

CITY AND SUBURBAN

General Synod of the Reformed Presby- terian Church.

FOURTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Synod met at half-past nine o'clock, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator, Mr. W. A. G. Wylie.

On Friday afternoon the Moderator presented to the Synod a report from the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

It was objected that the minutes attached were not all read. The Clerk stated that the names had not been called for, or they would have been read.

Dr. Wylie stated there was no evidence that the persons were members of the First Church, Philadelphia.

The minutes, after a few verbal amendments, were approved.

The motion to receive the papers, read yesterday, for consideration was renewed. On this motion there was an extensive discussion.

Dr. Wylie thought the report contained many unjust statements, and therefore it was a question whether they should be received.

Rev. A. G. Wylie was of the opinion that the Commissioners should be heard, in order that the Synod might learn how they came by the papers.

Rev. Michael Harshaw said this Synod possesses original as well as appellate jurisdiction, and therefore, any person may come before it.

Dr. McLeod moved the previous question, which was ordered by the Synod. The motion to receive the papers for consideration was adopted.

The documents were then referred to the Committee on Discipline, with power to call for persons and papers.

Dr. McAuley moved that certified copies of the papers be furnished to the Philadelphia Reformed Presbytery.

Dr. McLeod was opposed to the resolution. The papers were voluminous, and the request was unreasonable.

Dr. Wylie was of the opinion that the papers should be given to the Philadelphia Reformed Presbytery, except such as might be acted upon.

Rev. Mr. Harshaw thought that those making the demand should pay the expense of transcribing.

The motion was modified to read as follows: Resolved, That the Moderator of the Philadelphia Reformed Presbytery be allowed to take copies of the papers presented to the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, to be certified by the Stated Clerk during the sessions of Synod.

Proceeded to the devotional exercises. Rev. A. G. Wylie in the Chair. The following gentlemen took part in the devotional exercises: Rev. A. G. Wylie, Rev. J. F. Morton and Rev. Nevill Woodside.

Dr. Wylie gave notice that he would preach in his own name, and all who might join with him, against the reception of the papers from the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

The credentials of the Rev. Wilson Pharo, as delegate to the Synod from the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, were read and he was invited to take the oath of office.

On motion it was resolved that Mr. Pharo be heard on Monday afternoon. The memorial from the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, on the subject of the papers, was read.

Mr. John Scott was appointed to receive money for the Foreign Missions during the sessions of Synod.

Dr. Douglas gave notice that the Committee on Discipline would meet in his study Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, and also at seven o'clock, and on the evening of the 27th.

Row on Saw Mill Run

Yesterday morning a row took place on the Saw Mill Run road, a short distance from Temperanceville, among the coal miners of that region.

It was reported that the miners attached were not all read. The Clerk stated that the names had not been called for, or they would have been read.

Dr. Wylie stated there was no evidence that the persons were members of the First Church, Philadelphia.

The minutes, after a few verbal amendments, were approved.

A Pleasant Occasion

On Saturday evening a very pleasant reunion of the employees of the Allegheny Valley Railroad took place at the Keystone Hotel, on Liberty street.

The occasion was the purpose of presenting to Mr. W. A. Lee, the late General Freight Agent of the road, a handsome gold watch and a pair of cuff-links.

The watch was purchased at the establishment of Reimann, Meyran & Siedle, and valued at $350. On the inside of the case the following inscription was engraved: "Presented to W. A. Lee by the employees of the Allegheny Valley Railroad as a token of regard, May 23, 1888."

The presentation was made by Mr. T. J. Kelly, a very handsome man. He spoke of the high regard and love which all of the old employees felt towards the recipient.

Mr. Lee responded briefly, but to the great satisfaction of the employees. He said that he had never been so honored, and that he would always remember the occasion.

The occasion was a very pleasant one, and was attended by a large number of the employees of the road. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner.

The employees of the road were very much pleased with the gift, and the occasion was a very pleasant one. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner.
