GOLD closed in New York on Friday at 140.

THE XIVth Constitutional Amendment has been ratified by the States of Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana and North Carolina.

THE friends of Judge CHASE hold that the Amnesty Proclamation does not go far enough; that it should have made no exceptions, not even of rebels now under indictment.

OLD SOLDIERS of the war of 1812, and the widows of such soldiers, will be gratified to learn that Auditor General HARTMAN has furnished the list of all the approved applications for pensions under the law of 1868.

DEMOCRATS in Western Pennsylvania, especially those editors who held a meeting a few weeks since in this city, must be delighted to know that the Pennsylvania delegation at New York has thrown their favorite, PENDLETON, overboard, giving the vote of the State as a whole to PACKER.

It is reported that many of the Democratic delegates at New York incline to dispose of the bond-redemption question, by adopting the simple proposition that the surplus funds in the Treasury, from time to time, be regularly applied to the purchase of these bonds.

THE long-patient Democracy of Allegheny will have to wait about two days longer for their principles. It will take at least that length of time, before it can be decided, at New York, whether the Democrats of this region are in favor of equal suffrage or of a white man's government.

HON. JOHN A. BINGHAM was nominated for Congress, by acclamation, in the Sixth district of Ohio, on Friday last. Accepting the trust, he set forth in two hours the speech on which he should ask for the support of the people, giving great prominence to the reconstruction policy of Congress.

WHOMEVER the candidates of the Democracy, and whatever their platform, the Republican press will find a copious supply of weapons to assail them, already supplied in the files of the Democratic newspapers.

RECONSTRUCTION AT NEW YORK. The New York World pointedly exposes to the Southern delegates in the Convention, the absurdity of their clamor for a Democratic policy which shall ignore the de facto reconstruction of their States.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

This National gathering of a party once haughty and powerful, met at New York on Saturday to nominate a Presidential candidate, and to declare its political opinions.

It is conceded as a fact among the know-nothing ones, at New York, that Mr. CHASE has so far modified his opinions relating to negro suffrage as to make them acceptable to Democrats like HORATIO SEYMOUR.

THE Convention effected a preliminary organization, appointed the regular committees, heard the Declaration of Independence read, and then adjourned over to to-day.

It is conceded that PENDLETON, if he fails to secure the choice of that body, will be able to control the decision in behalf of any other candidate.

There being three hundred and seventeen Electors votes, the Convention divides the number, casting two votes for each district, or six hundred and thirty-four votes in all.

THE Philadelphia Press, referring to this decision, says: "The court seems to stand as follows: In favor of a registry law, Judge Thompson, Strong, Read, and Agnew, and against any such law, Judge Blair."

THE Convention re-assembles this morning, and the permanent organization will follow. This is likely to be secured in the anti-Pendleton interest.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

WE skim the cream of the conjectures and assertions with which our exchanges are now filled, concerning the Democratic gathering at New York, as follows:

THE Democratic gathering at New York, as follows: "The Tribune says: 'Said a prominent member of Tammany: "Pendleton has sufficient strength to split the Convention if he chooses, but he has not enough to make it nominate him."
