

GRANT AND COLFAX. Republican Mass Meeting at City Hall.

THE CAMPFIRES LIGHTED.

Address of Hon. John A. Bingham, of Ohio.

REMARKS BY DR. WORTHINGTON AND GEN. NEGLEY.

Professor Pope's Song.

A mass meeting of the friends of Grant and Colfax was held at City Hall last evening, and notwithstanding the limited number of seats...

[Prolonged applause.] The last battle of the rebellion is to be fought in the year 1868, and the victory to be won...

It requires no prophetic spirit to foresee that the year 1868 will be as memorable in the history of the Republic as any year of its existence.

There are men who challenge the Constitution. There are men who challenge the supremacy of the laws...

- OFFICERS: PRESIDENT - Gen. James K. Moorhead; VICE PRESIDENT - Col. William Phillips; Sec'y - Dr. George McGee...

Gen. Moorhead was loudly called for by the audience and taking the chair, thanked the Executive Committee and the audience for the honor conferred on him...

My FELLOW CITIZENS: I cannot proceed to address you without thanking you for the very complimentary terms in which you have been pleased to speak of me...

'Now comes along another Johnson and another Johnson, and another Johnson, until the name of the man who was before the people with the cry that the Southern States have the right of secession...

When you come to read the platform of the party, you will find that it is a platform of party bickering and party turning away from their party associations...

Who is there here that does not know what this country has suffered by reason of a faithless and apostate President, who has occupied the Presidential chair...

At last, my countrymen—and bear this in mind while you consider your own action touching the settlement of this controversy—at last bear in mind that the vital power of the Republic is in the ballot...

What member of the Congress at Richmond, when they ran away before the coming of your victorious armies on the evening of the 9th of April, 1865...

stitution, whose office, legislative, executive and judicial officers are bound by an oath to support the Constitution...

Now, my countrymen, let me, upon this plain statement, set before you the logic of these demagogues which will not apply against the Constitution itself...
