FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 25, 1868.

Gold was very firm to-day, with an upward tendency. The continued heavy shipments are draining the country of specie, and in the absence of any commercial bills in the market, shipments of specie have to be made to cover drafts. The high quotations of bonds here will no longer permit to ship to Europe with any profit. However, should the premium on gold go above 140, a large amount of gold would come into market heretofore hoarded. Imports of dry goods have been heavy recently, and payments have to be made for them before our harvest is ready for export; this, together with the general stagnation of business, will keep people watching closely anything that may tend to advance gold.

Government bonds advanced again ¼ per cent. to-day for all old issues, and 1867's were even ½ per cent. above Saturday's quotations. The investment demand for bonds has entirely ceased, and more offers to sell are made by parties who wish to realize or expect to buy cheaper at a future day. The demand runs chiefly for 1865 and 1867 bonds, being used for conversion of Seven Thirties, otherwise no inquiry is made from purchasers. High as the premium may be for bonds, the ease of the money market may carry them up higher, since money is seeking investment on call at 3 per cent. per annum.

Stocks are higher, and a general improvement of the entire stock list has taken place. Fort Wayne, Cleveland, North Western, Rock Island, New York Central and Erie are up about ½ to ¾ per cent. Express stocks are weak and lower. The excessive stealings have deprived most of these companies of their surplus and earnings, and although stocks are low now, people are afraid to risk much; the stock being generally held by cliques of railroad managers.

In local stocks some little inquiry was made for Columbia and Triumph oil and some Valley bonds, but quotations given cannot be relied upon.

Money is very scarce at from 8 to 10 per cent.; 12 per cent. is the ruling rate for any outside paper not strictly bankable. Business seems to improve a little.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140; 1881 bonds, 115¼; 1862 5-20s, 110½; 1864 do, 108¾; 1865 do, 108¾; Consols, 110¾; 10-40s, 105¾; 7-30s, 108¾.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 25, 1868.

CRUDE—The crude market was devoid of life or animation, the sales all told only reaching 140 bbls, which, comparatively speaking, amounts to nothing. It is true, the arrivals are light and the offerings are limited, but the excitement which prevailed last week has subsided pretty well, and there seems to be no disposition manifested to do anything on the part of either buyer or seller. We continue to quote spot oil at 10¼c offered, and 11c asked, with sales of two lots of 70 bbls each at 10¼c, bbls returned. An Oil City telegram quotes at $3,65 to $3,70 on creek, and $3,90 to $4 at that point.

REFINED—There was but a single operation in bonded oil to-day, at least, there was but one reported, 500 bbls each month, running from July to October at 31c. Spot oil, as well as the first half of June, may be quoted at 28¼ to 29c, while all July, buyer's option, and the last half of June, same option, may be quoted at 30c. The market was exceedingly quiet to-day, and operators, generally, reported it very dull.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

W. McCutch'n. 355 | Fisher & Bro.....3506

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Pittsburgh Cattle Market.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 25, 1868.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle was unusually large this week, reaching in the aggregate over six hundred head, but with a good demand, several car loads having been sold to go East. The market was rather unsettled and prices were very well sustained. As we stated in our last report, these yards want from 700 to 800 head of cattle per week, and to-day we have every reason to believe one thousand head could have been disposed of. There was a large number of stock buyers in attendance, many of whom did not get a single bullock, owing to the fact that there were but very few stock cattle in market; it is probable that farmers and stock growers alone would take from one hundred and fifty to two hundred head per week. As we stated last week we now reiterate, and advise all who have stock which they contemplate selling to bring it forward and sell, too, as soon as possible, as there are plenty of buyers now and the markets all over the country have ruled in favor of sellers for several months. How long this will continue is difficult to determine, though the general impression is that there will be a marked decline within the next sixty days. Prime fat cattle sold to-day at from 9 to 9½c, and medium at 8c to 8½c. Stock cattle may be quoted at 5½ to 6½c. Fresh cows sold at from $50 to $80 per head. We are quoted the following sales:

Quick wholesaled 18 head of good Iowa steers to McAllister at 8½.

R. O. Campbell wholesaled 18 head of fairish Ohio cattle to Reeder at 8¼.

N. Carr retailed 18 head Chicago cattle for Dolan & Co. at 8 to 8¾.

Hously & Wernz retailed one car load of Ohio cattle, but we did not get prices.

L. Rothchilds sold 5 head of extra Chicago steers to F. Beilsteine at 9¾; and 17 head at 8 to 8¾.

Kraus & Haas, 50 head Chicago steers at 8¾ to 9¾.

L. Keefer, 18 head Chicago steers at 7½ to 9¼.

Hedges & Taylor, 54 head Chicago steers at 8½ to 9¼.

Dolan & Co., 18 head Chicago steers at 8 to 9.

McAllister & Co., 23 head Iowa steers at 8¾ to 9½.

Hartman & Shamberg, 32 head Chicago steers at 8,40 to 9,25.

M. Verner, 24 head Chicago steers at 8,40 to 9,60.

Myers & Needy, 75 head Chicago steers at 8¾ to 9½.

Greenwald & Kahn, 70 head Chicago steers at 8½ to 9½.

Hazlewood & Blackstock, 18 head Chicago steers at 8¼ to 9¼; 32 head of prime Cherokee, Texas cattle, unsold when we left the yards; held at 8½.

Marks & Traurman 76 head Chicago steers at 8¼ to 9¾.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. 54 head Chicago steers at 7¾ to 9¼; 16 head left over.

Shanamental & Flinner sold one pair of very fine Butler county steers, the two weighing 3,440 pounds, to Fred. Beilsteine at 11.

John McAllister bought 7 head bulls from Marks & Traurman for W. Hines at 7.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was a very fair supply of Sheep to-day, but they were mostly of an inferior quality, and, as a consequence, while prime fat Sheep sold readily at full prices, common and inferior were very dull, and, if anything, lower than last week. Lambs were in good supply, but there seemed to be a demand fully equal to it, and prices were pretty well maintained, ranging from $2 to $3,50 and $4 per head. It seems evident that butchers are buying more Sheep and less Cattle, from which it is fair to infer that people are buying more mutton and less beef. We are quoted the following sales:

Rynn & Co. sold 25 head of extra Sheep, averaging 110 lbs, at 8; 20 head at 7½, and 18 at 7.

Shanamental & Flinner sold 40 head Butler county Lambs and Sheep at $3,50 per head for the former, and $6 for the latter.

Adam Eckert reports 74 head Penna. Sheep at 4 to 6¼.

Aull & Myers had 104 head on sale, but when we left the yards they were nearly all unsold.

J. Walter sold 22 head at $3 to $4 for Sheep, and $2 to $3 for Lambs.

Garwin & Co. had 115 head; sold Sheep at from $2,50 to $5 per head, and Lambs at $2 to $3,50.

Beeler reports 59 head Butler county Lambs at $2 to $3,50 per head.

Martin Humes reports 80 head Sheep and Lambs, at an average of $3,50 per head for Sheep, and $2 to $3 for Lambs.

Stakely & Bro. sold 41 head good wooled Sheep at 6½c per lb.

McMillan & Kerr report 104 head Washington county Sheep at 4½ to 6¾.

Emerick & Co. report 98 head Penna Sheep at 5 to 6½.

HOGS.

The demand for this class of stock continues light, being restricted entirely to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade; there was but a single wholesale operation reported, Wernz & Hously sold 1 car load to Rotchilds & Byers at 9¾ or 9¼, we cannot say which. In a retail way quotations may be fairly given at 9 to 11, as to quality and condition.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 25, 1868.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle was unusually large this week, reaching in the aggregate over six hundred head, but with a good demand, several car loads having been sold to go East, the markets were rather unsettled and prices were very well sustained. As we stated in our last report, these yards want from 700 to 800 head of cattle per week, and to-day we have every reason to believe one thousand head could have been disposed of. There was a large number of stock buyers in attendance, many of whom did not get a single bullock, owing to the fact that there were but very few stock cattle in market; it is probable that farmers and stock growers alone would take from one hundred and fifty to two hundred head per week. As we stated last week we now reiterate, and advise all who have stock which they contemplate selling to bring it forward and sell, too, as soon as possible, as there are plenty of buyers now and the markets all over the country have ruled in favor of sellers for several months. How long this will continue is difficult to determine, though the general impression is that there will be a marked decline within the next sixty days. Prime fat cattle sold to-day at from 9 to 9½c, and medium at 8c to 8½c. Stock cattle may be quoted at 5½ to 6½c. Fresh cows sold at from $50 to $80 per head. We are quoted the following sales:

Quick wholesaled 18 head of good Iowa steers to McAllister at 8½.

R. O. Campbell wholesaled 18 head of fairish Ohio cattle to Reeder at 8¼.

N. Carr retailed 18 head Chicago cattle for Dolan & Co. at 8 to 8¾.

Hously & Wernz retailed one car load of Ohio cattle, but we did not get prices.

L. Rothchilds sold 5 head of extra Chicago steers to F. Beilsteine at 9¾; and 17 head at 8 to 8¾.

Kraus & Haas, 50 head Chicago steers at 8¾ to 9¾.

L. Keefer, 18 head Chicago steers at 7½ to 9¼.

Hedges & Taylor, 54 head Chicago steers at 8½ to 9¼.

Dolan & Co., 18 head Chicago steers at 8 to 9.

McAllister & Co., 23 head Iowa steers at 8¾ to 9½.

Hartman & Shamberg, 32 head Chicago steers at 8,40 to 9,25.

M. Verner, 24 head Chicago steers at 8,40 to 9,60.

Greenwald & Kahn, 70 head Chicago steers at 8½ to 9½.

Hazlewood & Blackstock, 18 head Chicago steers at 8¼ to 9¼; 32 head of prime Cherokee, Texas cattle, unsold when we left the yards; held at 8½.

Marks & Traurman 76 head Chicago steers at 8¼ to 9¾.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. 54 head Chicago steers at 7¾ to 9¼; 16 head left over.

Shanamental & Flinner sold one pair of very fine Butler county steers, the two weighing 3,440 pounds, to Fred. Beilsteine at 11.

John McAllister bought 7 head bulls from Marks & Traurman for W. Hines at 7.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was a very fair supply of Sheep to-day, but they were mostly of an inferior quality, and, as a consequence, while prime fat Sheep sold readily at full prices, common and inferior were very dull, and, if anything, lower than last week. Lambs were in good supply, but there seemed to be a demand fully equal to it, and prices were pretty well maintained, ranging from $2 to $3,50 and $4 per head. It seems evident that butchers are buying more Sheep and less Cattle, from which it is fair to infer that people are buying more mutton and less beef. We are quoted the following sales:
