OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, April 22, 1868. Gold opened strong at 139%, advanced uddenly to 140 at noon, and closed at 139%, with a further advancing tendency. The advance in the premium has brought out some heavy sellers, who count on a large supply of cash gold on or oven before the first of May. Exchange on Europe is last January, when quotations had advanced to about the same point; those who bought then are not over anxious to invest now, when good mortgages and other investments command a much high interest. Stocks have advanced suddenly from last Thursday's decline, and are nearly up to Thursday's decline, and are nearly up to the highest point before the panic. The New York Herald, in the interest of the bear party, together with the Assistant Treasurer's operations in gold and Seven-Thir.y notes, have had but a short sway over the money market, and the World talks as confident of a general rise in either talks as confident of a general rise in either S4,50 per bbl. tempting to speculators not to avail themselves of the present still uneasy teeling. Money is easier for all first-class borrowers; only second grade paper is taxed heavily. Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 139 %; 1881 bonds, 113; 1862 5-20s,

OFIFCE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, April 22, 1868. CRUDE-The market was again firm and a little excited to-day, and, compared vith yesterday, prices have still further advanced. We have reported: 1000 bbls for April—equivalent to spot—at 9c; 1000 for all May at 91/c; 1000 for first half of May, seller's option, at 91/c; and 5000 bbls for all the year, buyer's option, at 12c or 121/c; we could not learn which, though it is probable that the first named figure is the correct one. The advance here is owing mainly to the advance at Oil City, for up to yesterday Antwerp had undergone no quotable change, and the eastern mar-kets are more or less influenced by the adkets are more or less influenced by the advices from that place.

REFINED—There was quite an active demand for bonded oil to-day, both for present and future delivery, and, notwithstanding there were offers to buy at an advance, there were no sellers, and, as a consequence, we have no sales to record. We are cognizant of offers having been made to buy June at 27cc July at 27cc all May. are cognizant of oners naving been made to buy June at 27c; July at 27½c; all May, seller's option, at 29c, and December alone at 28½c. One thing that keeps pefiners from selling is the fact that crude more than keeps pace with the advance in refined—if the latter, advances half a cent the former is sure to be set that the polymers. the former is sure to be put that much, and, in many cases, a fraction more; so that in reality, our refiners are in no better condition for selling now than they were a week since. Nor are the crude men at fault; the great drawback is at Oil City, where oil is now, and has been all winter too much inflated for this market.
