Sixth street, near Smithfield, has recently made a large addition to his stock which he is offering at a low price. The Col. has in store a large number of rare second-hand books, to which the attention of scholars is invited. He has also a large stock of books, stationery, periodicals and magazines favor this old and popular house with a call.

Special Religious Services.—At the Academy of Music, on Saturday (Sabbath) afternoon at 3 1/2 o'clock, under the auspices of the Board of Christian Workers, a series of religious services were held. All persons are invited who are not in attendance at services elsewhere at the hour. Seats free. Ladies and gentlemen visiting our city are cordially invited to attend and take part in the exercises.

On the Force Again.—We learn that Mr. Joseph Cupples has been re-appointed on the police force by Mayor McCarty. Mr. Cupples was formerly a member of Mayor McCarty's administration, and was an efficient officer. He will certainly prove a valuable asset to the present excellent force. He will go on duty to-day.

Unintentionally did injustice to Messrs. H. McGewinn, John Jones, M. Roenke, and Jacob Kariwag, who were arrested by a fellow boarder on Hand street, an account of which was published in our issue of the 10th inst. The boarder, by order of Court, having been adjudged insane.

The most stylish jewelry establishment west of the Allegheny mountains is that of the Westman, Jeweler and Silversmith, 121 Fifth street. Their prices and fair dealing have combined to enable the firm to erect one of the grandest buildings in the city, as their patronage is very large.

Call at Reineman, Meyran & Siedle's magnificent new store, No. 42 Fifth street, and look through the splendid stock of jewelry, clocks and general jewelry just opened.

A Reply from Dr. Wolcott.

To D. C. MILLER, M. D.—Dear Sir: Your outspoken letter of the 25th, requesting an agency for removing pain from cost, for those calling at your drug store at 1325 Third avenue, by the application of Pain Pain, has been received, and the agency granted. Your place will be duly notified in my advertisement. Pain Pain has attracted attention, and is being used to a greater extent than any remedy ever offered to the public.

Explanation. Why is it that teeth have given cheaper and better at Drs. Sill & Gillespie's, 246 Penn street, than at any other place in Pittsburgh, is explained in the following manner: First: They refused to best the imposition of the Goodyear tax, which amounted to six hundred dollars per year on their establishment. All other dentists of this city have placed their necks in the Goodyear tax, and are compelled to pay this enormous tax and are equally bound to charge no less than twenty dollars, a set of forty dollars for upper and lower set, and any violation of this written compact forfeits their license and a thousand dollars.

A party of young men of Butler are about to emigrate to California to seek their fortunes. An Editor's Experience of Tooth-Drawing. Of all the ills that flesh is heir to we've always held that tooth-ache is the cursed-est. Night before last our evil star being in the ascendant, we unfortunately had a tooth-ache, and as rather much fried oysters and crackers and consequently got home late and forgot to say our prayers.
