DAYS OF REST. BY HARRIST PRESCOTE SPOYFOR Sweet Sunday, rising o'er sworth.

Have never fuled to bring site uning
Still from the tred dear stilling salms.

On the tired dear stilling salms.

A purer air bathes set the next

For life renews itself each week— Each Sunday seems to crown the year— The free earth rounds as fresh a cheek As though just made another sphere. The chadowy firm that sometimes breat! Between any thought sunday and the sphere. th her souring days, scious, in some happy sense, 1967 single that lights her ways.

-Cincinnati is said to be cutting down her shade trees. It is a comfort to know that Pittsburgh can't cut hers' down, as she has none to cut. -Robert Bonner was forty years old on fortune, the New York Ledger, to his new marble building. -An eastern editor says he does so like to kiss factory girls; and afterwards explains himself by saying that of course he meant satisfactory girls. -A yankee named Freeman is playing Schiller's plays in German and in Germany, with wonderful success, both pecuniarily and as regards fame. -The Irish Church and Mr. D'Israeli are having a hand to hand fight as to which shall be dis established. The Irish Church has the best of it decidedly. 30 at Roxbury, N. H., has 200 inhabitants, only ten of whom are Democrats, the consequence of which is there has been no death there for more than a year. -Any number of people write angrily about the degrading influence of the ballet, but they all keep on going to see it, anxious, evidently, to be degraded. -There is a gentleman in St. Louis who is known as the Hone H. T. Blow. Add nothing (0) to his name and it would appear in the directory as Blow H. O. T.

-A watch has been invented in New York which runs a year without winding, The same maker is supposed to have had a hand in the impeachment speeches.

A Japanese author has written a novel in 100 volumes. It is said to be interesting, but no one has yet been found who will undertake to translate it info English

-One million dollars were spent on ice in Chicago last year, and no wonder either for it is said to bo the hottest place in existence, with one eminent exception.

The Chaplain of the Tuilleries asks a little too much for the Pope. He, in a sermon said : "For that purpose, dear brethren.

-F. F. V., once of such aristocratic significance, is now said to mean Fast Failing Virginians, as the old blood having lost it's Ethiopian props is dying out, and its own ers are getting very seedy. -Democratic papers are beginning to hope that Senator Yates may vote for acquittal on the impeachment trial, and are 87 preparing for it by saying that he is not drunk all the time after all. -A man has discovered that if you look into the wrong end of a telescope at a mad bull, the animal will be apparently far enough off to allay your fears, whilst he is lear enough to lay you out. -A laborer in Massachuseus recently cook ether to have a stiff finger amputated. and the surgeons took off the wrong one There were two physicians, and he was not satisfied with ether, as Dr. Holmes said. -A man named Oyler, in Layfayette, Indiana, has been imitating Henry VIII to RETAIL DRY GOODS STORE the best of his ability. He has had six wives, from three of whom he has been di- OPEN. He offers an entirely vorced. He is now looking out for Mrs. Oyler VII.

-Some cheery individual has found out that the recent frosts did not kill the fruit, and did kill all the insects which are, by nature, antagonistic to heavy crops, so that we may, with some reason, look for a remarkably heavy crop this year.

-A woman in Middletown, Conn., was driven to suicide by the inhuman conduct of her husband who in a violent rage, seized her; tore her new bonnet from her head and actually threw it into the fire. It is even said the brute said he didn't care. -Wagner's star is paling, his Lohengrin can no longer please, his Tannhauser and Rienzi fall, like furious thunder, harmless now, and Ludwig will not smile on them, in the meantime all Bavaria is delighted at the fall of the unprincipled musician. -Queen Victoria, like some other people essprominently situated, likes to go to church and consequently thinks every one who does not, is a heathen or worse. This little idiosyncracy has the tendency of making the members of Court ardent church-goers. -The subject of mysterious disappearances is exciting attention from the press trembling in his boots now, as visions of a generally, and an article embodying a large number of cases in point, which have occurred during the last three centuries, has been published in Chamber's Journal and is very interesting, -A story is current to the effect that a

Congressman was fleeced of thirty-three thousand dollars at Faro in Washington last week. The Boston Post says he was a CARR, McCANDLESS & CO., Radical. That may be, but we will lay anything (but an egg) that the fleecer was an old line Locofoco. -Isaac Barton, who recently died, left $66,000 to various charitable institutions in Philadelphia, and if his property turns out to be worth more than that, he wishes all the excess to go to the Womens Medical College of Philadelphia, to which was willed $10,000 out of the $66,000.

-The joint of Gen-Grant's thumb is said to be crooked, and so, the Democratic chorus may set up another discordent howl to the enlightened voters of the Great Re-Tuesday, and on that day he moved his public, piercing the atmosphere with the penetrating shrick of hatred of a man-whose thumb is not straight. Some New York teachers have come to the conclusion that it is inexpedient to abolish flogging in schools. Many boys we are sure would vote the other way, and certainly the boys have as much or rather, far more right than the teachers to vote on the question, for they are the only ones much concerned. -A large number of New York merchants and brokers, doing business on Water, Front and Wall streets, New York, have decided to close their places of business at three o'clock on Saturday afternoons, from May first to November first. This is a good move, and could be copied with good effect in Pittsburgh.

The papers generally are getting to spell Binghamton properly, but they used to insist on spelling it with a p. This so enraged the Post Master, of that place that he wrote letters to Buffalop, and Albanyp, asking them how they liked the p. Albany and Buffalo, it is said, never thy more call the

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY. J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET, Car Heater and Moderator.

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Storca and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be aduled to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is are protection from acidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where from pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is appliphicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, facteries, asilps, steamboats, tailroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desised. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privages, either by State or county.
