A wonderful old document is at present in Canada, being nothing less than the skin of parchment signed two hundred and thirty years ago by the Scottish people...

This celebrated old document is, without doubt, a relic of the troublous times which gave it existence. No era of Scotland's history claims more interest or presents greater claims than the memorable year 1688, when on the first day of March, its vigorous and high minded people, oppressed by restrictions on their religious liberty...
