RIVER NEWS. The weather continues oppressingly hot and sultry, and business at the main landing is completely suspended. The river is still, receding steadily, with but eighteen inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks.

The Charmer left St, Louis for Pittsburgh on Saturday, and the Camelia was adver-tised to follow on Monday. The steamer Elizabeth departs for Eliza-beth at half-past three o'clock this after-noon. The Brownsville packets will run regularly hereafter.

regularly hereafter. Coal men, now that boats and barges can be locked through dam No. 2, will com-mence loading their crafts, to have them in readiness to go out on the first considerable rise in our rivers.

The following passenger steamers are ly-ing at the Monongahela wharf: Messen-ger, Kate Robinson, Armenia, Kenton, Armadillo, Kate Putnam, Belle Vernon, Gray Eagle and Bayerd Armacillo, Kate Futnam, Belle vernon, Grev Eagle and Bayard. The Yorktown passed Evansville an Sat urday, en route from for Cincinnati. It is said that she cleared $10,000 on her recent trip to Fort Benton. The America, enroute from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed Louisville on Saturday.

-A St. Louis telegram, under date of Saturday, says: River stationary, but fall-ing all the way from St. Paul. Missouri stationary at St. Joseph; rising rapidly at Omaha. Business moderate. The small hosts are preparing for active service. and Stationary a St. Joseph; rising rapidly at Omaha. Business moderate. The small boats are preparing for active service, and the Pauline Carroll, for New Orleans, left yesterday with all the freight she wanted. The Omaha packets have more than they can handle. Thursday's boat left drawing 5½ feet, full of people. She left a large, amount of freight for to-day's boat's. Ar-rived—Pembina, from St. Paul; Silver Cloud, Pittsburgh; Bee and barges, New Orleans. The Mary McDonald goes into the Ohio line for the low water season, taking the place of the Virginia, which will probably be enlarged. Another barge ar-rived yesterday, with 1,000 tuns railroad iron for the Chicago Railroad, inaking 4,000 tuns received during the past month. —A diving bell boat has for two weeks

-A diving bell boat has for two weeks been working at the wreck of the High-land Chief, sunk in the middle of the' river, three miles above Vevay. The hull lies some twenty feet under water, and has been sunk now some twenty miles water, and has hes some twenty tee, under water, and has been sunk now some four years. The di-ver stays down over an hour at a tune, working with a wrench unscrewing nuts and fastening chains or ropes to fixtures, when they are hauled up. Seve-ral hundred dollars worth have been hauled up, and now they are waiting for a coal tug to go further up the river to other wreeks-the David Gibson, perhaps-near Aurora.

-From the Davenport Democrat we -From the Davenport Democrat we learh that on Saturday evening last Minnie Hall, little daughter of Peter Hall, a well-known St. Louis and St. Paul pilot, who lives at West Davenport, went with several of her companisato the river for the pur-pose of bathing. While there they at-tempted to cross the slough to the island on a board that had been laid down for crossing, and in doing so Minnie fell in
