

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED DAILY, BY FENNIMAN, REED & CO., PROPRIETORS. OFFICE: GAZETTE BUILDING, NOS. 84 AND 86 FIFTH ST.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1868

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE, issued on Wednesdays and Saturdays, is the best and cheapest family newspaper in Pennsylvania.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE, Second page: Poetry, Epigrams, Clippings. Third page: Markets at Home and Abroad, Financial Matters in New York, Imports, River News, Log-book from the Mountains.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 140. The Union Pacific Railway track is laid for 845 miles west of Omaha.

The re-election of Senator SPRAGUE, for another term of six years by the Rhode Island Legislature on Tuesday, was preceded by the most satisfactory assurances from his friends, that he would earnestly support GRANT and COLFAX against all competitors.

When the Democratic Convention on Wednesday gave Mr. PENDLETON the cold shoulder and surrendered themselves to the bondholders, it was very unkind toward the Pittsburgh Post, which has been contending for Young Greenbacks for months past.

The failure of the bond-holding clique, who manipulated the Democratic County Convention, to come out squarely for their favorite, Mr. CHASE, and his doctrine of Equal Suffrage, has probably clapped the final extinguisher upon the political aspirations of the Chief Justice.

The naughty bondholders' combination with the Johnson wing of the party, in the Democratic Convention of this county, on Wednesday, succeeded in "laying out" the Pendletons as cold as a wedge.

The Philadelphia Press refers in terms of decided commendation to the present Representative from this district, and to the gallant soldier who will succeed him.

The telegraph informs us of the cold-blooded assassination of Prince MICHAEL, of Servia. Servia is one of the Danubian principalities tributary to Turkey, bounded on the North by the Austrian Military Frontier.

Mr. CHASE is a nephew—not a brother—of the late LEWIS CASE.

THE PROSPECTS OF JUDGE CHASE, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination are seriously impaired by the meeting which purported to be held in his interest at Philadelphia, on Wednesday evening.

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION. Nomination of Mr. Chase for President. The Intrigue that led to this Premature Exposure and Present Condition.

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION will assemble in this city a month hence. It will meet here because Mr. Belmont and other leading members of the party, who are deeply interested in government securities, were resolved, if possible, to prevent it from formally espousing Republicanism in any shape whatever.

FOR SOME MONTHS past these Democratic leaders have been in negotiation with Mr. Chase and his coteries, with a view to bringing him out as the Democratic nominee for the Presidency.

THE RETIREMENT OF COMMISSIONER ROLLINS, from the Internal Revenue service, will fix upon the President still more clearly the responsibility, for the retention in the service, of the notoriously corrupt men to whom, in debate the other day, a Representative referred as follows:

Demographic count. This unanimity furnishes a reasonable basis for hope that the electoral vote of the State will be cast for Grant and Colfax.

TRADE IS DULL. The merchants complain of light sales and large stocks to be carried over, still the feeling generally prevails that the worst has been endured, and that a revival of activity will soon be experienced.

ALL ACCOUNTS from Europe concur in representing that the crops there are uniformly favorable, so that there will be little or no demand for bread-stuffs to be exported thither.

IT IS SAID, therefore, to conclude that the crops about to be harvested in the United States will be abundant; that previous to now in comparison to what they have been for some years past; that much less money will be required to move and market the crops than was required last year, thus tending to create an easy state of monetary affairs, and affording an excellent solution of the question of wages in many departments of manufacturing and mechanical industry.

THE UNION REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS of Philadelphia, which met on Wednesday, were characterized by strict harmony and good feeling, with the single exception of that of the District Attorney Convention.

AT THE ANNUAL STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING of the Erie Railroad, held in Cleveland, yesterday, the old board of directors was re-elected, with the exception of J. H. etc.; his discoveries of the "Magnetization of Light, and the Illumination of the Lines of Magnetic Force," "Magneto-Electricity," "Diamagnetism," are familiar to scientific scholars, and indeed, he is quite well known by the better informed of the masses.
