A Truant Wife. An information was made before Justice Salsbury, of Birmingham, yesterday, by Jacob Lettston, charging William Grover and Elizabeth Lettston, wife of the prosecutor, with larceny, which, if the charge be true, developes the fact that the prosecutor has not only been robbed of a little "filthy lucre," but that the wife of his bosom, the partner of his joys and sorrows, has been induced to depart from the path of virtue, leave her husband and fly with her seducer.

It is alleged by the prosecutor that he and Grover occoupied the same house in Birmingham, neither of them having any family except their wives, and that on the morning of the 4th of July his wife left the premises. After waiting some time for her return, only to be disappointed, he went to Grover's room to enquire for her, but ound no one in. Since that time he has neither seen nor heard from either his wife or Grover, but Tuesday evening Grover's wife returned to the house and still remains wife returned to the house and still remains there. Upon further investigation of his, premesis he discovered that he had been robbed of fourteen dollars, which was all the money there was in the house at the time of the elopement. He further alleges that his wife and Grover have been on very intimate terms for some time past and that he has had cause on several occusions to doubt her fidelity, and he varily believes they have eloped, and taken with them the fourteen dollars.

The story is not a very plausible one, but no doubt the prosecutor is honest in his convictions concerning the affair. If the parties have eloped the wife of Grover would perhaps know something about the affair, but it appears she has not been consulted in re-gard to it, and it is hardly possible that she would give her consent to such an arrangement. A warrant was issued for the accused, who it was thought by the prosecu tor might be caught at the Union Depot last night on their way to the East.

Real Estate and Collecting Agency.

The real estate and collecting business in a large city like ours is a very important auxiliary, and one which, when properly conducted, cannot be over estimated or appreciated too highly. Messrs. Reed & Tusten, No. 87 Grant street, are largely engaged in this line, and although not a very long while in the business, have already neceeded in building up a generous pa ronage which is daily increasing, just in proportion as the public gain knowledge of their superior facilities. These gentlemes devote their exclusive time and attention to the interests of their patrons, and either in buying or selling real estate in city or or country endeavor to deal honorably and justly, meriting the confidence of both inver and seller. They have always on their bulletin very desirable div property. farms and mineral lands, which those wishfarms and imperal lands, which those wishing to invest in real estate would do well to call 'sind's xamilis. The first stand to the coast of Africa last winter, and call 'sind's xamilis. The first stand to the coast of Africa last winter, and country of all claims, bills, notes, book to the most personal acquaintance, bild besume. From pursonal acquaintance, with these gratismen, we feel that we are running regular trips. The result will want ranged in pursonal acquaintance, be underly to the first property of the coast of Africa last winter.

Peral Rallroad

Yesterday evening, about half-past four clock, as the mail train on the West Penna Railroad was coming toward Alleghery, a man was discovered walking on the track about two hundred yards ahead of the engine. The train was just rounding a curve near Patterson's Station, about twenty-one miles from the city, when the man was first seen, and the engineer as soon as he perceived him, gave the usual signals for clearing the track, at the same tention to the alarm, and the train, going at the rate of sixteen miles an hour, could not be checked in time to save him. He was struck by the cowcatcher and thrown off the track to one side, the force of the blow being such as to cause his death instantly.

An examination of the body proved it to be that of Jas. P. McDowell, a well-tomains were placed on board the train and taken back to the late residence of the de-ceased, where they were taken in charge by the friends. Coroner Clawson will hold an inquest on the body to-day.

Pure and Delicious Wines and Where to

For many years the conniscurs in foreign and domestic wines and liquors have recognized the fact that nowhere else can they obtain rarer selection or purer articles than at the old established and first class house of William Miller, (late Miller & Ricketson,) Nos. 221 and 223 Liberty street, corner of Irwin. Enjoying first class facilities for direct importation from the principal and most famous foreign wine marts, their goods must necessarily be sumarts, their goods must necessarily be superior to any passing through second hands in our home ports. Their stock embraces all the most popular wines, such as Chateau Lafitti, Margaux, La Rose, St. Julien, Medoc, St. Jacques, Panillac, clear and sparkling Sherries, Haut Sauternes, Chateau Sauternes, Latour Blauche white wines, rich bodied Hock wines, beautiful sparkling wines of Hockheimer's superior quality, all the best brands of pure Champaigns, embracing the famous Moet & quanty, an the nest brands of pure Cham-paigns, embracing the famous Moet & Chandon, Imperial, Vernezay, Chamblis, Chambertine, Espernay, Heidsieck and other brands. The firm have also on hand a fine assortment of general brandies, whiskies and fancy liquors. Their prices whishes and lange industrial process are as liberal as can be obtained from similar first class houses in the East, and we bespeak a continuance of the large share of patronage in this line hitherto directed to this old and reliable house.

Severely Injured. On Monday evening about five o'clock, John Schweitzer, employed at Stamm & Co.'s chair factory, corner of Cherry and Strawberry alleys, met with a very serious accident. He was engaged at a circular saw, cutting a piece of plank in two, when one of the separated pieces was accidentally struck by a tooth of the saw, causing it to be thrown backward, striking the unfortu-nate man in the forehead and knocking him insensible. Dr. Walters was called in im mediately and successfully performed the operation of treppanning, removing thirteen pieces of the skull bones, the patient being under the influence of chloroform. The injured man is unmarried and the only support of a widowed mother who resides in Birmingham. Dr. Walters thinks it possi-ble that he will recover with careful treat-

Simmons to the other "end," we have ever met with in the show business. A complete change programme will be made to-night. A fun-loying persons should remember the fun-loving persons should remember that this is positively the last week of their stay.

Base Ball. The Atlantics, of Brooklyn, arrived in this city yesterday morning, returning from their western tour. The anticipated match between them and the Allegheny failed to come off on account of the rain. They left for home on the five p. m. train. The Allegheny was beaten in the contest at Detroit on the fourth, the score standing at the close of the ninth inning, twenty-two for the Detroit and four for the Allegheny. It is probable that a return match will be played at Union Park in about ten days, at which the Allegheny boys hope to retrieve their lost laurels. The Allegheny was beaten in the contest

Victimized. Several days since a gentleman, residing at Newark, Ohio, was made the "victim of misplaced confidence" to the amount of $95 at the Union Depot. He was about to leave the city on the train, when the "confidence" man came up to him and address him by name, and by means of the "bogus check" and the "freight dodge" obtained the money. The gentleman soon discovered that he had been duped, but was so heartly ashamed of his ignorance that he left the city without making the matter known, but told it confidentially to a fellow ssenger.
