

Pittsburgh Gazette

VOLUME LXXXIII.

PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1883.

NUMBER 152.

FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

President's Veto of the Omnibus Bill—The Bill Reconsidered and Again Passed by Both Houses—The Legislative Appropriation and Tax Bills Further Considered.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1883. SENATE. The Senate met at two o'clock. After some unimportant business Mr. THAYER offered a resolution directing the Secretary of War to inform the Senate what amount of Government supplies belong to the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments was lost on the Missouri River, below Omaha, in transit, by sinking or other injury during 1882, '83 and '84. Adopted.

Mr. EDMUNDS called up the bill providing for the removal of certain cases from the State Courts to the United States Courts. The question was on a substitute by the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. DAVIS asked the bill to be laid over until the Senators examine it. Mr. EDMUNDS explained that it simply adds United States officers or Marshals to remove cases in which they are sued from State to United States Courts.

On motion of Mr. MOORE of Maine, the bill was laid aside, and the order of the day, the legislative appropriation bill, taken up. The question was on an amendment offered by Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finance, appropriating $150,000 for temporary relief of the Treasury Department, and providing the Secretary of the Treasury may classify them.

Further debate on the point ensued, during which the President's veto message was received from the House, and the omnibus bill passed over it by a vote of thirty-five to twenty.

Mr. DAVIS having first delivered an eulogium on the President, ranking him as one of the noblest characters of the age. On the consideration of the legislative appropriation was resumed, and the amendment adopted—yeas 27, nays 14.

Mr. MOORE moved an amendment from the Committee on Finance, providing for the discontinuation of the Globe contract, for published notices in Congress on the 4th of March, and for the printing of the Committee on Printing into the cost, &c., of other methods of doing the same, which, after some discussion, was adopted.

Amendments regulating the publication of official advertisements in the District of Columbia, intended to stop a certain recent abuse of the law, were reported by Mr. SHERMAN, slightly amended by Mr. EDMUNDS, and agreed to.

Mr. SHERMAN moved another amendment, fixing the salaries of the Comptroller of the Treasury and Commissioner of Customs at $4,000 each, and the Auditor, Registrar and Supervising Architect at $3,000 each, an increase of about one third.

Mr. STEWART gave notice of an amendment increasing the salary of the Commissioner of General Land Office. Mr. EDMUNDS moved another amendment increasing the pay of night watchmen in the Treasury from $720 to $900. Agreed to.

After further discussion, the House, on the 25th, passed a bill providing for the erection of a Post Office in New York. Referred.

Adjourning.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. A large number of Senate bills were referred to the House for protective duties were presented.

Resolutions were adopted calling on the President for information relative to the imprisonment of naturalized Americans in England.

Senate amendment dividing Illinois into two Judicial Districts was concurred in.

Mr. SCHENCK made an appeal to the members of the House to be present in regular attendance during the consideration of the tax bill. The House then went into Committee on the tax bill.

Mr. PRICE's amendment, offered last evening, was adopted—yeas 88, nays 38.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK A. M.

FROM EUROPE.

Debate in the English House of Lords on the Irish Church Question—Exciting Scenes—Return of an Abyssinian Prisoner—Unveiling of the Statue of Luther at Worms.

LONDON, June 25.—Midnight.—In the House of Commons this evening the Irish Reform Bill was read for the third time and passed.

The Government grant annually to the Presbyterian Church of Ireland was voted. The new Post Convention with the United States is still pending in the House. The Government is endeavoring to make uniform terms with all Maritime Steamship Companies.

In the House of Lords to-night a great crowd was present, as an exciting debate on the Irish Church question was expected. Many members of the House were not present, and an enormous number of spectators were present, almost approaching feverish excitement, was manifested throughout the proceedings.

Lord Granville moved the second reading of the bill, which provides for the suspension of the Church of Ireland. The bill was supported by the Whigs and opposed by the Tories.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority. It is now in the hands of the Whigs and Tories. The bill has passed the House of Commons by a similar majority.

THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1883.

THE PRESIDENT'S MISSION.

The President to-day nominated Henry C. Smythe, Collector of New York, to be Minister to Austria.

Senator Henderson was married at noon to-day to Miss Mary Fooka. Among the guests were the Missouri and Vermont delegations in Congress, the President of the United States, Secretaries McCulloch and Browning, Chief Justice Chase and members of both Houses of Congress.

ANTWERP, June 25.—Petroleum 40 1/2.

TOPICS AND GOSSIP AT THE CAPITAL.

The President has nominated Henry A. Smith, Collector of New York, as Minister to Austria.

Congressman Woodward, of Pa., ex-Chief Justice, is being pressed for the Russian Mission.

Mr. Rosecrans will be appointed Minister to Mexico, and will very likely be confirmed.

The bill discontinuing the Freedmen's Bureau after next January will not be passed by both Houses during the present session.

The tax bill is to be completed and sent to the Senate next week. Legislation on the tariff question is postponed until December.

A project is on foot to raise from the colored people the sum of thirty thousand dollars to procure for General Howard a monument in the South.

It is thought now that Congress can finish up business and adjourn by the first of July. There is general anxiety among the members to get home and go to work in the canvass.

The President transmitted to the House a message vetoing the Omnibus Reconstruction bill. He says he does not deem it necessary to enter into a discussion of the bill, but he has no objection to its being discussed.

The bill is therefore, apply to this one with equal force. The message was very brief and concise, and occupied three minutes in reading.

Mr. Stevens demanded the previous question. Mr. Hoar moved with hope to the passage of the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, June 25.—Increase of specie in the Bank of England 252,000. Consols for month 92 1/2; account 94 1/2. Bonds 7 1/2. Illinois 10 1/2. Erie 10 1/2.

NEW YORK.

Speech by Horatio Seymour. By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette. NEW YORK, June 25.—Governor Seymour addressed the Jackson Central Association this evening. He said in every part of our land are proofs of the wide spread change in political feeling.

While the ablest Republican leaders refuse to go on with a party which tramples upon the judiciary, usurps political rights, and strikes at the business morality and shaking all the business machinery of the land, we are abating under some embarrassment from the great volume of the change in our political feeling.

It is thought now that Congress can finish up business and adjourn by the first of July. There is general anxiety among the members to get home and go to work in the canvass.

The President transmitted to the House a message vetoing the Omnibus Reconstruction bill. He says he does not deem it necessary to enter into a discussion of the bill, but he has no objection to its being discussed.

The bill is therefore, apply to this one with equal force. The message was very brief and concise, and occupied three minutes in reading.

Mr. Stevens demanded the previous question. Mr. Hoar moved with hope to the passage of the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1883.

THE PRESIDENT'S MISSION.

The President to-day nominated Henry C. Smythe, Collector of New York, to be Minister to Austria.

Senator Henderson was married at noon to-day to Miss Mary Fooka. Among the guests were the Missouri and Vermont delegations in Congress, the President of the United States, Secretaries McCulloch and Browning, Chief Justice Chase and members of both Houses of Congress.

ANTWERP, June 25.—Petroleum 40 1/2.

TOPICS AND GOSSIP AT THE CAPITAL.

The President has nominated Henry A. Smith, Collector of New York, as Minister to Austria.

Congressman Woodward, of Pa., ex-Chief Justice, is being pressed for the Russian Mission.

Mr. Rosecrans will be appointed Minister to Mexico, and will very likely be confirmed.

The bill discontinuing the Freedmen's Bureau after next January will not be passed by both Houses during the present session.

The tax bill is to be completed and sent to the Senate next week. Legislation on the tariff question is postponed until December.

A project is on foot to raise from the colored people the sum of thirty thousand dollars to procure for General Howard a monument in the South.

It is thought now that Congress can finish up business and adjourn by the first of July. There is general anxiety among the members to get home and go to work in the canvass.

The President transmitted to the House a message vetoing the Omnibus Reconstruction bill. He says he does not deem it necessary to enter into a discussion of the bill, but he has no objection to its being discussed.

The bill is therefore, apply to this one with equal force. The message was very brief and concise, and occupied three minutes in reading.

Mr. Stevens demanded the previous question. Mr. Hoar moved with hope to the passage of the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

The bill was then passed over the veto. The President also passed the bill over the veto.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

THE BODY OF the chambermaid of the Morning Star was picked up near Cleveland yesterday.

Six Military Commissioners in Cuba had sentenced twenty-seven prisoners to death in three months.

A number of lottery dealers were arrested in New York yesterday and held to bail in $2,000 each.

The election in North Mississippi was progressing quietly. Results so far decidedly against the Constitution.

There was a heavy hail storm in Boone county, N. Y., on Wednesday. It materially damaged the corn fields, fruit orchards and gardens. Some of the hail stones were as large as hen's eggs.

Nassau dates the 23d state that business is stagnant, failures numerous, and starvation cases frequent. A petition is to be forwarded to England for the removal of the Governor and certain members of the Government and certain members of the Legislature.

At Bangor, Me., Wednesday evening, a destructive fire occurred. A large wooden block was destroyed, striking heavy loss on the occupants, A. F. Chase and Wm. Beckford, Law & Hester, Smith & Hallett, Wm. Chase and T. H. Hosh.

Harvard states that an American brig had been compelled to pay two dollars duty per ton on her cargo, instead of the legal rate of fifty cents. The United States consul at John Chatham, Geo. H. McAllister, is protesting before the State Department at Washington.

Venezuela, advises the 7th state that in a recent battle in Coro, Gen. Gill, with three hundred of his troops, killed and wounded General Gomez. Gomez was before the gates of Caracas, demanding an unconditional surrender of the place.

The bodies of the victims of the explosion of a steam engine in New York, a short time since, extended testimony has been taken. That of the practical mechanics examined goes to show that the engine was not defective, the valves out of order, and the boiler rusty.

After the boat race at New York, on Wednesday, Walter Brown, one of the contestants, was taunted by the members of a rowing boat club, who had been upon him, with sailing the boat in the bay, in which the club were only prevented from roughly using Brown by the intervention of the police.

Mr. John W. Devereux, an affidavit clerk of the Commissioners of Emigration, at Castle Garden, New York, recently resigned his position. He was succeeded by Richard O'Gorman, Chairman of the Irish Emigration Society, several very serious charges of maladministration were made against the Commissioner.

The master masons of New York, at a meeting on Wednesday, adopted unanimous resolutions to resist the eight-hour system sought to be introduced, and to invite all other master mechanics to join in opposition. A more permanent organization was proposed, and the Committee will meet every evening until the strike is ended.

At the Masonic banquet at Philadelphia, on Wednesday night, one thousand and sixty persons sat down to the tables. It was the most magnificent affair of the kind ever gotten up in the city. The Grand Masters of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Indiana, Michigan and Missouri were present, and at near Grand Master Van, of this State.

Advices received from friends of Senator Grimes say that his recovery is now impossible. His memory is rapidly failing, and he is unable to perform his duties. He complains of not being able to think. He persists in his refusal to resign, preferring to leave his seat vacant, and his State but partially represented so long as any one to fill it who would oppose Johnson and his policy.

A call is to be issued for an international Convention in London, for the purpose of attracting attention, if possible, to the harbor of that city as a point for the exportation of western iron and steel. It is proposed to construct a direct line of railway across the continent, uniting Halifax, Portland, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago and San Francisco by one connected line of railway. The Convention will probably be held on Tuesday, August 4th.

CITY AND SUBURBAN. An Elopement—A Woman's Death. Her Husband and Absconded with a Boarder. The Husband Robbed of $1,100—A Merchant's Fall. Victim.

Henry A. Reed, coal miner, residing at Brown's road works, it appears has been a victim of misplaced confidence. The extent of $1,100. He came to the Mayor's office yesterday evening and made information charging Peter Bailey with the larceny of eleven hundred dollars. He alleges that he had eleven hundred dollars in the Police Savings Bank of New York. On Monday he came to draw it and received a check on a National Bank on Fourth Street for the amount, payable to bearer. He failed to get the check cashed, but took it home with him and placed it in a chest in his room. It appears that he kept a boarding house at the Ballou road, near the city. On Wednesday he left the room, and at work in the coal pit, Bailey broke open the chest and took the check and some of his clothing, and left in company with Mrs. Reed. They came to this city and went to a clothing establishment, where it appears Reed was known and had credit, and purchased two suits of clothes for Bailey, and had them charged to Reed's account. Since they left the clothing store, he has not heard from them, nor can he ascertain in which direction they traveled. He is of the opinion that they have gone to England.

Officer Sumner, of the Police, has been telegraphed to all the principal cities a description of the pair, which may lead to their arrest.

Fatal Accident.—Inquest. Coronor Clawson was called upon yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of David Trevel, who was accidentally killed by Coleman, Rahm & Co.'s iron mill, Fifth ward, this city. It appears that he was assisting to hoist a heavy casting by block and tackle, and the ropes, becoming entangled at the upper block, he ascended the rope, and when the block gave way and fell, striking his chest on the casting, crushing the ribs, and causing the death of the man. The jury found a verdict in accordance with the above facts.