A Mad Bull on a Frolie.

Yesterday morning while a lot of Texan cattle were being driven through Allegheny, one of them broke away from his com nions and created considerable excitement for a time by his antica. He commenced operations on Union avenue by attacking an elderly gentleman; whose name we failed to learn, cutting a terrible gash in his arm and severing an artery. The injured man was conveyed to the drug store of Dr. Haslett, where his wounds received medical attention. The injuriated animal continued in his course through several streets, frightening people out of his way right and left and knocking some down, more or less injuring them. Officer Shaffer, of the pulice force, endeav-ored to quiet him but was furned upon and only escaped serious injury by making the quickest time on record. As it was, however, he will need a new cost, his old one being ripped up the back by one of the an-imal's horns.

imal's horns. There were quite a number of other hair-breadth escapes, but outside of the first op-eration no one was injured. The bull's frolic was finally terminated by Chief of Police Bowden, who discharged the con-tents of a rifle into his head, which comletely settled the case.

City Treasurership.

MESSRS, EDITORS :-- As the time is approaching when it becomes necessary-in accordance with the decision of the Repub lican Executive Committee-to place in nomination candidates to be voted for in October next, for such municipal offices as will become vacant in the beginning of the year, I, in conjunction with many of our citizens, invite Mr. S. Allindor, our present worthy City Treasurer, to offer himself for re-election. Mr. A. has always been a consistent and truthful Republican, and, without disparaging others, I may say that a fibre capable or deserving person for the position could not be found within our city limits. Integrity of purpose and action, of thills of manyor and a becoming with affability of manners, and a becoming wil-lingness at all times to sorve the public, whose courteous servant he is, are conspicwhose courteous servant he is, are consplo-uous traits in his character, and such ohar-acteristics are enough to point him out as being the litest man for the position.
