

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED DAILY, BY PENNIMAN, REED & CO., Proprietors. OFFICE: GAZETTE BUILDING, NOS. 84 AND 86 FIFTH ST.

FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1868. THE WEEKLY GAZETTE, issued on Wednesdays and Saturdays, is the best and cheapest family newspaper in Pennsylvania.

WE PRINT on the inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE: Second page: Poetry, Table Talk, Brief News Items, Third page: Cattle Market, New York Produce Market, Financial Affairs in New York, River News, Imports, Sixth page: Finance and Trade, Home Markets, Markets by Telegraph.

THE ARKANSAS BILL has gone to a Conference Committee, whose report may be deferred for a day or two. There is little doubt, however, of an early agreement of both Houses.

THE nominations made by the recent Union Republican Conventions give very general satisfaction throughout the country, and we can now safely rely on giving the full majority pledged by a delegate at Chicago.

THE Senate, after a very brief session yesterday, adjourned as a mark of respect to the memory of ex-President BUCHANAN, whose funeral ceremonies were in progress at Lancaster.

THE rebel Democracy at Washington, believing that they had elected their candidate for Mayor, were very noisy and demonstrative in their rejoicings. The next evening, however, when it was discovered that Bowen, who was discovered to be really chosen, gave him a serenade in turn.

THE Presidential campaign may now be regarded as open, and the Republican candidate at once set himself about to do whatever good he can in the cause. We know of no better way to make votes than by educating the people up to the proper standard, so that they may know how to discriminate at the ballot-box in favor of the party having the greatest interest in the welfare of the country, and holding principles not at variance with the fullest idea of a Republican form of Government.

THE Pittsburgh Post volunteers its counsel to Republicans who were unsuccessful candidates before the recent Conventions. Our neighbor need not concern itself anxiously in that respect. Its counsels will have no weight with honorable men who value more highly the obligations which they assumed, in deferring their aspirations to the regular and authoritative arbitrament of the Republican tribunal.

THE MOORHEAD TARIFF BILL. The House very wisely declines, at this late period of the session, to engage in the consideration of the new tariff bill, which was reported a day or two since.

NO HURRY ABOUT IT. Congress will find the rest of the session fully occupied in the re-adjustment of the internal taxes, in re-organizing the civil service, for which the admirable bill proposed by Mr. JACKSON points to a practical and comprehensive plan.

THE new Constitution of Florida contains a provision requiring educational qualifications in all persons voting for the first time in 1868. The time seems unnecessarily distant, but this is a step in the right direction.

NEW YORK is to be lively next month. The National Democratic Convention will bring thither not only the usual mob of outside managers, but also a special and distinguished delegation will be made from Cincinnati.
