FINANCE AND TRADE. OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1868. The bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue new bonds to take up the maturing coupons, is interpreted as an expansion of currency, and, in consequence, bonds advanced from 1 1/2 to 4 per cent. The investment demand is still confined to small lots, and capitalists hold back to await a decline to about 108 to 107 per cent, at which price, bonds are likely to be bought before the next interest falls due.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS. OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1868. The general markets have been a little more active during the week which has just closed, and some commodities, in consequence of a temporary scarcity, have temporarily advanced. But, in instances, has advanced considerably; this is not that there is an increased demand, but in consequence of the extremely hot weather, which has retarded shipments. The Flour and Grain trade is very unsettled, and, of course, while it remains so, the volume of business will be light. Millers do not seem disposed to buy wheat very freely, while there is a probability of a still further decline, and the same is true of both dealers and consumers of Flour. Provisions firm, and in fair local demand but unchanged, and the same remarks will apply to Groceries. Hay is considerably firmer and higher, under the influence of reports of a short crop.

BUTTER—The demand is good, and the market firm though prices are unchanged; we can report sales of prime fresh packed at 22 through some dealers think they could realize 30 cents if they only had it. EGGS—The supply keeps fully up to the demand and the market is steady at 21 to 22c. CHEESE—Is unchanged at 18 to 14 for Western Reserve and Hamburg, 15 to 16 for Ohio Factory, and 18 to 20 for Switzer. HAY—Is scarce and firm with sales of new from country wagons at 25 to 26c. Prime (old) baled is sold at 22 to 23c.

GRAIN—The wheat market is very irregular and unsatisfactory, and is likely to remain so until the rest of the harvest has been positively ascertained; no one, we believe, predicts any advance; some think it possible present prices may be sustained, while others again contend that must go still lower. Southern Wheat can no longer be brought to this market as it would cost more than our millers are willing to pay, and they can buy for less money, nearer home. We heard of a small sale of new head at 24c, though the great proportion of the sales during the week were at 22 to 23c. Corn is firm but not quotably higher; sales of ear mixed at 19c, prime field at 19 to 20c, and 21c for new firm and in limited supply; sales on track and in elevator at 78 to 80. Rye is dull and nominal at 14 to 15c. It is so early as yet to say much about new Barley; we believe, however, that there will be an average yield, and it is probable that prices will rule lower than last year. GREEN APPLES—Are in good supply, and dull but unchanged; at 4 to 5c per bushel as to quality.

MILL FEED—Is steady with regular jobbing sales in store, at $1.00 to $1.20 for middling and $1.15 to $1.20 for bran. SHEEP—Sales common Red Ash at 4 1/2c; Refined, 6c; Pearl Ash is still quoted at 10c. PIG LEAD—Sales of 250 pigs at 10 1/2c. SEEDS—There was a sale of a fair load of flaxseed the other day at $2.50, but it would not bring much, if anything, over $2 now. Nothing doing in Clover or Timothy Seeds.

LARD OIL—Is still quoted at $1.15 for No. 1 and $1.40 for No. 2. PROVISIONS—Bacon is in steady demand at 13 1/2 to 13c for Shoulders, 14c to 15c for Ribs, and 18 to 20c for Cured Sides and 20 to 22c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 18c to 18 1/2c for Urded, 21 to 22c for Mess Pork, 22 to 25c for Fat. SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged at 17 1/2 to 18c to the trade, and 2c for small lots in store.

FLOUR—The Flour market is dull but steady, and prices seem to be well sustained. The demand is very light, being restricted entirely to the immediate wants of the home trade, and it is almost an impossibility to sell a round lot at anything near quotations. We continue to quote at $10 to $10 1/2 for good choice Spring, and $11 for choice Minnesota; $10.75 for Winter Wheat, and $13 to $14 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour, $4.50 to $4.75. Cincinnati Market. (By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

St. Louis Cattle Market. (By Telegram to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) ST. LOUIS, July 25.—Live stock cattle for week ended at $3.25 to 75c gross. Sheep $1.65 per head. Lambs $1.00.
