tion before the Mayor yesterday, in which he alleges that John and Mary Hagerty threatened to do him great injury, and he desires that they be arrested and held to bail to keep the peace. A warrant was Larceny of a Skiff.—Dennis McQuade Larceny of a Skiff.—Dennis McQuade alleges that Michael Murray took possession of and appropriated to his own use a skiff belonging to him valued at $20. Murray was arrested and, in default of $100 bail, was committed to jail 5-

Correction.—Wo were in arror in stating that Drum was the man who was stabbed in the riot in Lawrenceville on Sunday. The injured party was Mr. Oliver Criswell, of Wheeling. West Virginia. We understand that Mr. Criswell received one stab in the head and another very serious one in the side, but at present he is slowly resovering.

Common Barrator.—Martha Laughlin made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging William McKnight with barratry. It appears that McKnight has made information against a number of persons, among whom is the prosecutrix, for filegal liquor selling, for which he is charged with the offence named. He was arrested and held to bail for his appearance at court, Pay Your Taxes—Taxpayers should remember that after the 1st of next month they will not be allowed the five per cent. discount on their taxes, but will be required to pay the full amount, and act accordingly. Many of them will doubtiess put the matter off until the last day, when the office will be so througed that the gentlemanly and accommodating Treasurer will be unable to attend to them.

Notice. By the supplement to the act of consolidation the representation of the several wards in Common Council is to be based upon the number of taxable inhabibased upon the number of taxable innabi-tants, and in order to give the Committee appointed by Councils for that purpose-time to make the apportionment, Asses-sors are desired to make their returns on or before Saturday next, as the Committee are required to roport on the Monday for-lowing.

Cheap Boarding.—A warrant was issued yesterday by Alderman McMasters for the arreat of Jerry Noland, charged with false prefence, on oath of Mrs. Barbara Barrett. Barbara keeps a boarding house at No. 701 Liberty street, and she alleges that Noland obtained boarding to the amount of forty-five dollars. by representing that he was obtained boarding to the amount of forty-five dollars, by representing that he was employed by the Penasylvania Railroad Company, and that he had money due n from them, which statement is said to Park Committee.—The special commit-tee spointed by Councils to select a suita-ble place for a public park, met yesterday afternoon and organized by electing Col. William Phillips, Chairman and A. M. Brown, Esq., Secretary. After transacting some unimportant business they adjourned to meet on Saturday next, when they intend visiting the rural part of the city to ex-amine different, sites and receive proposals amine different sites and receive proposals from parties offering their grounds for sale for that purpose.

Church Pestival.—The cool and airy tooms of the Liberty street M. E. Church (corner Liberty and Hay) will be open this evening and Friday evening to all the friends of the congregation who wish to enjoy a pleasant hour or two. Ice cream and cakes, and other delicacies of the season will be provided in abundance. In addition to the evening entertainment dinner will be served from twelveo'clock to free, giving a fine opportunity to get an excelgiving a fine opportunity to get an excel-lent meal at a trifling cost.

Wanted to Keep Him.—W. T. McKain made information yesterday before Alder-the Convention. Those who were delegates at the Convention which met June 10th are for assault and battery. According to his story, his son, about seventeen years of age, has been employed by the Yutta about a year, and when Mrs. McKain went yesterday to take the boy home and collect calling of the roll. It was manifest there a year, and when Mrs. McKain went yesterday to take the boy home and collect his wages, she was set upon by Mrs. Yutt, was but a small number of the delegates was but a small number of the delegates refused to let the boy go. The parties reside in East Deer township. Warrant tries were engaged in harvesting, and this would account for the absence of many delegates.

bused a Horse.—Thomas McKain, foreman of McVay & Co'a, livery stable, on trivin street, made information vesterday, before Alderman McMastars against Richard Kidd, for misdenicanor, McKain at alleges that Kidd came to the stable and bired a horse and buggy, on the 10th inst., stating that he wished to take a sick man home. After taking the turnout from the stable he drove recklessly and farfously home. After taking the turnout from the stable he drove recklessly and farlouse through the street, upsetting the bugy and damaging it and the horse to the amount of $50. Kidd was arrested, and paid the amount with costs, and was discharged.

Delegates chosen by the Democracy of Allegheny county in June, for the purpose of making nominations for Congress and County offices, and who, after assembling in Convention at Lafayette Hall, on June 10th, took no action, but adjourned to August 12th, met in Convention at the Courtouse on Wednesday, at the call of the New Arrangement.—The offi es of the Chairman, the County Committee having Sheriff and Prothonotary will be closed at half-past four o'clock every evening hereafter day than had been at first dear one o'cl termined upon.

The attendance was small, meagre. Of the eighty odd districts of the county we are entirely safe in saying less than one-helf were represented. This small representation accounts for the harmony which prevailed, as had there been a full turn out of the "unsophisticated," the manipulations of a certain set might have caused a row in the camp, and the programme seriously in-terfered with. As far as the action of the teriered with. As ar as the action of the Convention is concerned, it might have been foretold with entire correctness days ago. The proceedings were merely formal, and entirely devoid of that interest which and entirely devoid of that interest which usually attaches to County Conventions.

Thomas J. Keenan, Esq., Chairman of the previous Convention, took the stand at the appointed hour. He explained briefly the object of the Convention, and stated that in deference to the judgment of influential members of the party it had been called at an earlier date than hud been agreed upon.

Afternoon Session.

The Convention reassembled at one o'clock, and the roll of delegates was called.

A delegate moved that D. H. Williams, late editor of the Republic, be substituted for Mr. G. W. Motheral, delegate from the Sixth ward, Allegheny, who was absent.

This caused considerable discussion.

Mr. Williams was charged with being a "conservative," a member of another organization, which would probably meet in a few days and make nominations. a few days and make nominations.

Mr. J. H. Sawyer advocated the claims of Mr. Williams. He said it was only neces-sary to read the call for the convention to answer the objection. All opposed to Radicalism were invited to participate.

Finally it was discovered that Mr. Williams was "all right," and those who had opposed now favored his admission.

Then followed a large number or substitutions, and it was plainly apparent that the managers had been active during recess in efforts to secure anything like an adequate representation from the county.

A letter from W. D. Moore, Esq., deolining to be a candidate for State Senator, was read. calism were invited to participate.

Mr. J. H. Sawyer withdrew the name of Hall Patterson, suggested for State Senator. On motion of W. W. Alexander, A. W. Roster, Esq., (being the only candidate left,) was nominated for State Senator by

The Convention then proceeded to mark for candidates for the remaining offices, with the following result on first ballot:

35 Peter Gelsheimer.
107 °C. P. Whiston.
35 Jas. Calboun.
156 Michael Lepp.

During the balloting Maj. G. P. Vierneller became much exercised, alleging there was "connivin" going on, and demanded that everybody should stand back from the stand and allow delegates to vote without interruption. The Major's appeal seemed ineffectual. Mr. Robert Gutherie inquired who were the Secretaries. He said it was hard to ell from appearances. It from appearances.

Finally the veteran John Fox prevailed upon the Chairman to reduce the pressure at the desk where the marking was going on.
One of the Secretaries having been charged with undue interference, left his place, accosted his accuser, (not a delegate,) hot accosted his accuser, (not a delegate,) not words were exchanged, and something was said about settling the dispute on another occasion. Thus harmony was preserved. Before the ballot was announced a motion was carried that the three candidates for Assembly who had received the highest was carried that the three candidates for Assembly who had received the highest number of votes be declared the numinees.

J. C. Barr. Esq., offered the following, which was adopted:

this day nominated to the support of the Democracy of the county and of all citizens opposed to the corrupt management of public affairs by the party now having control of the Government lic anairs by the party now having control of the Government.

W. D. Moore, Esq., was called upon for a speech and responded. His remarks were not particularly forcible, and only remarkable for vituperation. Ho said it was useless to conceal the fact that the nominations by the Now York Convention were not said. the New York Convention were not satisfactory; but this mattered little, as the factory; but this mattered little, as the Democratic party regarded measures more than men, and the mere individuals representing the principles enunciated were as nothing. Gen. Grant he referred to as a "butcher," as one who kept his mouth shut that people might not know he was a fool, and as a soldier ne was but a circumstance compared to Frank P. Blair, who had by his personal efforts and bravery saved one State (Missourl) from going out of the Union. Of Horatio Seymour he spoke in the highest terms as a statesman, but the highest terms as a statesman, but did not essay any reason why his nomination, as well as that of Blair, was not reliabled by the Democracy of Allegheny county. Speaking of the greenback dogma, he said the Democratic party party were in favor of paving the bondhol ders just as other creditors were paid, according to law. The bondholder might take his pound of firsh, but not one drop more. Mr. M finally concluded his harrangue, without having elicited any enthusiasm, and the effort to that end was an entire failure. the highest terms as a statesman, but

The report of the Committee, and also the report of the Committee on Resolutions, were formally adopted.

Thos. J. Keenan, Esq., said a large number of citizens were presying the nomination of A. W. Foster, Esq., as a candidate for Congress, but he had declined the proffered honor. Mr. K. read the following letter from Mr. Foster:

PITTERURGH, July 21, 1868.

PITTEBURGH, July 21, 1868.

To Thomas J. Keenan, Esq., Chairman to Democratic Convention:

Sir: When I became a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this District, there was no probability of defeating the Radical candidate, and my sole object was to occupy a position which would enable me to render more efficient service than I could hope to afford merely as a private citizen. The Convention then adjourned to meet at one o'clock.

Mr. James Irvin offered a resolution, which, after being "doctored," read as folwhich, after being "doctored," read as follows:

The resolution was adopted:

Another delegate moved that the Conference Committee go through the ceremony of informing Mr. Burt of his nomination.

ot informing Mr. Burt of his nomination.
Mr. Keenan again interposed, saying it was entirely unnecessary as Mr. Burt was already before the people as a candidate.
The Chairman silenced the latter proposition by the announcement that the Convention (the Congressional) had not appointed a conference committee.

The Convention then adjourned.

The delegates from the districts on the north side of the Ohio and Allegheny rivers, comprising, with Butler and Armstrong counties, the Twenty-third Congressional District, also assembled during recess. Capt. John Rodgers was called to preside, and Jacob Whitesell, Esq., to officiate as Sec etary.

LABOR REFORM CONVENTION. Slim Attendance--Want of Enthusiasm

Fusion with the Democracy. The left wing of the Democracy, under the garb of the Labor Reform Party, assembled in the Quarter Sessions room at the Court House at 10 o'clock A. M. yesterday to the number of twenty-four, ostensibly for the purpose of nominating candidates for Congress, State Senate, Assembly and county officers, but virtually to ratify the action of the right wing of the party which assembled at the same hour in the Common Pleas court room.

It was plainly evident from the class of It was plainly evident from the class of delegates, the great majority of whom were old Democratic politicians, that the Convention would be manipulated in the interest of the Democracy, and the counsequence was that the meeting was a decidedly tame one, and lacked that enthusiasm which marked the Labor Reform Convention of last year. The Committee recommend that the Joint Committee on Conference he empowered to report a full ticket for the ratification of both Conventions."

On motion of Mr. Frethy the report was adopted.
Mr. E. A. Frethy, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, stated that as there were no local issues the Committee had adopted the resolutions of the National Labor Reform Convention held at New York city, and submitted them for the action of the Convention the Convention, viz:

WHEREAS, The right to labor and its rereward is self-evident; and whereas the excess or want of work is a fruitful source of ignorance, disease and crime; and whereas he tendency of legislation and monopoly is to restrict the freedom, cripple the energies, and purioin the earnings of indus-

Resolved, That the low wages, long hours, and damaging service to which multitudes of working girls and women are doomed, destroy health, imperil virtue, and are a standing reproach to civilization; that we would urge them to learn trades, engage in business, join our labor Unions, or use any other honorable means to persuade or force men to render unto every woman according to her works. men to render unto every woman according to her works.

Resolved. That we urge upon the industrial class in every Congressional and State district county, city or town, t press these principles upon the public notice, and to support no man for Congress, for any State Legislature, or any other office of profit or trust, who is not fully pledged to their support.

On motion the report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.
On motion of Mr. Frethy, the Convention proceeded to nominate the candida loted by the Conference Committee. oved that the nominations be conducted by marking, Adopted.

The following names were suggested for candidates:

Assembly—Mossrs.A. Frethy, City, Nicholas Hoge, H. B. McGinty, W. W. Alexanolas Hoge, H. B. McGinty, W. W. Alexander, Sainuel McKean-der, Sainuel McKean, Commissioner—Jas. R. Jackson, McKees-port, James McCleary, Braddocks, Surveyor—Sigsmund Lowe, City.

Mr. Frethy moved that a majority of the votes cast be requisite to make a nomination. The motion was adopted by a vote of 18 to 5.

Mr. Burt was called upon and made ar Mr. Burt was called upon and made an out-and-out Democratic speech. He apparently ignored the twenty-four men who composed the Labor Reform Convention, for whose conciliation he had been placed upon the ticket, and plunged head and hoels into a Democratic argument of the Jeff, Davis-Vallandigham character. It is evident to all who heard him that he has been training in that school for some time been training in that school for some time, as he has taken to the policy of his new friends like a young duck to water.

Mr. Bruce, the candidate for District Attoriey, was next called upon, and responded in his usual good natured style. He said that he had come into the room not to speak but to hear. Mr. Burt, expecting to hear the said that he had come into the room in the said that he had come into the room in the said that he had come into the said that he was a said that was a said that he was a said that was a said that he wa ing to hear an able argument in behalf of the Labor Reform movement, but he must confess that he was agreeably disappointed, for, instead of a Labor Refo m speech, Mr. Burt had made a straight out Democratic
