

The Pittsburgh Gazette

Published Daily, except on Sundays and Public Holidays. By J. M. REED & CO., Proprietors.

OFFICE: GAZETTE BUILDING, NOS. 24 AND 25 FIFTH ST. OF Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Allegheny Counties.

TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1868. THE WEEKLY GAZETTE, issued on Wednesdays and Saturdays, is the best and cheapest family newspaper in Pennsylvania.

WE PRINT on the inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE: Second page: Epitaphs; "What We Are Doing To"; Third page: Home and Foreign Markets; River News; Sixth page: City Finance and Trade; Allegheny Cash Market; Petroleum Markets.

THE INDIVIDUALS appended to the very interesting foreign correspondence, of which we print the first this morning, will be recognized as those of the faithful and beloved pastor of a leading church in Allegheny City, who is now making a brief European tour.

WADE HAMPTON, who, with FOREMAN and FRESTON, caused the nomination of BLAIR at New York, made a speech at Baltimore, on his way South, in which he thanked the rebel soldiers of Maryland for their aid in the rebellion, or, as he put it, "the great contest for liberty."

IN OUR remarks in Saturday's GAZETTE upon the tabular statements of tests recently made at the Washington Navy Yard, of samples of boiler plate of Pittsburgh manufacture, we inadvertently did injustice to the firm of Park, Bro. & Co., by stating the mean tensile strength of their steel plate at 64,180 lbs. per square inch, which was the mean strength of that rolled from cast ingots without being hammered. That rolled from hammered steel, such as they are accustomed to make, stood 91,961 lbs., which is more than double the average strength of wrought iron boiler plate.

A WORD TO FRIENDS AT WASHINGTON. In view of the recent very extraordinary and dangerous threatening against the public peace, emanating from a large combination, organized throughout the Republic with the avowed object of revolutionary resistance to the laws of the Federal Union, we do not hesitate to say that it is the very plain duty of our loyal friends in Congress, before they shall separate, to make the most effective provisions for repressing the threatened violence, and securing the complete execution of the laws.

THE CHARTER ELECTION. By the terms of the new charter, of this city the choice of municipal officers will be made in October, in connection with the State election. The nominations will be made on the fifteenth of August.

THE TREASON CULMINATING.

We print an official document this morning, a message from the President of the United States, duly transmitted by him to Congress yesterday, of which we may say, in the words of an indignant Senator, that it is the most incendiary document which ever emanated from that source.

Thus the treason which BLAIR proposed, which EWING expands to still broader proportions, which has fanned the rebel heart with new hopes for the speedy gain of all that the Confederacy fought for—the treason which is already ringing throughout the South the terrible tocsin of another rebellion against the Federal authority, is officially sanctioned and promulgated by the man who fills the Executive Chair, the Chief Magistrate of the Republic.

Do not call us alarmists! The crisis is too serious and too palpable for any misunderstanding. The same old diabolical spirit, of a party which would rule or ruin, has proclaimed revolutionary resistance to the duly enacted laws of the Nation; the execrable villains, who have once already warred upon the Nation's life, whom we conquered at such a cost, and whom we have too generously forgiven, have eagerly accepted the invitation to rebel once more, and, instead of a BUCHANAN, who perils all by his remissness in duty, we have an avowed and defiant traitor in the Presidency, who pledges to the new treason the active sanction of his high place and power.

That is what it means! Another rebellion! Another war! And is it for this that we gave a half million of lives and thousands of millions of money, with a sorrow and suffering which no words can ever measure? Friends! Hark and you will soon hear the drum-beat! The Union is to be preserved and its laws enforced at whatever cost. We are all ready for it, thank God! and the struggle, when it comes, will be short and forever decisive.

THE CONNELLVILLE ROAD. We were advised ten days since, that the subscriptions needed for the success of this project were very nearly made up, but, at the request of the officials, delays for consideration of the matter until the last dollar should be secured. We now learn from the Cumberland Citizen that all of the Two Million loan has been taken, and that every contingency which could obstruct the immediate and rapid progress of construction has finally been removed.

THE CHARTER ELECTION. By the terms of the new charter, of this city the choice of municipal officers will be made in October, in connection with the State election. The nominations will be made on the fifteenth of August.

PROGRESS OF THE NEW REPUBLIC.

A Democratic ratification meeting, on the night of the 18th at Washington, Gen. THOMAS EWING, Jr., thus "backed up" BLAIR's programme of civil war, in case of another defeat at the polls. He said: "On the 21st of November next, the American people will endeavor to restore their States to their original position. Should it be possible, all the white population of those States may re-organize themselves in the possession of their governments, and the Federal Union will be re-established on a basis of peace and justice, and then, about the middle of the next year, the whole Republic will be re-organized."

Every negro becomes "intelligent," "pious," "prudent," and "white," the more the Democratic party grows. A Southern Democratic presser, early in the general feeling of his section when he said he was converted rebel, but "unable to backslide."
