It is announced that Mr. EDWIN M. STANTON will address a Republican mass meeting, to be held in the city of New York, on one of the first days of September.

ANOTHER Presidential Convention has been called to meet at Chicago, to-morrow. It is understood to be in the interest of the friends of Women's Rights. Here is one more chance for Chief Justice CHASE.

THE carefully kept records of a New York meteorologist show that the past month of July was the hottest month that city has experienced for more than twenty-five years.

THE statement that HORATIO SEYMOUR never has owned United States bonds, elicits the fact, also, that he was equally careful to avoid taking any of the bonds issued by our country, during the war, for raising and fitting out troops.

WE were misled, by an announcement in a journal of Cincinnati, into the statement that Judge STANLEY MATTHEWS would run for Congress in the district now represented by GRAY. We regret now to learn that "reasons of a personal and private character" compel him to decline the canvass.

THE annual Catalogue and Circular of Washington and Jefferson College, for 1867-68, show nine Professors, two Tutors, one hundred and fifty-three students in the Academic department, thirty-one in the Scientific, and seventy-six in the Preparatory—making a total of two hundred and sixty.

A VERY recent change in the editorial management of the Cincinnati Enquirer is said to be due to the decided preference felt by the retiring editor for Mr. CHASE as a Presidential candidate, instead of either SEYMOUR or PENNINGTON. Large numbers in that party are believed to be settling down into the same opinion.

THE restoration of the mail service in the Southern States has very largely contributed to the deficit of eight millions in the finances of the Postoffice Department, for 1868. In '65 there was a surplus of $869,430; in '66, a deficit, the first for several years, of $665,033; in '67, this deficit amounted to near $4,000,000, and for the current year even this will be doubled. Ocean mail subsidies and increased expenditures in the North-west have swollen this deficiency.

DEMOCRATIC EGOTISM AND DISLOYALTY.

Prior to each Presidential election, for more than thirty years, the members of the dominant faction in the Democratic party have regularly set on fence howls in favor of nullification, of secession, or rebellion. Just in proportion as the progress of events has seemed to undermine their influence with the masses of the population, and threaten them with banishment, more or less permanent, from the seats of power they prostituted and disgraced, have these howls increased in volume and bitterness. In 1856, when it appeared probable that Mr. JOHN C. FREMONT would be elected President, by the concurrence of a decided majority of the States, and with none of the inhabitants resting under disabilities except the blacks, they became more clamorous than ever before. In substance they claimed it to be unconstitutional for any other party than the Democratic to elect a President, to obtain majorities in the two Houses of Congress, to frame a policy for the government to pursue, and to carry that policy into effect. With unbounded arrogance, they substantially claimed, after the manner of imperial despots, to have a patent from the Almighty, and distinctly recognized in the Constitution itself, exclusively empowering them to direct and control the Government, leaving to the Republicans, and whoever else did not accept their ideas and fall in with their plans, the duty of passive obedience and the payment of such taxes as might be levied upon them. They carried this infatuation to the extent of making all the arrangements essential to a disruption of the Union in case Mr. BUCHANAN had been defeated and Mr. FREMONT elected. Gigantic frauds upon the purity of the ballot-boxes, which they perpetrated here in Pennsylvania, and which were afterwards disclosed by formal proceedings in the Courts of Philadelphia, left them in possession of the national administration, and in consequence they concluded to defer a resort to civil war for four years more, trusting to their power to intimidate their opponents, and to their ability to corrupt the elections, to renew at the expiration of that period their lease of authority.

Before the Presidential nominations were made in 1860, they became greatly alarmed in view of the manifest concentration of popular opinion and feeling against the extension of Slavery, to which extension they stood committed, as right and lawful in itself, and as necessary to the continuance of their domination in political affairs. They saw plainly that threats or frauds, on their part, would be inadequate to prevent their banishment, and they embarked renewedly in their old conspiracy to revolutionize the government, trusting to their ferocity in the onset, and to their dexterity in manipulation, to give them success. As soon as Mr. LINCOLN was elected, they threw off the faint disguises they had previously worn, and deliberately plunged the nation into the horrors of civil war.

No sooner was the rebellion suppressed, than they reverted to the ideas and tactics which led to it. They systematically denounced everything that had been done by the government, contrary to their liking, since they were thrust out of the administration, as unconstitutional and void. They insisted that the seceding States, by rebellion, had wrought no forfeiture of their rights and prerogatives, but were entitled to come back, just as they were, with their Constitutions binding them to fealty to the Confederacy, and all their officers, from Government down to pathmasters, sworn to support that fraudulent government.

For the last three months, and with increasing audacity, they have proclaimed their intention to be to resort to war again in case their interpretation of the Constitution, and their demands in behalf of the revolted States in accordance with that exigent, shall not be accepted and complied with. We have heretofore shown the incalculations of BLAIR, HAMPTON, TOOMBS, COBS and others on these points. We now direct attention to the declaration of Mr. T. W. CLAGETT, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Keokuk, Iowa, district. He says:

"No Northern Radical, who is the author of all the miseries which have befallen our country within the last six years, know that the two million white citizens of the North will never permit another Radical to occupy the Presidential chair, who will succeed in electing a majority of the electoral votes, who by excluding the Southern States from voting, or by forcibly depriving a majority of the white citizens of those States of the franchise."

What Mr. CLAGETT and his associates have at heart is to prevent the Republicans from electing the next President. His and their idea is that such an election, however accomplished, would be unconstitutional. This is only a renewal of the old Democratic egotism, which sets up their explanation of the Constitution in the place of the instrument itself. He imagines General GRANT can be elected President only by excluding the seceding States from voting, or by forcibly depriving a majority of the white citizens of those States from the right of suffrage; or, if he does not so imagine, he fancies these are the good points to press upon multitudes of men who will not stop to verify whether they are well or falsely taken.

Of the ten seceding States seven have already been fully restored to representation, and will certainly participate in the election of President in November. Of the white citizens in the seceding States only ten per cent remain under any disabilities whatever. Ninety per cent of them voted at the recent elections in those States, or, if they did not, voluntarily refrained in order that no results might be reached under the reconstruction acts. The Republicans, as a body, are content that all white citizens of the seceding States shall vote or hold office who now bear true allegiance to the Union, no matter what they did four or six years ago. Having demonstrated their liberality in this regard, by positive enactments they will not be intimidated by BLAIR, CLAGETT and company into going the fraction of an inch farther than their convictions carry them. They have listened to the insolence of Democratic assumptions for years past without being moved thereby, and will not be deflected from their purpose by it either now or hereafter. As American citizens they have the same authority as their neighbors to construe the Constitution, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President, to elect them, as also majorities of the Senate and House of Representatives, to frame a platform or policy of administration, and to carry it into execution. All these things they have done heretofore and will do again, not asking leave of the Democrats, but in virtue of inherent right and the force of numbers. They intend to elect GRANT and COLFAX by a majority of the Electoral votes that may be legally cast, but this is not all; they intend to give GRANT and COLFAX more than half the Electoral votes that would be cast in case all the States were reconstructed and shared in the election; and they will then be ready to meet any measures Mr. CLAGETT and his associate incendiaries may be pleased to institute.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

The Democratic party congratulates itself that it is now making offensive war. The nation will prepare to hold its nose.

GEN. BUELL, who wanted one of the finest armies in the West in a series of McClellan's, naturally supports Seymour and Blair.

EVERY man in the South who words betray the fact that he is yet a Rebel at heart is for Seymour and Blair. Remember this, comrades.

"LIKE GRANT," said a German the other day, "because he don't blow. He minds his own business, and makes no fuss about it."

The Fort Wayne (Indiana) Gazette announces that Gen. James B. Steedman repudiates Seymour and Blair. We can scarcely credit it.

MR. S. TAYLOR SMITH, to whom the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Fifth Maryland district was tendered, has declined to be a candidate, and will support Grant and Colfax.

MR. ANOLD, editor of the Germania, in conversation with a citizen the other evening, said: "I have seen a Democrat all my life, but I am still a Democrat, but I am no Secesh."—Zanesville Courier.

The Hon. Thomas N. Stillwell, formerly Republican Representative in Congress from the Ohio Indiana district, who was elected at the strange election on the occasion of Johnson's apostasy, is now earnestly at work for Grant and Colfax.

ONE OF THEOBANDS.—Said a well known Democrat to us yesterday, "I have about made up my mind to vote for Grant. I don't stand at the head of a very large number of people, but I am gathering about him." Such observations are very common just now.

HON. DAVID KILGOUR, who has been identified with the Johnson party of Indiana, and who for the past two years has been claimed by the Democrats, refused to support either the Democratic State or National tickets. He goes for Grant, Colfax and Baker.

WHAT DEMOCRACY HAS COST.—Before the Democrats brought on the late terrible civil war, a horse and four could be purchased for $5, now you have to pay $10, and so in regard to all the necessities of life. Elect Seymour and Blair, and bring on another revolution, as general Blair, and what is to become of the country? Thoughtful men ponder.

WHILE in Richmond, Chief Justice Chase in conversation with one of the Judges there said that the Republicans in Congress were really frightened about the Supreme Court, at the time the bill was passed restricting the jurisdiction of the Court so that it could not pass upon cases involving the Reconstruction laws, because, as Mr. Chase said the Court would have decided them constitutional. (Booth.)

MAJ. EVANS, an Indiana officer, at a recent meeting in Indianapolis, in the course of a speech, said the only independent work he had ever known Blair to do as an army officer was his march down through Lower Tennessee and Mississippi when Grant was besieging Richmond. When asked by Grant if he had taken any prisoners, he replied: "No, but I have buried a good number of houses, and captured all the niggers."

BLAIR! Shades of the chivalry! Who is he? The chief South-stealer and Bum-ranger in North Carolina, and who defied a "two footed female" that she was just as good as any other woman. The refinement, the intelligence and worth of the State must experience a most profound satisfaction in voting for this man Blair. (The cry by their own and a "secesh" intermeddled not therewith.—Baltimore Standard.)

HON. J. N. MORRIS, of Illinois, says: "A few days after the nominations were made by the Convention which assembled in New York the 11th, I had a conversation in Washington City with General Chestnut, of Massachusetts, in which that eminent jurist and politician said: "The simple question to determine at the election of Blair, or Grant or Frank Blair, is President for the next four years? If Seymour is elected he will not live a year."

POLITICAL HAN-KARL.—The Sun, independent, has the following word of warning to the Democrats: "The revolutionary party killed the Democratic ticket as soon as his name was put upon it. The Democratic rebel orators at the South, in their business than Blair, and just as violent and revolutionary, are half of the party in this country, and are completing the work. If they are allowed to keep on in this way much longer, it is doubtful whether the Democracy will be able to carry Kentucky, Delaware and Maryland. Seymour is right to hurry any call of his dogs. They are hunting nobody but their own party and its principal candidate."

The New York Times makes this grand point on the XIVth amendment to-day. Thus stands the Constitution to-day. Even the election of Seymour for President cannot alter the matter. The nullification of reconstruction cannot repeal this constitutional amendment. On the strength of these precedents give them a trial. They will be found the very best anti-billious medicine that modern pharmacy has introduced.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Liniments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of the pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with their functions are indicated by pain in the back, the loins and the groins, difficulty in voiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should be resorted to.

Dr. SARGENT'S Liuretic or Backache Pills

Can be relied on for these purposes: they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys; assist nature in relieving them of any foreign particles and stimulates them to a healthy and vigorous action.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Contains nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies; they do not stick on the tongue or the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restore tone to the system. They are recommended by all who have tried them.

Seventy-five per cent. of the population of the United States are more or less bilious at this season. The ailment enters into the bill as certainly as it evolves malaria from the stagnant pools. It is of the most important, therefore, to catch the temperate and to prevent the disease. There are few comparable anti-bilious specific—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Neglect the early symptoms, and the chances are that they will result in retention fever, fever and jaundice. Do not procrastinate. As health is the greatest of earthly blessings, it should be every rational being a first care. Whoever chooses to use HOSTETTER'S BITTERS as a preventive or cure of the bilious epidemic and epidemics which so generally prevail towards the close of the heated term and in the fall months, is in fact worth while to be forewarned when the means of defence are within the reach of all. CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KATZNER writes to thank you for your kind and intelligent management of my disease, which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might detach it from my lungs. I knew that the peculiar mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the closeness of the connection and the immediate contact of the disease, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of the morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly justified, that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the diseased part, must have, if anything could, without cutting, which I had tried and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with a sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of a youthful man. I feel it my duty to state that I am a happy and contented man, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with a sounder and better health than I have had for years.
