CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Primary Meeting To-Day—Ever Cor-

The hours for voting in the boroughs and cities are from 8 o'clock to 7 o'clock

1. M. & 4 P.M. & 5 P.M., before printing. This is unfortunately discovered in time, so that we invite to this correction every day.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 to 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Fifth street, near door No. 2, Garrison.

Frank McElroy—A

Frank McElroy dealer in brooms on Third street was victimized yesterday to the amount of six hundred dollars. It appears that he was slightly under the influence of liquor, and falling in with a party of three men, was taken into the house of John Mader, on Third street. He had been there but short time when he enquired for liquor, and there being none in the house, he requested some money for it.

He had with him two bills a $50 and a $100.

He gave the $100 to As Garrison, one of the persons, who came in with him to get changed and buy the liquor. Garrison took the bill and got it changed and alleges that he returned the change to McElroy, who from his own statement of the affair, was so sure that he didn't know what he got the change for. The liquor was procured and after drinking it Mader was seen for more. At this point of the affair, Mc-Elroy must have become insensibly drunk, as he does not remember anything further and still has all gone. He made the matter known at the Mayor's office, and Garrison was arrested, and the officers were in search of Mader and the other man. Garrison was very anxious to find the man, and in the afternoon of the 18th he had the police called to the house of Decatur street, First ward, to Hazel street, Lower Washington street, Lawrenceville, Upper Washington street, to Willow street, &c. &c.

The Mystery Solved.

McElroy—My attention has just been called to the following article which appeared in last Saturday's Gazette:

"Who can explain it? While workmen were engaged in digging an excavation for a subsidialy the surface of Broad and Washington streets, a cut-stone foundation of fine workmanship was struck which puzzled the oldest native to perplex for.

This was sixty feet from the surface, the hill which stood there having been graded away. We incline to the belief that the foundation was laid in filling a ravine which must have existed there many years ago." Yesterday I visited the spot indicated, and found the excavation as described, and the foundation is a fine example of a natural division of the rock, known to Geologists as "the split structure." These peculiar fractures are of much interest to scientific men, and have been studied by geologists upon their bearings upon the geological history of the country. In this particular case, the cracks are in a bed of limestone, ten inches thick, which rests upon and is supported by a perfectly dry deposit of sand and gravel. The small quantity of oil in the receiving house of course ignited and was consumed, but there being but a few barrels of oil in that receptacle, it did not burn long. It was communicated to the wooden containing tank, through which the oil was conveyed from the stills to the receiving house, took fire and was considerably burned. The loss by the fire amounted to between two and three hundred dollars only.

The Athletic Base Ball Club.

The Athletic Base Ball Club of Philadelphia will play here in this city Saturday on their Western tour, and will play their first series of games in Union Park with the Olympic and Allegheny Clubs on Monday and Tuesday, June 1st and 2d. The Olympic will play with them Monday and Tuesday, and with the rest of the Western Club will take place Tuesday at that hour.

The Allegheny was one of the best clubs in the State at the close of last season, and is said to be in full form again this year in the "field," as well as the "bat" this season. Scale have been arranged for the accommodation of ladies who desire to witness the game. The game will doubtless be one of unusual interest, as the club has a fine record, and will play with the best of the Eastern clubs.

Alleged Larceny.

F. D. Tinkle, a stranger in the city, made information before Alderman M'Master yesterday, charging Stephen Carey with larceny. Mr. Tinkle is traveling and yesterday arrived in the city and stopped at the Hotel House, where Carey is porter. He gave his baggage to the assumed to carry to his room and some time afterwards on opening his valise discovered that his revolver, value $100, had been taken. He also alleged that he had taken the light out of the window next to Carey's room. His intention was evidently to enter the office and abstract whatever of value they might find.

The General Synod.

We learn that Mr. Elmer Blane, a member of the General Synod, who resides at the corner of Fifth and Wood streets.

The front will have a front of about 80 feet on each of said streets. The work will be done by a firm now known as the firm will be to commence the first of next week.

Historical Photograph.

We desire that the historical photograph, by G. Gutekunst, Esq., Arch street, Philadelphia, of the National Union Convention held in this city in November last, be exhibited in the Union church in this city.

There the General Synod is now holding its session.

Legal Blanks and legal paper of every description will be supplied at the office of G. Gutekunst, Esq., Arch street, Philadelphia, at a reasonable price.

Presbyterian generally, who have been a constant attendant will find them in full supply.

A Portable Chapel.

The Young Men's Christian Association have purchased a new commodious hall capable of accommodating about five hundred people, and they design holding religious services in the same room, moving it about from place to place as circumstances may require.

It is intended that these services will be held in the evenings.

Those desirous of attending these services, need only go to the Young Men's Christian Association on the corner of Broad and Market streets.
