GAZETTE BUILDING, NOS, 84 AND 86 FIFTH ST OFFICIAL PAPER Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Allegheny

Torms-Daily | Sent-Weekly | Single topy | 11. Me2ly | Dae year | 12. Me2ly | Single topy | 11. Me2ly | 12. Me2ly | 13. Me2ly | 13. Me2ly | 14. Me2ly |

FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1868.

WE PRINT on the inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE: Second page: Poetry, Wiscellaneous. Third Page: Kingneial Matters and Foreign Markets. Sixth page: Home Markets. Seventh page: Local News, Full Report of the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at tion of the National Convention at Chicago in putting forward for the suffrages of the pure minded representative of American statesmanship, for Vice President. Representing the hallowed and undying princiwhich has chosen them from amongst men to lead its hosts of followers on to glorious triumph, their names will be caught with patriotic zeal and enthusiasm holds their memory in an undying rememby millions of their fellow countrymen brance, to be yet satisful to the same loyalty and made the rallying cry which shall and to guard well the liberties which their sweep into the darkness of oblivion the impediments met in their way. Inspired with new courage, feeling that with GRANT and COLFAX as leaders of the people, overwhelming victory sits in waiting at the ballot box, we are prepared for the canvass, and will lend all our exertions to the advocacy of our candidates' claims and the revindication of the doctrines so faithfully represented and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

As a delegate pledged the Convention a majority of ten thousand for GRANT and COLFAX in loyal old Allegheny county, the Republicans here will see to it that his these we appeal to vote for GRANT, COLFAX er find their approbation undeserved or their words were true as prophet ever uttered. and the Union. We not only pledge our county for that majority, but will secure in Western Pennsylvania alone, enough votes to ensure the Keystone State for the ticket put forward.

ULYSSES S. GRANT

under Divine Providence, had been chiefly army, passing through every instrumental in conducting the public de- Mexican war except two, and held the rank fence against the armed treason assailing of Captain at the date of his resignation in thusiastic vote. These accept the successthe life of the Republic, and in organizing 1854. Joining his father and a brother, at ful finality of Reconstruction, recognize the the final deliverance of the nation from the Galena, Illinois, he engaged in business as deadly perils of a rebellion the most menacing, desperate and bloody which a civil rebellion in 1861. A few days after Sump reduction of taxation, contemplate financial lzed people has ever successfully withstood; ter was fired upon, he was found drilling a reforms, insist upon economy in the public than it was the wisdom in council, the tenscity of purpose, the moderation in victory, the solid proofs of an unsurpassed eminence in statesmanship, which have led a justly ingrou not being heeded, he reidered them sindupenching the latter, and of the thirtygrateful people to crown this man with an approbation only to be expressed by their few weeks service in the organization of the ing hopes.

্রতার পর্যাপ্ত বিশ্ব বিশ্ব বর্ত্তর্ভার্তি প্রশ্ববিশ্ব বিশ্ব বি

the little and og hopes.

Victor at Belmont, conqueror at Fort Victor at Helmont, conqueror at Fort it to Missouri. In August, '61, he was Donaldson, Shiloh, Vicksburg and Rich- commissioned by the President as Brigamond, his military glories culminated at Appointation in the final mastery of the mand at Cairo, of the district embracing the platform upon which Grant and Colpax Rebellion and the surrender of the stand conflux of the Ohio, Tennessee, Cumberards which had for four years floated in land and Mississippi Rivers. He lost no defiance of the Republican authority. But, time in seizing Paducah, then threatened through all the smoke of battle, and even by a rebel force, and his success confirmed regardless of his proudest triumphs in arms, the wavering loyalty of Kentucky, and the eyes of his countrymen dwelt lovingly brought it over to the Union side. He won upon the loftier traits of his personal char- his first battle at Belmont, November 7th, acter, and the modesty, the generosity, the where he was conspicuously under fire, patriotic, self-denying impulses of a true having his horse killed under him, and by and honest heart, his breadth of conception his personal bravery and military skill rein counsel, his fidelity to a settled purpose, ceived a confidence from his soldiers which his patience under temporary but most try- has clung to him since on every field. He ing vicissitudes, his faith in an ultimate suc captured Fort Donelson, February 16th, cess—a faith in God, his cause and his 1862, and on the 19th was promoted to be country, rather than in himself-and the Major General. The campaign and victoalmost inspired wisdom with which he so ries of Shiloh, (April 7th.) Port Gibson, tempered the bitterness of defeat to a fallen (May 1st,) Jackson, (May 14th,) and Vicksfoe, as to win from the soldiers of the Con. burg, (July 4th,) followed in regular ancfederacy not only their swords but their re. cession, and paralyzed the power of rebelturning loyalty to the Union—these were lion in the Southwest. the qualities which marked him for the His Chattanooga campaign of '63, his popular approbation and endeared Mm to promotion to be Lieutenant General, March confirm the struggling sentiment of South against Richmond, the firm grasp with ern loyalty, to allay the heats of still sur- which he held Laz and the main power of more conspicuously displayed the highest qualifications of true statesmanship. When the toy is sentiment of the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land, honored safety of the Republic. Not even the land of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the obligations of an impartial judgment too much of the controversy between the advice of an incompetent Cabinet, and the vent of the safety of the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the obligations of an impartial judgment too much of the controversy between the advice of an incompetent Cabinet, and the vent of the safety of the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the obligations of an impartial judgment too much of the controversy between the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said that in his judgment too much of the controversy between the mind of any Senator. In relation to Cabinet changes, he said th him as their candidate at the polls in November. His election is already a foregone; which their eyes have since sheadly kept conclusion. His civil administration will this man in view. They will now charge illustrate the same qualities which have marked his previous career. The leading wiblides, and he will inaugurate his last political principles which will control the Executive policy are plainly declared in the resolutions adopted by the Convention.

In their fidelity to the great doctrines of.
Liberty, Equality, Justice, the Rights of all Men. the Constitution and Laws as ex
The nominee for the Vice Presidency was born March 23rd, 1823, in the city of New

The might consider the same qualities which have bim with a greater power and higher responsibility. What is an acquittal simply upon high considerations of his official responsibility. What is complained of is that each and all of the six recreants of last Saturday gave the votes in the resolutions adopted by the Convention.

SCHUYLER COLPAX.

The nominee for the Vice Presidency was born March 23rd, 1823, in the city of New

Executive policy are plainly declared in
the resolutions adopted by the Convention.

The nominee for the Vice Presidency was born March 23rd, 1823, in the city of New

Schuyler Roll of the parties an acquittal simply upon high considerations of his official responsibility. What is complained of is that each and all of the six recreants of last Saturday gave the votes which have made them infamous under cir.
The nominee for the Vice Presidency was born March 23rd, 1823, in the city of New

Schuyler College.

The leading which the parties of saturday gave the votes which have a college of the committed to the control of the parties. He provided that no assurance, of any character, what re Men, the Constitution and Laws as exand a true Republican Progress, the sentiments of the National Union Republican Party have in ULTBGES S. GRANT a fitting.

ples that we invoke the cordial support of all good citizens.

We appeal to American Loyalty, not to falter in the great cause for which it offered three hundred thousand lives as a holy sarifice. We appeal to the million of citizens who,

three years since, wearers of the blue, down.

We appeal to the coldiers of the Repub. loyal and patriotic masses the names of lic who bared their breasts in battle, their ULYSSES S. GRANT, the conquering hero, hives in their hands, and all that they held for President, and SCHUYLER COLFAX, the dear on this green earth offered freely to save an imperilled Union to achieve its final rescue from the still lingeritig treason of the conspirators!

We appeal to the patriousm which ples of the great political organization through all the dark hours of Robellion, fed, clothed, and cheered the soldiers of the Republic, which mitigated the horrors of prisons, alleviated the suffering of hospitals. bore the dead warriors to honored graves, and living and dead heroes have risked all to preserve. We appeal to the friends of Public Virtue.

of Christian Morality, of Human Freedom every where in this nineteenth century of Christ, to all who love Honesty and Justice in public or private dealings, to all who hate Vice, Corruption, Venality and Falsehood, to the friends of American Industry, of Economy in Expenditure, of Equality in Taxation, to the friends of Honest and Honored Labor, to all who prefer that the Republic shall be united and prosperous rather than torn by sectional dissensions and its material interests paralyzed by the perpetuated conflict of classes and races to all

BIOGRAPHICAL

General GRANT was born on the 27th A loyal country three years since declar- academy at West Point in his eighteenth with which great principles have been ed this man deserving of its highest politi- year and graduated in 1848, standing twenty- enunciated in well-chosen and guarded lancal trust. It was not more the conspicuous first in rank in a class of thirty-nine, mem. guage will prove a very important element brilliancy of his military services which, bers. He served for eleven years in the in the canvass before us. company of volunteers, and, a few days later, led the company to the State capital. An offer of his services to the authorities at Washto Gov. YATES, of his own State, and after a boundless confidence and their unquestion. volunteer forces, accepted, command of the Twenty-first Regiment, and proceeded with dier General. In September, he took com-their love forever.

1st, '64, his subsequent direction of the In his patriotic efforts, during the critical Union armies in all quarters of the refelperiods of civil reorganization since 1865, to lion, his personal charge of the operations viving passions, to moderate the flushed the Confederacy at bay, and the final culzeal of the victors, to soothe the rankling mination of his plant in the stices of his griefs of the vanquished who, though great Lieutenants, and the fall of Rich. once rebels, were siways Americans, our mond, the surrender of Lee's army and countrymen and brothers, and are yet des the grounding of the last rebel musket all tined to uphold with loyal hands the stand- these events are too well remembered by ard of a common country—this man has yet our readers to require more than this brief mention.

The grateful acknowledgments of his

He came of an old revolutionary stock, his grand-father, General William Colfax, have ing been the commanding officer of Washington's life-guards through the war. The It is to this candidate and to these princis subject of this sketch received a common which fell like a thunderboll upon his former school education, and after three years service as a clerk in a store, removed, with his mother, to St. Joseph county, Indiana For four years longer he was again a clerk; in his eighteenth year he was appointed deputy to the county Auditor and removed to South Bend. Commencing to write for the local were gathered about the standards of the press in 1845 he became editor and propries each of them, stand convicted of the same Republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the Republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the Republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the Republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the Republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the republic to pledge their suffrages to the republic to the republic to the republic to the republic the republic to th RATIFICATION.

Republic, to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the Roman South Bend journal,

We accept and heartily endorse the acon of the National Convention at Chicago Victory until the last armed, for was hearter.

Republic, to pledge their suffrages to the tor of the Roman South Bend journal, great leader who led them from victory to which soon became prosperous under his able management. Always a Whig he became naturally a Republican. In 1851 he the first. No matter what his motives or was nominated for Congress, but was beat the political fidelity of his course, his peren by a small majority. In 1855 he was renominated on the anti-Nebraska issue and elected by two thousand majority, and assisted to procure the election of Banks to the Speakership after a memorable contest of port of the proceedings of the Conservative sixty days. His specelt on the Kan meeting held on Wednesday night, the sas question at that session was connames of Gen. T. A. Rowley, United States sidered 1 of such ability that half a Marshal of this District, and Col. J. M. million copies were circulated in the can SULLIVAN, Collector of the Twenty-third vass of that year. From that date to the District, were published by a contemporary

Republican party.

Magistrate will be assassinated to secure the So long as they continue to discharge elevation of a traitor to the Executive chair. | well and ably the duties of their respective That temptation will never make SCHUYLER positions, they will be retained in office, COLFAX its tool. His legislative experience notwithstanding their open confession and has admirably qualified him to preside over advocacy of the doctrines of Congress and the Senate, while his political friends, the the National Union Republican party. masses of his loyal countrymen, will nevconfidence betrayed in whatever station he may be called to fill.

THE PLATFORM.

mont county, Ohio. His father was of report, in the way of a synopsis, of the reso-Scotch descent and, by occupation, a dealer lutions. Much, of course, depends upon in leather. The son entered the military their careful phraseology: the precision

There are twelve resolu adopted without amendment and by an enequality of Southern citizenship, maintain a leather dealer until the outbreak of the faith with public creditors, demand an early expenditures, refer to the assassination of Lincoln and the accession of the present Executive, sustain the action of the House five Senators who justly admitted his guilt. proclaim the right of expatriation, declare the sympathy of Republicans with oppression everywhere, and gratefully acknowledge the services of the "Boys in

Blue(")
We feel justified in saying that this is a will rally every patriot around; the banners of the Union.

MINDER THE SECOND IN RALLY AROUND THE FLAG, BOYS! Hold it high up, with the same strong arms which struck the rebels down, with the same unfaltering loyalty which never. in the darkest hours, despaired of the Rebublic, with the same ringing cheers which have, more than once, sent confusion to the ranks of traitors, a thrill of joy through patriot breasts, hope and the confident assurance of victory to those who grieved over the nation's wounds leaded and a creation

Let the old flag wave, boys, free in the bure air of a regenerated land, and leading the columns of the Union as "John Brown's soul goes marching on !"

Let it float over a people whom no power of rebellion can daunt; whom the arts of of African blood, has been declared unconno treason can beguile, whom no false counsels can seduce, whom no sophistries can reconcile to an oblivion of the past, ously made in another section of the State. with its dear but sad memories of sacrifice and suffering.

Let the old flag wave, in its beauty and glory, over the compact columns of the Union's defenders prompt and faithful; in hours of danger, whether from secret conpirators or open foes A. W. A. C. Rally, boys, around the same old flag, which now heads the array for GRANT, COLFAX and the Union. Sugar ack to the dalso that he might consider the new points made by Mr. BINGHAM, and two days after delivered a manuscript speech, pains taking and long-wrought, which must have required many days in its preparation and most intimate friends. TRUMBULL assured his colleague. YATES, that he had prepared nothing at all, and rose, twenty minutes after, to reveal a most elaporately conceived treachery. Ross told everybody except the whisky ring that he should vote for four articles, and then violated his pledge. falselioods, and are the scorn of all truthful men. GRIMES, alone, was openly and frankly honorable in his opposition from sonal record has been comparatively unexceptionable through all this business.

In connection with the published represent time, he has been successfully elect- as Vice Presidents in the organization. We ed by large majorities. He was the loved feel that it is hardly necessary to say that and trusted friend of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, those gentlemen neither participated in the as he has ever enjoyed the confidence and meeting, sympathized with its object, nor admiration of the Republican party. In permitted their names to be thus used 1863 he was first chosen to the Speakership, They are both staunch Republicans, and and has since retained that position, acquir- take no stock in the so-called Conservative ing a high reputation as a prompt and shrewd party. Holding office under the Federal drman and a skillful parliamentarian. Government does not necessarily imply Since that time, as before, he has been most that they are weak in faith or that their favorably known to his countrymen, and has names can be adopted with impunity by the secured the most implicit confidence of the managers of political meetings called to give expression to sentiments antagonistic When he shall be Vice President, no Chief to their own settled views and convictions.

IT APPEARS that Senator Fowler, of Tennessee, is, like Jounson, a snob, with whom a vain desire to be recognized as worthy of association with the "aristocratic" circles of fashion and display at the of April, 1822, at Point Pleasant, Cler. At this writing we have only a very brief Capital has proven a potent seduction to his political treachery. A writer says that Chase has artfully played upon this weakness, after the following method:

"Fowler was one of those to whom he was especially attentive. Fowler, without being over-stocked, himself, with gentility, has, since his elevation to his present position, become a devoted admirer of that pertumed article. His social his great weakness, and as Chase and his ally, since the former was Secretary of the Treasury, and one of the latter marri a millionaire, have been the leaders of aristocratic society' in the Capital, Fowler was peculiarly susceptible to the influence of the apostate judge, who, on his side, discovered and made the most of this weakness, until he got Fowler, well prepared to yield to

A WASHINGTON Special mentions a rumor that "one of the Arkansas Senatora elect was in the arrangement which took Senator Ross over to the anti-linpenchers. and that he is going over to the Democracy in his politics. Prominent Republicans have faith enough in the rumor to acquiesce willingly in the determination of the Senate not to consider the Arkansas bill at the present time."

CINCINNATI has appointed a numerous and able delegation to the Manufacturer's Convention, to be held at Cleveland on the 27th. That assemblage promises to be largely attended and its proceedings will have great interest, and a potent influence upon the financial and industrial welfare of the country, were the section of the section of

A WASHINGTON dispatch to our Dem ocratic neighbor, the Pittsburgh Post, reiterates the statement that "Senator VAN WINKLE, who submitted one of the ablest arguments in favor of acquitting the President, had first prepared an argument favor ing his conviction."

THE new law of Ohio, to disfranchise all persons presenting "a visible admixture" of stitutional by Judge Granger, of Zanesville. A similar decision had been previ-

CONNECTICUT has elected ex-Governor BUCKINGHAM to the United States Senate, to succeed Dixon, in March next. He was enthusiastically supported by the Republican members with the Statistics of the control of t

Washington Topics and Gostip, Senator Henderson was examined by the Impeachment Managers on Wednesday. He said the Missouri delegation called on The PRIMARS, in Ohio, of an unobstruct point of view. He rejected this view and more conspicuously displayed, the minute part of the greatest of the control of the surface of the control of the control of the surface of the surface of the control of the surface of t ed river navigation, although unsuccessful informed them that his duties were judicial enate.

Mr. Johnson's friends are growing quite

Mr. Johnson's friends are growing quite uneasy over the report that conviction may be secured on the second article. Messra, Butler, Bingham and Stevens: all think the case is not hopeless yet, unless more Senstons provetraitors. It is currently reported that Ross and Van Winkle will yote for the second article, with a protest that they do not think that it constitutes a high crime. That is they will yote the President guilty of the charge. This Mr. Chase will rule improper of course, leaving the yote stand for conviction, thirty-five; for sequitad, sixteen—a two-thirds majority.

The Senate met yesterday morning, with a very thin stendance. The principal interest was centred in the naw "cecived from time to time from Chicago, and the dispatches received by correspondents in the reporter's gallery, were senit down so the floor and passed around among the Senators. By those who voted against impachiment, much friendly interest is manifested in the chances of various candidates who are looked upon as the strongest rivals of Wade. Several of the seven have been engaged in earnest conversation. One or two have had an interview in adjacent engaged in earnest conversation. One or two have had an interview in adjacent rooms with parties who are in attendance as witnesses before the managers. One Sen-ator shows evident symptoms of uneasiness,

METHODISM

Quadrennial Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church 1By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette. CHICAGO, May 27 .- Seventeenth Day .-

The Chair was occupied by Hishop Kings-The consideration of the report on lay delegation was made the special order for Tuesday next, Rev. Mr. Bingham, of Black River, offer Rev. Mr. Bingham, of Black River, offered a strong resolution condemnatory of the use of tobacco, and asking the General Conference to prohibit by law the admission of any candidate to the ministry who is addicted to the use of tobacco in any form, and classing it with other forms, of intemperance. It was referred to a special computate on that aphiest mittee on that subject.

Rev. W. M. Punshon, by invitation of the Conference, gave a detailed statement in regard to chapel building in England.
Rev. Gilbert Haven, of Boston, offered a resolution that in future all church papers established shall be under the control of the Trustees, and in no way connected with the book concern.

Mr. Haven also offered a resolution instructing the Committee on the Book Con cern to inquire into the practicability of establishing in the City of New York a daily religious newspaper. Both resolu-

Rev. G. D. Taylor, of Brooklyn, offered a resolution condemning the practice of placing ministers in schools as teachers, in ble of doing the work.

Rev. Dr. Wentworth, of Troy, submitted

Rev. Dr. Wentworth, of Troy, submitted a resolution adopted by his Conference, recommending that churches, whenever practicable, be furnished with libraries for the use of the pastors.

The Committee on Episcopacy reported against the election of additional Bishops at this time.

Adjourned Adjourned.

-The piano forte makers' strike ended in concession by the employes of the advance in wages demanded.

BEWARE

Of that remorseless and insidious destroyer of the CONSUMPTION

Check and conquer its advances, lest you fall the victim. When attacked with any of its preliminar symptoms, no matter how slight, be on your guard and promptly use the remedy ere too lite.

DR: SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is an old, well tried, certain and standard remedy for Congas, Golds, 'asthma, Croup, Difficulty of Presiding, Pain of. Oppression its also Chest of Presiding, Pain of. Oppression its also Chest of Lunga, and all Diseases of the Pulmonary Organe.
Its sure and certain efficacy has been 'fully vested and endorsed for many years by numbers or wellknown citizens in our midst, and their certificates are on record. Have you a cough; which has gradtally increased from a slight one to one of Dermahent standing? Losa no time, but procure a hottle.
ODE. SARGENT'S COUGH, SYRUF, which will surely relieve you of the dangerous premonuor' symptoms and effect a permanent, dure. 'Do' you' spend miserable days and long steenless nights of obsture and vain from attacks of Asthma or Difficuyou'd directaining? Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup and affectathing? Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup trompity, relieve your, and gradually age, and sleep. Appyour lungs sore and intriated, lungcathing industrial and should be prompity removed.
Dr. SARBENT has and should be prompity removed.
Syrup is pleakant and agreeable to tack; while powgradual remover.

Syrup is pleakant and agreeable to tack; while powgradual remover.

STREET STREET BRIGHTEN 'AS' THEY

"BLESSINGS BRIGHTEN AS THEY

Home, friends and all the enjoyments of life seem infinitely more dear to the sufferer from nervous doubility when the probability is that, ere long, he must leave them forever. When the health has become impaired, and the atrength is failing, then life looks more alluting. Stimulants are the only means of restoration in cases of nervous debility. The great difficulty has been to provide a stimulant possessing not only medical merit, but one affording bermanent relief. If HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BUTTERS is recorded to in such cases, its beneficial effects will soon become apparent in the buryancy of apirits and soon become apparent in the buryancy of apirits and cone wed strength of the litherto dejected patient. Experience has proved this preparent of the stomach and liver. Persons advanced and liver. Persons advanced in life, and freeling the famil of times weighing acavity upon them, with all its attendant life, heavily upon them, with all its attendant life, heavily upon them, with all its attendant life in the less of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH HITTERS—in ellistic that will instill new life into their remais restore, in a measure, the article should not have a more youthful agust build in their remaining yours. Those who are in the least affirmed, with hyspoptal Agust, Languor, Manuelle of the invalidation and dangerous disease, arising from a disordered system. Should not heating the action and of the stomach of the invaluable fonter that are consumed, and which is steadily increasing, year by year, is anticient in itself to dissern the steptical. Home, friends and all the enjoyments of life seer

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

Llost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deal. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisament, to make application to Dr. Karben, 186 Penn street Pitts burgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit. I have been nader Dr. Reyer's treatment dow for nearly two mobiles, and am entirely replaced to my hearing so that Telescher and the property of the sound of the sound —A Port au Prince letter says: A pillage of the town took place on the night of May 5th, in which Mr. J. B. Hepburn, a native of Virginia, was shot and severely wounded, in his own store. The house of Mrs. Hamilton, an American lady, was riddled with balls, although the American flag was raised over the door.

The first load of Irish emigrants has

NOTICES 'To Let," For Sale," Lost," "Wante," "Found," "Boarding," &c., not ex-ceeding FOUR LIBES each will be inserted in these columns once for THESTY-FIVE CENTS; each

WANTED-SITUATIONS WANTED SITUATION A Rev. VV hard 14 years, the speaks English and Sernan Juently, wishes a situation. Not particular to employment or wages. Address to UIS GA.

WANTED Situation as Sales

WANTED Situation as Book-REEPER by a man of twenty jears' expe-tionce. Address BOOK-KEEPER, GAZEATE OF-TICE. WANTED---HELP. WANTED CLERK.-A Clerk in

WANTED COOPER TO WORK

WANTED - SERVANTS - Male and Female, for all kinds of work. Inquire it INTELLIGENCE OFFICE. No. 3 St. Clair St. WANTED GIRL A good Girl, for general housework. Apply at No. 193

WANTED BOARDERS WANTED BOARDERS. Gen-Doard and lodging at No. 25 FERBY 87. WANTED BOARDERS. Good VV board, fine front rooms, with gas, can be secured at $5.00 per week. Day boarding, $3.50 For single gentleman. At 46 LIBERTY STREET WANTED BOARDERS. A few respectable young men can be accommuted with boarding on very reasonable terms, at 0. 183 ROBINSON STREET, Allegheny City.

WANTED-AGENTS. ATANTED -- AGENTS. -- GRANT:

WANTED AGENTS Male and PEMALE to carries for the PITTS BURGH QUAHTERITY MAGES for the PITTS DY'S great work on the LIFE OF CHRIST. Send.
for Circulars. WM. U. DWYERL& CO., No. 59FOURTH Street:

BOUTH STREET. WANTED AGENTS -- To travel through Onio, Michigan, West Virginia, and Western Pennsylvania, for the sale of SOLAR LIGHT, a regularly inspected article, and cannot be exploded. A liberal commission will be used. Ill sell any of the above States or parts there and furnish the Light at cost. For particular call on us or send for circular. DAVIS BROS. CO., Office No. 8, Cleveland Ins. Buildings, leveland, O.

WANTED---HOUSE.

WANTED TO RENT-A small VV HOUSE, on line of Fort Wayne road. Address, stating rent. No. 23 NIXON STREET, Allegheny City.

WANTS.

WANTED TO EXCHANGE, several hundred acres good Iowa land, for city roperty. Address F, GAZETTE OFFICE. WANTED PARTNER Either visilent or active, to purchase one-fourth interest in a BAW Milli, now doing a good business, situate 50 miles from the city, on a railroad. 600 acres of valuable sinter: The mill is well built, machinery all complete. This is an excellent opportunity for any one desirous or engaging in a profitable business. For particulars apply to 8 UITHBERT & BONS, Real Estate Agents, No. 88 Emithfield street:

ANTERNATION THE DRIVATE OF THE ANTERNATION OF THE A

WANTED MONEY. $500 or $1,000 is wanted on first class mortgage on city property. Address E. This oppice. ton stady band rost in won ?

OST-POCKET-BOOK-On OST PURSE Tuesday morning, on Robbson street, between Colfg and rederal, or on Federal, between Robinson and the factor of the first person of the factor of the first person of the fill be liberally rewarded by leaving it at A. SLENK'S Grocery Store, comer Hobinson and Calg streets, or at THIS OF FICE FOR RENT TO LET HOUSE. A two-story FRAME HOUSE, of five rooms, on the corner of locust and Mulberry Streets, Sewickley. The house and premise, have been newly fitted up. Also, a large and excellent garden. Possession given at any time. Inquire of W. M. LAHRD. Broad street. Sewickley. TO LET THE STORE ROOM A No. 160 (hio avenue, with dwelling above of 5 rooms, with water, gas and bath. Biore room fitted up in the best manner, with plated glass show windows and iron front. Inquire at once of FRAZIRE BROS., Ohio avenue and Sedgwick street, Aleganery.

TO LET-RESIDENCE. Penn A Street Residence near Christ Methodist (Church, with the exception of two back rooms, to proceed for official, Address LOCK BOX 389,) TO LET-HOUSE, That desirable Dwelling House, No. 71 Liberty street, containing ten rooms, kitchen and wash-house Enquire of JAS. J. GRAY, No. 25 Sixth street. TO LET-ROOM.—A handsomely furnished FRONT ROOM, sultable for gen-tlemen. Enquire at No. 31 HAND STREET. TO LET Third Story Front TO LET-HOOM One From Ply at No. 33 HAND STREET. TO LET -- ROOMS .-- The Fourth

TO LET-HOUSE, -- A new Hou TO LET-ROOMS. Two Lar

FOR SALE POR SALE GROUND A DERV tiful lot of ground, having a front of #5 feet running back 12 y feet, situated on the finest bire in Pittaburgh for private realences. It is a corn lot, having a 50 feet tirret on front and side. We have a sold at a barying to him one wighing to build it., For particulars address T. H. 2018 OFFICE.