

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THAT CHARMING POET, "Owen Meredith," has issued a new volume of poems, one of which ("A Great Man") is so excellent that we can not help publishing part of it, regretting that its length prohibits our giving the whole to our readers:

That man is great, and he alone, Who serves a purpose not his own, Content to know and be unknown: Whole in himself.

Strong is that man, he only strong, To whose well-ordered will belongs, For every deed and thought, All powers that, in the face of Wrong, Establish Right.

And free he is, and only he, Who from his tyrant passions free, By fortune undelayed, Hath power upon himself, to be By himself obeyed.

If such a man there be, where'er There's nothing in the sun or star, He cannot fare amiss: Great Nature hath him in her care; Her cause is his.

Who holds by everlasting law, Which neither chance nor change can sway: With whatsoever force he will, The ages agonize.

If such a man there be, where'er There's nothing in the sun or star, He doth not fare amiss: Great Nature hath him in her care; Her cause is his.

her history. Annie died in Iowa, and it is singular that she had gotten no further than that, as she had 104 years to do it in.

A sage philosopher has come to the conclusion that more men fail in this world for want of tact than for want of talent. Tact is a rare virtue, and yet we never yet saw a miserably bungler who did not pride himself on it's possession.

The rebel General Hood, who used to be known as the worsted Hood, has been married to a Miss Hennon, of New Orleans. Hood had the reputation of being the handsomest dare devil at West Point when he was there.

Blind Tom is still playing piano. His houses are not, however, as large as they used to be. If Thomas would retire from business for a few years, he would create more excitement and make more money than ever, on his return.

The St. Cloud is the name of the hotel which was the newest a week ago in New York. This appellation is intended, by the proprietor, as a delicate compliment to the Emperor of the French. Napoleon will, no doubt, be highly delighted.

The Medium Home had $300,000 given him not long ago by an ancient widow who was one of his disciples. Home has incurred her displeasure, and she now sees him in hopes of getting back her money.

That money has, however, gone to his long home. Practice scoundrel at the idea of a tie in the Senate, he says that there is no longer any tie between the Senate and honest men—that tie is broken. Considering Mr. Prentice's rather peculiar idea of honesty, we may very properly consider this as a compliment to the Senate.

The Hon. Wm. B. Reed, of Philadelphia, has presented all of the papers of his grandfather, the so-called President Reed of revolutionary notoriety, to the New York Historical Society. Mr. Reed has probably given up all idea of coming out any thing but "second best" in his controversy with Bancroft.

Horrible murders are again becoming popular. We know of none more atrocious than that recently committed at Hampton Falls, N. H., where an old man nearly eighty years of age, and his wife, were brutally murdered with an axe and robbed of nearly $1,000 by a recently discharged laborer.

The Cincinnati Commercial aspires to the position of dictator. It is trying to induce the Democratic party to nominate Chief Justice Chase for president, and it also wishes the Republican party to refuse to nominate Senator Wade as Vice President. One paper can always dictate to two parties, but the two parties rarely obey the dictation.
